The Zulu War.

LONDON, Ang 8-News has been rcceived from Sir Garnet Wolseley, on the Umlatoosi River, under date of July 21, that the prospects for peace and the settlement of the country are good. General Wolceley's interview with the coast chief was satisfactory, but the latter considered quiet imposs bie while King Celewayo is at large. The natives generally cannot understand the retirement of the British force from Uluudi. General Wolseley, therefore, thinks it will be necessary to reoccupy that place, and has snamoned all the chiefs to meet him ison, a young man 18 years old, was drowned while bathing in Contentnes Oreek, near Bell's Bridge, last Saturday evening. He could swim only a very little and happening to get in water over his head he became frightened and sank before assistance could be given The same gentleman informs us that a house and three neroes were burned near the same place where young Mallison was drowned, u t two weeks before his death.

Raleigh Observer: The Magistrates and Commissioners of Yadkin county levied the tex on last 'l'nesday as folthe poll. This levy will also raise a special tax of $5,000 levied to pay of judgments against the county. Last year, under Radical rale, the tax was $1.08 on the $100 valuation on property, and $3.24 cents on the poll. The Democratic Commissioners have reinced the property tax 12 cents on the $100, and 35 cents on the poll, and at the same time raise a special tax of $5,000 in addition to the running expenses, to pay off the indebtedness of the county.
