WILMINGTON, N. C.
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1879.
[ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT WILMINGTON, N. C., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.]

VIEWS AND REVIEWS.

In the past year there were sixty-eight suicides in the ranks of the Italian army said to have been caused by emani from military life.

France, Germany, Italy, Austria, and Switzerland have agreed that their embassies and consulates shall send home indigent persons of their respective nationalities at half the ordinary railway fares.

A Siamese embassy is in London to open up a new line of connection between India and China, which will shorten the voyage by 800 miles, and, it is hoped, increase the commerce.

The Farmer's Emigration Society is a reality in London. It sent a batch of eighty men, with their families, to Texas the other day, and it is organizing a second and larger expedition.

Of late wild beasts have appeared in unusual numbers in Russia. In one month ten bears near Burakoff destroyed seven horses, four cows, and several sheep, and such annoyances have occurred in other districts.

Norfolk House, London, where a son and heir has just been born to the historic house of Howard, was the birthplace of King George III. It is a very large mansion in St. James' square, next to the Bishop of London, the town residence of the Bishop of London, who has Lord Derby as his neighbor on the other side.

A correspondent writing from Switzerland says: "The peasants are getting in their hay. The peasant woman hereabout works in a velvet corset and a straw hat plentifully adorned by ribbons.

The Monticello (Florida) Constitution of the 25th contains a letter from Topeka, Kansas, making numerous inquiries in relation to that part of Florida, written at the request of a number of citizens of Kansas.

Thirty years ago epaulettes were universally worn in the army, but to a smaller extent in Prussia and Austria than in any other country in Europe.

Here's a chance for our people. If the Kausasians want to move anywhere, why not to North Carolina? Let those who have lands for sale see if this is not the opportunity they have long desired.

A strict observance of Sunday is being urged in Germany, and is looked upon with favor even by those who are churchgoers. It is a social and economical and not a religious movement, and the end desired is not a Sunday like that of England or America, but one on which there shall be rest and recreation for all and particularly for the artisan and so-called laboring classes.

ANOTHER SOUTHERN OUTRAGE.

The Confederate Brigadiers have achieved another substantial victory, one which will be apt to make the New York Tribune and the Chicago Inter-Ocean gnash their teeth in impotent rage.

A PAPAL ORGAN.

When the present Pope was a cardinal he cherished the idea of publishing a Catholic journal that should be an organ for his church, and that could be read by all the people of Europe and America in their mother language.

THE LATE MAINE ELECTION.

A Washington dispatch to the New York World says a despatch received there from Portland announces that Davis needs from 2,000 to 4,000 votes to give him a majority over Garcelon and Smith.

The notion of placing him in nomination was suggested with a view of securing in case the popular vote should fail to elect, the Assembly could send in his name for the Senate to decide upon it.

A CHANCE FOR US.

The Monticello (Florida) Constitution of the 25th contains a letter from Topeka, Kansas, making numerous inquiries in relation to that part of Florida, written at the request of a number of citizens of Kansas.

There is one other reason I will mention influencing us to emigrate. It is the recent influx of negroes into Kansas. If they continue to leave the South in large bodies, it will be the best and happiest event that has ever transpired, and will prove a blessing to you Southern people.

A respectable elderly man committed suicide by throwing himself before the Northern Express the other day in England. In his lodgings were found a very curious model of a flying machine, pronounced by an expert, who had wasted midnight oil on the serial mystery, to realize the most promising theory of sky sailing.

Gen. Garibaldi has returned to his home in the island of Caprea to settle for the remainder of his days. His health during the trip from Rome was excellent, but his general condition is one of great feebleness, and it is thought that he can not live much longer.

Gen. Schenck is very sick—Detroit Free Press. Raise it, General! Bluff the old boy off! Don't pass in your checks.—Boston Post.

A New York bigamist performed the difficult feat of living for several years with two wives at two separate establishments, and Roscoe Conkling should take courage.—Philadelphia Chronicle.

In a circus at Paris, Illinois a suddenly crazed young lady ran into the ring, embraced the clown and declared that he must become her husband. The audience said it was the first original joke that they had heard in a circus ring for more than twenty-five years.—Norfolk Herald.

The Boston Transcript calls upon the Republican old guard to come to the front. We would inform the Republican old guard, who were in the rear as sutlers and contractors during the war, that as the fighting ceased several years ago, it will be perfectly safe for them to do so.—Philadelphia Chron.
