A Disabled schooner.

NORFELK, Va, September 28-The schooner Wm Conners, fifteen days from Hayti, with logwood for New York, put into this port in distress this morning. All of the crew except the captain and one negro are sick with a malignant form of fever. Mate Thompson died shortly after the vessel came to anchor and one or two others may die. Health Officer Nash says he is not positive the disease is yellow fever as the patients have not developed some of the most striking symptoms of that malady.
