Prices are very high on the Sounds.
September mullets are now in vogue.
"The mild September" is at hand today.
Scuppernong grapes are coming in quite freely.
We lose, this month, 64 minutes of daylight.
This month has five Saturdays and five Tuesdays.
This weather ought to be good for the cotton crop.
Window Glass of all sizes at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.
All Is this Sept ember? It R. Then look out for oysters.
We notice that some of our citizens are laying in their winter supply of coal.
Vacation draweth to a close, and so does the picnic and excursion season.
Nor barque Christina, Jensen, from this port, arrived at Flushing on the 18th ult.

What a screamer! is a tribute often paid to a crying baby, but Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup by alleviating the pains of the little one soon stops the crying.
Schr. H. G. Bird, Bunker, sailed from Rockland, Me., on the 26th ult, for this port.
Prof. Agostini proposes to conduct dancing schools in both Charlotte and Concord.
For bar steel, iron and carriage goods go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.
Sol Smith Russell has again united his fortunes with the Bergers, and they are now on the road with a first rate company.
A burglary was committed on Masonboro Sound. A small quantity of flour and other eatables were all that was missed.
A couple of young gentlemen of Masonboro bagged one hundred masha hens and snipe at Masonboro sound on one tide on Friday last.
The excursion party spoken of by us on Friday last as coming from Fayetteville will probably arrive here to-night on the steamer A. P. Hunt
The endowment or life insurance feature, which has comparatively recently been introduced into many orders in this country, has been adopted by the Independent Order of Rechabites.
The Observer claims that Charlotte received the second bale of new cotton shipped in this State, Wilmington having had the first. Wrong there, old fellow! Charlotte got the fourth bale, Wilmington having received the first, second, and third.
Ashore at New River.
A three masted schooner, loaded with lumber, has been reported to the Signal Office at this place as being ashore at New River. It is surmised here that the stranded vessel is the Marion Gage, loaded with lumber, from Apalachicola and bound for Philadelphia, but which was abandoned off Cape Fear during the recent gale on our coast and her Captain and crew rescued by Captain Halcrow, of the Br. brig Alaska, and safely landed at Smithville, the Captain and crew afterwards taking passage on the steamship Regulator, from this port to New York, a full account of which was published in the REVIEW on the 23d ult. It was thought by Capt. Barr, of the revenue cutter C. J. Fox, who went out to the wrecked vessel, that she would probably drift ashore in a few days about Topsail Inlet, and if this be the Marion Gage, as supposed, Captain Barr's reckoning has proved very nearly correct.

Wine and Cake for Evenings.
Alfred Speer of New Jersey, it should be known, is one of the most extensive producers and dealers in Pure Wines and Brandies in the United States. He makes a Superior Port Wine, which took the highest premium at the Centennial, known as Speer's Port Grape Wine. It is sold by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co. and Green & Planner. Ang-1f.

The Atmosphere.
The Fall season drops in on us to-day with rather more of warmth than the dying Summer carried with it. The highest range of the thermometer to-day, as taken in the REVIEW office, was 89. The following is the record for to-day: At 9 o'clock the thermometer was at 82; at 10 o'clock at 84; at 12 o'clock at 87; at 2 o'clock at 88; at 3 o'clock at 89 and at 4 o'clock at 88.
Through the Virginia Mountains.
A grand excursion from this city and Richmond, to Cincinnati, through the Virginia mountains and down the Ohio river, via Atlantic Coast Line and Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, is in projection. It is to leave Wilmington on the 8th inst., and Richmond on the 9th, and the ticket will be good for fifteen days. Round trip tickets from this city to Huntington and return, are placed at $15 and to Cincinnati and return at $19.

Arrested.
Henry McNeill, colored, was arrested to-day by the police for participating yesterday in the riot at the Long House, where there was quarreling and fighting, loud and boisterous swearing and where disorderly conduct in general prevailed until the police lighted in upon them. The prisoner was committed to the cell until to-morrow at 9 1/2 o'clock a. m. at which time he will be interviewed by the Mayor and allowed to tell all he knows about it.
Rare Collection.
Mr. P. Heinsberger has on exhibition in his show window on Market street, a beautiful collection of sea shells, ferns and mosses from the Pacific Ocean and a variety of beautiful bird wings. The collection was made by Maj. C. P. Bolles, of this city, who is now cruising on a government ship on the Pacific. They are quite a curiosity and are very much admired for their beautiful tints and colors and because of their rarity in eastern America.
The best Windows, Doors and Blinds and Lowest Prices can be got at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.
City Court.
There was quite a gathering at the Mayor's Court this morning to begin the first of the week and the first day of the month with. The Long House answered well to the roll call on the Clerk's docket, having sent four colored delegates all "lubly Dinahs," escorted by two policemen, as early as 10 o'clock yesterday morning, to be on hand in time for the Mayor's levee this morning.
Fred Jones was the first case called—charge, disorderly conduct; sentenced to pay fine and costs.
R. W. Richardson, colored, arraigned upon the same charge, was released upon the same conditions.
Lou Lofton, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was released, judgment being suspended in her case.
Julia Smith, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was also released, judgment being suspended in her case likewise.
Susan Franks, colored, charged with the same offense as the two foregoing named individuals, in default of payment of $10 fine was sent below to chew the cud of sweet and bitter fancies for the space of twenty days.
Ellen Murray, colored, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or remain in the C. P. for ten days, upon the charge of disorderly conduct.
One case of the same old drunk, continued from Saturday, was sent below for twenty days to cool off.
Solon Shingle, arraigned upon the charge of being drunk and down, was sent down again until he got over his drunk and the case was continued until tomorrow morning. This finished the proceedings and the Court adjourned for the day.
In the new digest of the postal law is contained this provision: "Cave Canem. Beware of the Dog. Carriers are not required to run the risk of being bitten by dangerous dogs in delivering mail matter. Persons keeping such dogs must call at the postoffice for mail."

Grape Wine for Communion.
The superior quality and entire purity of Speer's Port Grape Wine, of New Jersey, and the success that physicians have had by its use have induced them to write about it, and caused hundreds of others to prescribe it in their practice as the best and most reliable wine to be had. It is held in great favor for evening parties, and for communion purposes. For sale by P. L. Bridgers & Co., J. C. Munds and Green & Planner.

The Younger Jefferson's Debut.
An item in a late issue of the REVIEW announcing the marriage of Thos. Jefferson's son, son of the renowned actor, Joseph Jefferson, recalls to the mind of a friend an incident in the early career of the first named individual which may safely be said to have been his "first appearance on any stage," and which took place here in Wilmington, and within the walls of "Old Drury," that antiquated pile which then adorned the site of the present large and imposing edifice.
The great actor, then a young man, totally unknown to fame, was a humble member of a strolling company of theatricals under the management of a man by the name of Deering, which appeared in Wilmington and opened the old theatre "for a few nights only." Jefferson's first appearance was in the character of D. G. Gregory in the farce of the "Spectre Bridegroom," and such was the excellence, life and spirit of the personification that he was greeted throughout with most uproarious applause, and was called before the curtain at the close of the performance. He appeared amid deafening shouts bearing in his arms his infant son, scarce eighteen months old, whom he introduced to the Wilmington public in a most humorous style, saying as they had called for Jefferson at the fall of the curtain, and there being two individuals of that name behind the scenes, he thought it right and proper that both should appear. The scene which ensued can better be imagined than described.
Many years have passed. The itinerant comedian, who came unheralded and unknown, and who received his first words of commendation and encouragement from a Wilmington audience, has achieved a world-wide reputation through his matchless personification of Kip Van Winkle, and the child whose debut we have just mentioned has reached man's estate and is the happy individual who on Thursday last led to the hymeneal altar, the actress, Miss Eugenie Paul.

Value of Ammonia for Cleansing Purposes.
The following useful hints as to the value of ammonia for cleansing purposes about the house and kitchen are clipped from an exchange:
The pantry shelves are getting grimy, or finger-marks around the doorlatches and knobs are looking dark and unsightly. For lack of time, they are left day after day, for it is hard work to scour all the time, and it wears off the paint, too. The husband keeps his bottle of oil, or perhaps a large can holds it, for he never stints in that. Now, suppose his wife has her bottle of spirits of ammonia to use; she takes her bottle of water and a clean cloth, just puts on a few drops of the fluid and wipes off all the dirt. It is worth more than a half day's labor, and does not hurt the paint either. She could put a few drops in her dishwater, and see how easily the dishes could be cleaned; a few drops on a sponge would clean all the windows in the sitting room, making them shine like crystal. It would take the stains off the teaspoons, too; and a teaspoonful in the mop-pail would do more toward washing up the kitchen floor than ten pounds of elbow-grease applied to the mop handle. A housewife has just as much right to make her work easy and expeditious as her husband. If she does not do it the fault is her own, in a great measure.

Is it Possible
That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures, as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.

STOMACH BITTERS
Fever and Ague is most common in the spring, but most severe in the fall and winter. It is strictly a malarious disease, and so surely will the individual who adopts this precaution be exempted from its pains and penalties. Add to this its value as a stomachic and anti-bilious agent, and who will venture to gainsay its claims to the first place among family medicines.
