

TALMAGE AT HOME.
 This ministerial celebrity, who, has been disporting himself in the British Empire for the past four or five months, has arrived at his home in Brooklyn, New York, and has again put in an appearance at his famous Tabernacle. A grand reception was held in the Tabernacle last Friday night, where an immense congregation of his admirers and friends, estimated to number 5,000 persons assembled to bid him welcome. Of course, the feature of the evening was Talmage's speech, which was entirely characteristic of the man, and in keeping with his speeches and sermons of the past. He spoke in the highest terms of his visit, and was eulogistic in his praise of the English, Scotch, and Irish people with whom he came in contact while absent.

Mr. Talmage could be nothing unless he were sensational. His speeches or sermons would possess but little interest or force were they not entirely outside of the ordinary style of other clergymen, especially of his denomination. He has won celebrity by sailing outside the channels laid down in the regular chat, and in doing so has given great offense to many of his denomination, who have been scandalized at his presumptuous independence. He has been assailed with bitter animosity by clergymen of high standing in the denomination, and has been arraigned at the bar of the Presbytery, charged with grave offenses, but they were not sustained. The bitterness which prompted the trial, and which was engendered during its continuance, has not in the least subsided, and it is safe to presume that he will again be assailed by those who have taken up the cudgel against him.

We are not of those who think his course in, or out of the pulpit such as to advance the cause of religion, but there are those to whom his ministrations are a delight, and who have become bound to him by the persecutions to which, they claim, he has been subjected. The antagonism he has met with from others has seemed to endear him the more to them. With an immense congregation who have implicit faith in his honesty, purity, devotion and sanctity, he can laugh at all the obstacles which may be attempted to be placed in his path.

THE RECORD OF A NEWSPAPER.
 It is a good thing sometimes to have a record, and then again it is an unfortunate thing, especially for a few newspapers and politicians, and this latter is the case as applied to that cynical sheet the New York Sun, which though not of the Radical-Republican stripe in politics since General Grant neglected to give Dana a place in his cabinet, is sufficiently Radical in everything else that pertains to Southern people and Southern interests. It is not because of any recent utterance of the editor of that luminous sheet against our section, however, that we write these lines, but it is simply on account of his general predilections to everything like sarcasm. It is for this reason mainly that we have written the above and reproduce the following from the New York World, which, on frequent occasions before, has taken down the files of the Sun and folded it up in the neatest manner possible somewhat after this fashion:

Our esteemed cotemporary, the Sun, goes unusually wide of the mark when it assumes that those who "wish to render the nomination of Mr. Tilden in 1880 altogether impossible have joined in the determination to vote against Mr. Robinson and to endeavor to secure his defeat." For so long as on the 12th of November, 1878, our esteemed cotemporary, the Sun, declared with great emphasis that "Mr. Tilden will not again be the Presidential candidate of any party," and yet on the same 12th of November, 1878, our esteemed cotemporary, the Sun, declared with equal emphasis that it considered "the overthrow of Tammany essential to the freedom of the citizens of New York," and would "labor for it until it should be achieved." It must be obvious to our esteemed cotemporary that in the actual state of the case in this commonwealth the overthrow of Tammany can only be attained by the election Governor Robinson—yet in laboring for the election of Governor Robinson, our esteemed cotemporary surely cannot believe itself to be working for the re-nomination of Mr. Tilden in 1880.

THE UNFORTUNATE AERONAUTS.
 As long as the world rotates around the sun on its daily and yearly axis, so long will men run a needless risk of their lives; some for the love of adventure, others in the interests of science, and others again out of curiosity. Under the two last heads Professor Wise, the Aeronaut, and a young man by the name of George Burr, Teller in a St. Louis bank, who ascended in a balloon from Lindell

Park, near the above named city, on Sunday afternoon, the 29th ult. are to be placed—over one week ago, since which time nothing has been seen or heard of them except on the Monday afternoon following the ascension, when they were discovered to the South of Lake Michigan about 500 miles; and the general apprehension now is, that the unfortunate men are lost. Young Burr promised his fiancée that he would telegraph her as soon as he reached Terra Firma once more, from the nearest telegraph station and then hurrying to take his station in the balloon, with hat in hand waved what it is feared will prove a final farewell, while the balloon rapidly ascending was soon lost to view.

The generally accepted theory is, that the balloon which contained hardly gas enough to sustain its load in the air twenty-four hours, adds force to the theory that the air ship when it reached Lake Michigan in which direction it was moving when last seen, was not able to reach the opposite shore, and the fate of the daring aeronauts has been a watery grave in the bosom of Lake Michigan.

WASHINGTON LETTER.
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 3, 1879.
 The prospects of the Democracy for the fall elections continue to brighten, and it is now probable that we shall carry both New York and Ohio this Fall, and when that is done it needs no prophetic eye to see the coming end of all the frauds and corruptions of the Republican party, from the fraudulent President down to the Agnes Jenks—from the steal of the Presidential office, down to the petty peculations of insignificant postoffices. Verily like St. Paul when he came in sight of the "Three Taverns," we may thank God and take courage for if the Democracy carry either New York or Ohio this Fall, the election of a Democratic President next year is assured, and a second steal of the Presidential chair will not be in order. Except the defection of John Kelly and his little Tammany following in New York, the Democratic party was never more firmly united than now, and all over the country its committees and individual Democrats are laboring in the canvass with that untiring zeal, and confidence of final success, that in such a cause, is the sure forerunner of victory. Let every Democrat do his whole duty; let us have the good, old-fashioned "long pull, strong pull, and pull altogether," and the sure result will be that whoever may be nominated by the Democratic convention next year will be the President in 1881. It is stated by authority that Secretaries Evar's and Sherman will in person urge the voters of New York to elect Mr. Cornell Governor of that State. If there has been any doubt in the case of Secretary Sherman it is removed by the publication of a letter from him this morning, in which he promises to be in the State on or before the middle of this month. Secretary Evar's and Secretary Schurz were entrusted by Mr. Hayes with the delicate task of reforming the civil service by keeping office-holders out of partisan politics.

Additions now being made to the Government Printing Office in this city will make it double the size of any other office in the world. It has facilities for all kinds and qualities of work. The expenses of the institution are steadily increasing from year to year.

Hereafter the people of Washington mean to have annual fairs equal to any in the country. The first one, which opens on the 28th of this month promises to be a success but extensive and expensive improvements will from year to year be made in the grounds of the Association, and in its other facilities for accommodating the great number of people from abroad who are expected in the future to take an interest in a work of such national importance.

You would never think to look at Grant that he is a great man, and you can sometimes trust to appearances and not be deceived.—Boston Post.

It is proposed to take a lot of baseball nines out to California this winter to get even with that State for sending Dennis Kearney east last year.—Boston Post.

Hale's Weekly.
 ON TUESDAY, the 7th day of October, 1879, and in the City of Raleigh, the undersigned will commence the publication of HALE'S WEEKLY, a North Carolina Democratic Newspaper. These four words convey all that a column of Prospectus could tell; the good of the State; the success of the Party which is the life of the State and the country; the publication of all the news; these the objects proposed. That he does the last and contribute to the first and second, the subscriber does not affect to doubt. The People have set their seal of approval upon his past and he does not count the future. HALE'S WEEKLY will be printed from new and beautiful type and on a fine white paper. The price will be $1 per annum. No one will go upon its mail books without payment and no paper will be sent after expiration of the time paid for. P. M. HALE, Raleigh, Sept. 15, 1879. sept 16-tf

YELLOW FEVER---BLACK VOMIT.
 It is a common error to forget the ravages of this terrible disease, which will no doubt result in a more malignant and virulent form in the fall months of 1879.
 MERRILL'S HEPATINE, a Remedy discovered in Southern Nubia and used with such wonderful results in South America where the most aggravated cases of fever are cured, causes from one to two ounces of blood to be filtered or strained from the blood each time it passes through the Liver, as long as the disease exists. By this wonderful action on the Liver and Stomach the HEPATINE not only prevents to a certain extent Yellow Fever and Black Vomit, but also cures Headache, Constipation of the Bowels, Dyspepsia, and all Malarial Disorders.
 No one need fear Yellow Fever who will expel the Malarial Poison and excess of blood from the blood by using MERRILL'S HEPATINE, which is sold by all Druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 bottles, or will be sent by express by the Proprietors: A. F. MERRILL & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr Pemberton's Stillinger or Queen's Delight
 The reports of wonderful cures of Rheumatism, Salt Rheum, Syphilis, Cancer, Ulcers and Sores, that come from all parts of the country, are not only remarkable but so miraculous as to be considered as it not for the abundance of proof.

Remarkable Cure of Scrofula.
 CASE OF COL. J. C. BRANSON, Kingston, Ga., Sept. 15, 1879.
 Gentl—For sixteen years I have been a great sufferer from Scrofula, in its most distressing form. I have been obliged to wear a corset for fifteen years with several ulcers. The most approved medical remedies for such cases had been used, and the most eminent physicians consulted, without any decided benefit. I was advised by Dr. J. C. Branson, of Floyd county, Ga., to commence the use of your Compound Extract of Scrofula. I obtained from the use of the Scrofula as it is to convey an adequate idea of the tenacity of my suffering before using your medicine. I am glad to say, I abandoned all other remedies and continued the use of your extract of Stillinger, until I can say with truth, "I am cured of all pain," of all diseases, with nothing to obstruct the active part of my profession. More than eight months have elapsed since this remarkable cure, without any return of the disease.
 For the truth of the above statement, I refer to any gentleman in Barrow county, Ga., and to the members of the bar of Chemung Circuit, who are acquainted with me. I shall ever remain, with the deepest gratitude,
 Your obedient servant,
 J. C. BRANSON, Atty at Law.

A MIRACLE.
 WEST POINT, Ga., Sept. 14, 1879.
 Gentl—My daughter was taken on the 15th day of June, 1879, with what was supposed to be Acute Rheumatism, and was treated by the same with no success. In March, following, pieces of bone began to work out of her right arm, and continued to appear all the bones from the elbow to the shoulder joint came out. Many pieces of bone came out of her right foot and leg. The case was pronounced one of White Swelling, and she having been confined about six years to her bed, and the case considered hopeless, I was induced to try Dr. Pemberton's Compound Extract of Stillinger, and was so well satisfied with its effects that I have continued its use until the present.
 My daughter was confined to her bed for six years before she sat up or even turned over without her. She now sits up all day and sews most of her time—she has walked several miles. Her general health is now good, and I believe she will, as her limbs gain strength, walk well. I attribute her recovery, with the blessing of God, to the use of your invaluable medicine. With grateful thanks, I am, yours truly,
 W. B. BLANTON, West Point, Ga., Sept. 14, 1879.

Gentl—The above certificate of Mr. W. B. Blanton we know and certify to as being true. The thing is so; hundreds of other respected citizens will certify to it. An additional reference can be given as may be required.
 Yours truly,
