Criminal Court.

The following cases have been called in this Court to-day, up to our close.

State vs. Francis Holmes, for false pretences. Verdict, guilty.

State vs. Henry Murphy, alias-William Tate Murphy, arraigned for burglary. Trial set for Monday next.

Funeral of Capt. Hooker:

Capt. Samuel Hooker, of the Briti: h barque George Davis, who died on Wednesday last, was buried yesterday a com sinto this pore brings a Fresh Lot of Smithville. At 12 o'clock the body was conveyed from the ship to the shore, and from thence followed by a large crowd of citizens to the Methodist Church, where appropriate funeral services were held by Rev. L. S. Burkhead, D. D, assisted by Rev. Mr. Wiley, the pastor in charge The body was interred in the cometery at Smithville and upon the newly made grave tender and sympathizing ladies of that quiet town piaced beastiful wreaths and Moral emblems. He died and was buried among strangers, in a strange land, but it must alleviate the sorrows of those near and dear to him to know that the tearful sympathy of loving women and tenderhearted men attended him to his last res'ing place.

Arrested and Arrangied for Bur-Judge Meares issued a bench warrant dent of the Western North Carolina Boston 5 and 16 Cents yesterday evening for the arrest of Henry Railroad, and Capt. Johnson, superintend Murphy, alias Wm. Tate Murphy colored, ent of the Carolina Central, had a conferupon the charge of burglary. The war-lence in Statesville on night before last rant was placed in the hands of officer Nicholas Carr who, together with officers been unsatisfactory arrangements in exis-Strode, and Whitney, proceeded to Rocky Point. Pender county, last night, and arrested the party. The prisoner was then brought to the city and this morning rrraigned in court upon the charge above mentioned and the trial set for Monday at 10 o'clock. The crime is alleged to have been committed in this city on the night of the 29th ult, upon the premises of John E Walker, colored, The prisoner was arrested for being accessory before and after the fact to the burglary, for which Daniel Richardson, colored was arraigned in court yesterday, and whose equal footing with other wholesale martrial begins to morrow morning at 9 kets, the only demand they have ever o clock. The defendant, Murphy, being made. The rates will apply to connecunable to procure counsel, the court ting freights going both ways. This is an assigned Messrs. With his Parents.

Capt. James M. McGowan, of this city, proposes to spend the day on Sunday next with his parents in Raleigh in a rather novel manner. He will remain in Wilmington and his parents in Raleigh. A telephone will be erected at the resi dence of Capt. J. C Blake, Cashier of the Raleigh National Bank, connected by wire with a telephone at Capt. McGowan's residence in this city. By this means conversation can be carried on and a pleasant day spent by parties at both ends of the ine. Everything will mov smoothly until Jim McGowan laughs in the instru

A Very Old Horse. The average age of a horse is, we believe, somewhere between 12 and 15 years and one that lives to be 20 years old is considered a rarity. We saw one the other day, in the Augora section of Pender county, that is actually approaching its 87th year. It is a mare which was born on the plantation of the late John James, and which was raised by him from colt. She will be 36 years old nex April and her age is well attested. The writer of this recollects the same mare twenty-five years ago and she was then considered well advanced in years, although hearty and vigorous at that time. She is now kept at her ease in memory of the good service she has rendered in the past. She does no work and with the careful and kind treatment she is receiving she may yet attain her 40th year.

A Revelation. Paterfamilias went home last night rather more tired than usual. Spirits had been active, cotton was firm and rosin had advanced. He had had a busy day and naturally longed for quiet and rest. He was glad to find some rather unusual attention when he reached home. His easy chair was drawn to the table, dressing gown and slippers were ready, the drop light at a convenient angle and the DAILY REVIEW spread for him. He looked up to thank his daughters with caress for their kind and rather unusual attention and as he did so heard some thing about "Aprunt's-next Sundayand Fall bounets" which rather took the edge off that kiss. He smiled feebly to himself, a sadder and a wiser man.

Unknown.

The play of "Unknown" will be presented to our public on Wednesday evening next, for the first time. The Company comes well endorsed, and the play is one which seems to be very popular. The street.

St. Louis Dispatch sa.s: 'John A. Stevens and his combination opened at De Bar's last night, to a full house, and the prospects are that the engage ment will prove an us qualified success. 'Unknown' is a drama of the sensational with the auxilaries of startling dramatic situations, smoo h dialogue, good acting and handsome scenery. The company came here comparatively unknown, and the cordial reception given it last nighwas an indication that our theatre-goers intended to examine its ments, and give it di the supp rt it d serves. The play possesses many strong points of popularity, and was received with frequent and hearty applause. Mr. Stevens is an ac or of ne hit le merit, playing a thoroughly symp... etic character, and endowing it with a deal of pa hos and interest.'

Left for Charleston. The Light Ship which has been in course of construction for some months past at the Marine Railway of Mesers Cassidey & Ross, has been completed and and turned over to the government. She is said to be one of the best and strongest built vessels in the service and has been very much admired. She left this port this morning for Charleston in tow of the buoy tender Alanthus, and her builders Messrs Cassidey & Ross, are willing that she should go to the world as a speciment of their work.

A Great Mistake.

Boys and men sometimes start out in life with the idea that one's success depends on sharpness and chicanery. They class, presenting a very romantic story imagine if a man is able always to "get the best of a bargain," no matter by what deceit and meanness he carries his point, that his prosperity is assured This is a great mistake. Enduring prosperity cannot be founded on cunning and dishonesty. The trickey and deceitful man is very sure to fall a victim, sooner or later. to the influences which are forever working against him His house is built upon the sand, and its foundation will be cer tain to give way. Young people cannot give these trushs too much weight. The future of that young man is safe who eschews every phase of double-dealing and dishonesty, and lays the foundation of his career on the enduring principles of everlasting truth.
