People are now shooting birds, Summer hats, etc.

The steamship Benefactor, Jones, hence, arrived at New York on Wednesday.

George Eliot says: 'Women don't love men for their goodness.' This is lucky, if true.

Ask your nearest debating society which are the most heart-rending—dog-days or catnights.

Rows or little knots of satin ribbons of two colors are worn down the fronts of dresses of all kinds in Paris.

Street corner statesmen are voluble, boisterous, aggressive, and oh! so dry. A limekiln is a swamp in comparison to them.

Some of the muslin polonaise have their backs tucked throughout their entire length, and have their front tucked as far as the waist.

After several days of dry, hot and sunshiny weather, we were visited this forenoon by gentle and refreshing showers to make glad the parching earth.

Window Glass of all sizes at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Rice birds in Petersburg (they call them sora there) are quoted by the Index-Appel at from 40 to 50 cents a dozen. They sell here for from 15 to 25 cents.

Women care more for nature and men more for art. A cynical bachelor might say that perhaps that is the reason why men and women care so much for each other.

The city and the country are at this season like a change in a night watch. One is waking and shaking itself into life, the other is lying down and getting rid of company for a long sleep.

Somebody in Wilmington who signs himself with a single 'M' (is that you, Tom?) publishes a very interesting letter in yesterday's Raleigh Observer, on the Cape Fear river, rice birds and rice fields.

He thought he heard 'tho' angels sing but it proved to be a chorus of yels from the next door children. He grew desperate, procured a bottle of Dr. Ball's Baby Syrup and sent it to Mrs. S. with his compliments. He was a bachelor.

When is a married man a bird? When he comes home at 2 A. M. P. S.—For the benefit of bachelors (it not being necessary for the married faction) we explain that when a man comes home at the hour named his wife makes him quail.

There is a touching beauty in the pale wild rose that grows by the dusky wayside, half choked with thistle down; but it is all lost upon the man who breaks both his back suspender buttons when he stoops to pluck it.

Match Game of Base Ball.
A prominent event of interest in base ball circles is the projected match game between the Champion and Home Club, which is to take place at the Club Grounds, near the Old Union Depot, on next Wednesday, the 24th.

You can get the best White Lead, Paints and Oils, and lowest prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Magistrate's Court.
Before Justice Hall this morning Henry MacRae, colored, was arraigned upon the charge of false pretense, and bound over in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Assistant Marshal.
Platt D. Cowan, Esq. of this city, has been selected as Assistant Marshal for New Hanover, by Col. A. B. Gorrell, of Winston, Chief Marshal for the State Fair. Mr. Cowan is now in Raleigh, and we presume he will accept the tender which has been made him.

Sunday School Convention.
The eighth annual session of the colored Baptist Sunday School Convention of North Carolina will be held in Goldsboro on Wednesday, the 24th inst., and will continue in session for three days. The Convention is composed of delegates from all parts of the State, representing a membership of 22,007, and a large attendance is expected.

Colonel McRae.
The Charlotte Democrat says: Col. D. K. McRae, of Wilmington, has accepted the invitation to deliver an address at the Fair in Charlotte on the 6th of November next. The reputation of Col. McRae as an orator will draw a large crowd to hear him and we can say, from what we know about him, that no one will be disappointed. He is the best and most entertaining speaker we ever heard, not excepting Stephen A. Douglass, Thomas H. Benton and Wm. L. Yancey.

Strangers in the city should not fail to visit the Sash Factory, foot of Walnut street.

Oderous Plants.
Upon this subject the Country Gentleman has remarked that many cultivators of ornamental plants desire especially to raise those which produce fragrant odors, particularly for bouquets, stands, and flower vases. In answer to occasional inquiries, it names the following sweet-scented flowers, to which some of our readers may add others: Sweet violet, hyacinth, heliotrope, pinks, sweet-scented candytuft, woodbine, sweet brier, white lily, sweet alyssum, magnionette, sweet William, and several sweet-scented, perpetual roses. Here are enough to fill a room or garden with perfumes rivaling the 'odors from the spicy shores of Araby, the blest,' if well managed and cultivated.

City Court.
Mary Anderson, a delinquent from the Whitfield house, arraigned for disorderly conduct, was discharged.
Tilly Hall, alias Matilda Fennell, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged.

Jane Hines, charged with the same offence, was sentenced to pay $5 fine or remain in custody for the space of ten days.
Mag McKoy, colored, for a like offence received a similar sentence.

A truly rural individual, arrested for drunkenness, was released after spending the night in a cell.

Four retail merchants who were brought up for failing to pay their license tax were fined $5 each. This finished the day's sitting and the Court adjourned.

Lippincott's Magazine.
Lippincott's Magazine for October opens with a very bright and amusing article, by Margaret F. Ertha Wright, depicting the rambles and experiences of a party of American artists in Italy. The illustrations are in keeping with the text, being full of vivacity and point. The fourth chapter of Dr. Oswald's 'Summer Land Sketches' treats of 'The Western Sierras,' and is not inferior to the former installments either in the interest of the narrative or the beauty of the illustrations. A third illustrated article, 'Chamois Shooting with the Emperor of Austria,' is by W. A. Baillie Grohman, author of 'Gaddings with a Primitive People.' 'Sunday in England' is the production of an English writer, who treats his subject with that intimate knowledge which none but a native could be expected to exhibit. William L. Stone, author of the well-known life of Sir William Johnson, relates the biography of Lady Harriet Acland, whose heroic character and eventual career give her a prominent place in the annals of conjugal devotion. Edward C. Bruce writes instructively on 'American Landscape Gardening.' H. M. Kennedy gives an interesting account of 'The Study of English in Germany,' and Mrs. E. B. Duffey describes 'The Buried Wealth of South Jersey.'

'Through Winding Ways,' which has proved one of the most attractive serials ever published in the Magazine, is concluded in this number, and there are several short stories suited to different tastes. The 'Monthly Gossip' is entertaining as usual, and the number on the whole is as readable as any of its predecessors.

Pretty Low.
Captain Albert Worth, of the steamer A. P. Hurt, reports the river lower than it has been since 1871. But the Hurt can get through if the sand is only wet; at least so says, Captain Worth.

The Woodhull.
Somebody, probably the inevitable Vic herself, has sent to the REVIEW and JOURNAL copies of the London American Traveller, with a long editorial article on the Woodhull as a candidate for the Presidency, not of England, but of the United States, and enclosing a full page picture of that notorious character.

The Theatrical Season.
Since our yesterday's issue Capt. Pen-y-packer, the lessee of the Opera House, has had an application from the Fay Templeton Troupe for the Opera House for September 29th and 30th and October 1st, and has therefore booked them for those dates. The Templetons had other dates at first, but cancelled them for these. In all probability this will be the opening of the theatrical season in Wilmington.

Juvenile Ballers.
A match game of base ball was played yesterday afternoon, at the corner of Seventh and Princess streets, between two juvenile clubs in this city, the Starlights and the Wide Awakes, which resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 48 to 36. At the close of the game the victors left for Mr. P. Heinsberger's store where that gentleman presented a bat and ball to the winning club. The little fellows left the store in high feather and with three cheers for Mr. Heinsberger.

The Virtue of Turpentine.
A medical authority says: 'Let any one who has an attack of lockjaw take a small quantity of spirits of turpentine, warm it and pour it into the wound—no matter what the wound is, or what its nature is—and relief will follow in less than one minute. Nothing better can be applied to a severe cut or bruise than cold turpentine; it will give certain relief almost instantly. Turpentine is also a sovereign remedy for croup. Saturate a piece of flannel with it, and place the flannel on the throat and chest; in every case three to five drops on a lump of sugar may be taken inwardly. Every family should have a bottle of turpentine on hand.'

No Enough Money for the Music.
Henry MacRae, colored, 'gin a treat' the other night, that is, it was a countryman's treat; every man was to pay for himself before he could gain admission to the ball-room in which there was music and dancing, all in compliment to the colored volunteers from Raleigh. But MacRae, it seems, in settling up his indebtedness with those who discoursed the dulcet strains, while the, sable-hued gallants with the gold lace and brass buttons tripped the light fantastic with their lovely Dinah's, lacked just seventy-eight cents to complete the amount, whereupon he was taken up with a warrant and carried before a Justice of the Peace for trial.

MR. EDITOR:
The ladies living North of the W. & W. Railroad would like very much to know of the Board of Aldermen what has become of their petition, sent in some two months ago? They would respectfully remind the city fathers of the fact that their husbands, fathers and brothers still 'live, move and—pay taxes.' G.

Important to the Afflicted.
We would advise all who may need the advice of a physician, to either call or write to Dr. Robertson, 19, So. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., who from 15 years experience in Hospital and Special Practice, guarantees a cure in all diseases of the Urinary Organs and of the Nervous System, Organic and Seminal Weakness, Impotency (loss of sexual power), Nervous Debility and trembling, Palpitation of the Heart, dimness of sight or giddiness, Nocturnal Emissions, &c., all resulting from abuses in youth, or excesses in manhood; also all skin and blood diseases quickly cured. Dr. R. is a graduate of one of the oldest and best medical schools in this country (University of Maryland), and refers to the leading physicians in his city, and all consulting him can rely upon honorable and confidential treatment. In writing enclose stamp for reply. Special attention given to all female complaints. Good accommodations for all wishing to call and see him. Medicine sent to any address.

A CARD.
To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

Mr. Thos. E. Bend, Superintendent of the N. Y. & W. S. S. Line, has just returned from a flying visit to Gotham.

No man knows how much cold comfort there is in this world until his heel crushes an innocent grape hull on a hard pavement.

No more nimbly does the feathered warbler of the wood flit from twig to twig than does the church congregation trip from benediction to small talk and gossip.

Code Duelle.
Passengers by the W. C. & A. train this morning report that an affair of honor was about to take place between Mr. Dargan, of the Sumter Watchman, who is also a practising lawyer, and a Mr. Earle both are young men and both residents of Sumter, S. C., and both are practising lawyers; and, singular to say, they were both members of the last legislature which met in that State, where it is said the difficulty which is about to culminate in a duel first had its origin.

One of the gentlemen has been arrested, so our informant states, but he gave bond and then went on the even tenor of his way, expecting to forfeit the bond and meet his antagonist. The parties were expected to look at each other over the barrels of their Derringers somewhere near the Georgia line to day or to morrow.

Better than Foreign Port.
Speer's Port Grape Wine is better than Imported Port, and since the adulteration of the latter, it must take its place. It is pure, and really excellent and health giving.—Troy Times.
The most select Fifth Avenue families of New York use this wine at their evening entertainments. Messrs. P. L. Bridgers & Co., J. C. Munds and Green & Flanner have some direct from Mr. Speer.

Worthless Stuff!
Not so fast, my friend; if you could see the strong, healthy, blooming, men women and children that have been raised from beds of sickness, suffering and almost death, by the use of Hop Bitters, you would say 'Glorious and invaluable remedy.' See another column.

DIED.
ORMSBY—Near Bannerman's Bridge, in Ormsby county, on Sunday, the 14th inst., JOHNIE, the last son of Widow Ormsby, in the 19th year of his age. He was a good, peaceable, inoffensive young man, with no stain of reproach to rest upon his name. May the bereaved mother be sustained in her affliction by the assurance that her present loss is his eternal gain. KNOX.

Hale's Weekly.
ON TUESDAY, the 7th day of October, 1879, and in the City of Raleigh, the undersigned will commence the publication of HALE'S WEEKLY, a North Carolina Democratic Newspaper.
These four words convey all that a column of Prospectus could tell: the good of the State; the success of the Party which is the life of the State and the country; the publication of all the news; these the objects proposed. That he can do, the subscriber does not affect to doubt. The People have set their seal of approval upon his past and he does not doubt the future.
HALE'S WEEKLY will be printed from new and beautiful type and on fair white paper. The price will be $7 per annum. No name will go upon its mail books without payment and no paper will be sent after expiration of the time paid for.
