 place on Thursday afternoon next between the Young Boys of America and the Starlight Clubs, on the corner of Seventh and Happy Man.

 Mr. S. Hanstein, who has been on a visit to New York city for the past month, returned to this city last evening, looking well and happy. His visit proved to be the most pleasant of his life, for while there he became betrothed to a fair daughter of that city. The nuptials will be celebrated in about two months and Mr.
 Hanstein will bring his bride to a home provided for her id this city.

You can get the best White Lead, Paints and Oils, and lowest prices at JACOBI'S

The Raffle Last Night.
 According to previous announcement in the REVIEW the raffle of the bale of cotton for the benefit of the Hood fund came off at Mr. Stephen Jewett's book store at 8 o'clock last evening. Maj. T.
 H. McKay threw the lucky number of 42, which won the prize, for his friend, Mr.
 Wm. A. Whitehead. The net amount realized will be about $55, which amount, we understand, will be forwarded by express next week to New Orleans.

Rosenthal's New Stock.
 Mr. Rosenthal, of the new and fashionable boot and shoe store on Market street, returned here last night from the Northern markets, where he laid in a large and carefully selected stock of goods. He says that he has now more goods, better goods and cheaper goods than he has ever bought before in any one season and he is confident that a call and an inspection of his stock will convince all of these facts. He appears in a handsome advertisement in this issue to which attention is respectfully invited.

Money in Turpentine.
 It is said that, according to the low prices of spirits and rosin, there is no money in the turpentine business now, and has not been for several years. Yet we happen to know of one gentleman, a turpentine man who has farms in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, who made $10,000 last year on turpentine and in one year since the close of the war he made $32,000 clear in this business. He is a man who gives a close personal and practical attention to the receipts as well as to the disbursements of his business and therein may lie the secret of his success.

A Good Appointment of the A. C. L.
 The Atlantic Coast Line, we learn, has secured the services of Captain A. D.
 Cazaux and that gentleman will be identified hereafter with the A. C. L. in the matter of freight and freighting business.
 We are of the opinion that what Capt.
 C. doesn't know about the business can't be learned in twenty years, for that is about the amount of experience he has had in through freights.

We think Col. Pope, the General Freight Agent of the Line, quite fortunate in securing a person so favorably known and so highly esteemed as is Capt.
 Cazaux, to throw all of his well-known business energies and qualifications towards influencing business for that route.

Littell's Living Age.
 The numbers of the Living Age for the weeks ending September 6th and 13th, respectively, contain the following articles: The Works of Rembrandt, Edinburgh; Count Cavour, Quarterly; Some Facts and Thoughts about Light-Emitting Animals, Popular Science Review; Prince Louis Napoleon's Expedition to Boulogne, and A Gallican Novelist, Fraser; Fashionable Charity, and The Late Youth of Philosophers, Saturday Review; Barnard Castle, Spectator; with continuations of Jean Ingelow's "Sarah de Berenger;" and Miss Keary's "Doubting Heart;" and the usual amount of Poetry.

For fifty-two such numbers of sixty four large pages each (or more than 3,000 pages in a year), the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10 50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4 monthlies or weeklies with The Living Age for a year, both postpaid, Littell & Co., publishers.

The best Windows, Doors and Blinds and Lowest Prices can be got at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

A Mishap to the Dry Dock.

We learn that late yesterday afternoon as an effort was being made to sink the third section of Messrs Blossom & Evans' dry dock, from some cause the section careened and capsized, snapping and tearing asunder some of the timbers which held the section together. The damage, however, we are glad to learn, is only slight, at a cost not exceeding $45, while the dock will be ready by Tuesday afternoon to receive a vessel for repairs.

Another Liberal Act.
 Mr. Wm. A. Whitehead, the gentleman who won the bale of cotton at the raffle last night, has donated the bale for the same charitable purpose, so that all who are willing to subscribe to the fund for the benefit of General Hood's orphan children can have an opportunity of doing so by calling at Messrs. Whitehead & Turrentine's office, on Dock street. The raffle will take place within a reasonable time, and as soon a respectable amount is subscribed to justify it.

Coming in Now.
 Messrs. A. & I. Shrier are determined to maintain the enviable position they have reached in the clothing business in this city. By selling their goods at close prices and only representing them as they really are, they have secured a large share of the public confidence. Their new stock is now coming in rapidly and as fast as the senior partner, who is now in New York, can make his selections.
 They will present this Fall all the newest and choicest styles and designs, and they invite attention to the elegant display they are making in all of the lines which go to make up the stock of a first-class clothing house.

Sudden Death.
 A young German sailor, named Car Anderson, died quite suddenly this morning between 7 and 8 o'clock, at the Mariner's Hotel, on Nutt street, where he had been employed for some time as a barkeeper. He was taken sick last Monday morning, with an attack of delirium tremens, but he had been improving and the physician stated last night that if he would abstain from liquor he would soon recover. The deceased was between 25 and 30 years of age and was a native of Guttenburg, in Germany. The physician giving a certificate of the cause of death, the services of the coroner were not called into requisition. He was buried this afternoon in the Public Burial Ground by Mr. Bryson, the proprietor of the Mariner's Hotel.

Read This. Girls.
 Learn to darn stockings neatly, and see that your own are in order. Don't let a button be off your shoe a minute longer than necessary. It takes just about a minute to sew one on, and oh, how much neater a foot looks in a trimly buttoned boot than it does in a lop sided affair, with half the buttons off! Every girl should learn to make the simple articles of clothing; and we know a little girl of seven who could do all of this and also make the whole of a blue calico dress for herself, and piece a large bed-quilt. She was not an overtasked child either, but a merry, rumping, indulged, only daughter. But she was "smart," and she did not die young either. Indeed we have seldom known children "too smart to live." Very few ever die of that complaint, whatever their grandmothers may think.
 So never be afraid a bit of overdoing the business. Help all you can, and study over the business daily. Once get in the habit of looking over your things, and you will like it wonderfully. You will have the independent feeling that you need not wait for any one's convenience in repairing and making, but that you can be beforehand with all such matters.
 The relief to your weary mother will be more than you can estimate.
