And slept, and in a twinkling dreamed, dream of eestacy and bliss! Delight through all his senses streamed, A ragged vagabond he seemed; Free winds of heaven his hair did kiss. on his bare skin the free sun beamed.

At morn he walked, bewildered, first, or who he was or where might be; Then saw the crown, and with a burst of sudden rage he swore and cursed; No beggar would change lives with me of all hard fates a king's is worst!"

untside the palace on the ground, slaved half to death and freezing cold, Less sheltered than the meanest hound, A begger slumbered, safe and sound. And dreams to him came swift and bold As if a palace walled him round.

Hedreamed he was a king indeed; on dream of ecstacy and bliss! offood he had his utmost greed: of gold, beyond his utmost need; Almen knelt ow his hand to kiss And gave his word obedient heed.

At morn he walked, bewildered, first, Or who he was or where might be; Inch quick, by hunger and by thist, He knew himself and groaned and cursed: No creature pity takes on me! A beggar's fate of all is worst,"

The Remarkable Case of Robert Mus-Lterman, who Slept for a Week and

& R bert Musterman, of Flatlands, L I who went to sleep on Wednesday a week ago and could not be awakened, died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock Muste man, who was a native of Germany, and about 29 years of age, was employed by Tax Collector Baisley of Being extraordinarily strong, he was able to do the work of two ordinary men. Musterman was in the habit of drinking a great deal of strong liquor after his day's work. On Wednesday night of last week Mu. terman retired to bed at 10 o'clock. On Thursday morning, as he did not arise as usual, Baisley shook him roughly, but could any return of the disease. of Flatbush, was called, and he, too, ever remain, with the deepest gratitude, was unable to awake Musterman from his Rip Van Winkle like sleep. Dr Ingraham thought it was a case of appoplexy, the result of drinking too much strong liquor. He ordered beef tea and nourishing diets to be fore à down the sleeping man's throat. No charge was noticed in Musterman's e ndition until Morday. Then his eyes opened for a few minut s and cos again. Much in ere t was taken Mr Baisley was bothered with many Barsley's story-and-a-half house on the Caparsie road. He seemed to gasped convulsively a few times, but use of it until the present. six days and four hours

The reports of wonderful cures o Rheumatism, Scrofula, Sait Kheum, Syphilis, Cancer, Ulcers and Bores, that come from all parts of the country, are not only remark able but so miraculous as to be doubted wer it not for the abundance of proof.

Remarkable Cure of Scrofula, &c. CASE OF COL. J. C. BRANSON. KINGSTON, Ga., Sept. 15, 1871

Gents:-For sixteen years I have been a great sufferer from Scrofula in its most distressing forms. I have been co fired to my room and bed for fifteen y ars with scrofu lous ulcerations. The most approved remedies for such cases had been used, and the most eminent physicians consulted, without any decided benefit. Thus prostrated, dis-Flatlands, to do work about the farm. tress d, desponding, I was advised by Dr. Bang extraordinarily strong, he was yer, of Floyd county, Ga., to commence the use of your Compound Extract Stillingia Language is as insufficient to describe the relief I obtained from th use of the Ftillingia as it is to convey an adequate idea of the in tensity of my suffering before using your medicine; sufficient to say, I abandened all other remedies and continued the use of y ur Extract of Stillingia, until I can say truly, "I am cured of all pain," of all disease, with Mr Baisley went to his room to awake nothing to obstruct the active pursuit of my him. ### A MIRACLE.

WEST POINT, Ga., Sept. 16, 1870.

Gents:-My daughter was taken on the 25th day of June, 1863, with what was supposed to be Acute Kheumatism, and was treated for the same with no success. In March, following, pieces of bone began to work out of the in the sleeping phenomenon, and right arm, and continued to appear till all the bone from the elbow to the shoulder joint Mr Baisley was bothered with many visitors who came from miles around. Many pieces of bone came out of the right foot and leg. The case was then pronounced one of White Swelling. After fourth year of its existence, is perhaving been confined about six years to her bed, and the case considered hopeless, I was sleep calmly, snored loudly, and per-spread freely Before his death be spired freely.
