Thieves work on abstract principles.

Flour is rising. All good flour should rise.

The scuppernong grape boom is most done.

Window Glass—all sizes at Altifer & Price's.

Women's sphere—that they won't get married.

The small boy with the loud whistle is frequent and numerous.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up only 278 bales.

The monotonous refrain of hot weather is "fritz" out for the present.

There are enough selfish men to accept all the sacrifices women can make.

If care killed a cat, care can throw a bootjack straighter than most people.

Save your money by buying your Building Supplies from Altifer & Price.

A press agent—the young man who throws his arm around his girl's waist.

Summer clothing was at a discount this morning, and fires were in demand.

In the spring we have lamb, and in the fall we may expect a "spell of wether."

Some one is mean enough to say that "curiosity about trifles is a mark of a little mind."

Strangers in the city should not fail to visit the Sash Factory, foot of Walnut street.

When a man has no mind of his own, his wife generally gives him a piece of hers.

A popular way to argue. What I say is right; anybody who says differently is a fool.

The barque Condor, Hawson, from London for this port, passed Deal on the 7th inst.

The man who stuck to his colors was the painter who sat down in one of his paint pots.

Men will stand on the street corners so long as the storekeepers do not furnish them with seats.

Money saved in buying your Household Hardware at Jacob's, No. 10 South Front street.

It takes a good deal of grief to kill a woman, just after she has got a new seal skin sack.

A printer doesn't rush off to the doctor every time he is out of "sorts." Nor to a baker when he gets out of "pi."

If looking glasses would show us our faults we would not look into them any oftener than we do into our bibles.

Advice of an old nurse.—The baby would be always bright and cheerful if an occasional dose of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup were administered.

Officer Scharff, to-day by direction of the Chief of Police killed a dog which had bitten a child of Kellias Robinson, colored, an employee of the C. O. Railway.

The change in the weather yesterday was as sudden as it was agreeable. On Saturday it was like Summer and Sunday it was cold enough for overcoats and fires, the first of the season.

We are requested to urge upon the visitors of the Ladies' Benevolent Society to meet at Hook and Ladder Hall, tomorrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Should the weather prove unfavorable the meeting will be held on the first fair day.

An Old Acquaintance.

Mr. Andy McKoy, the business manager of the Adah Richmond troupe, dropped in to see us this afternoon. Mr. McKoy is no stranger in these parts and by his universal courtesy makes new friends everywhere he goes.

He is now managing one of the best troupes on the road. The writer saw the Company in Fatinitza in Raleigh last week and was "thoroughly carried away with it."

Unmarketables.

The following unmarketable postal matter remains at the Postoffice in this city:

Mr. John William Jones, Orange Co., N. C.; Mrs. Jane Tyler, Orange Co., N. C.; Mrs. Mollie Robbins, Pine Bluff or Rowell's Ldg., care of Mr. James Powell, Brunswick Co., N. C.

Economy is wealth—buy White Lead, Colors, Varnishes, and all kinds of painting materials for the lowest prices at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

Painful Accident.

A well-known citizen of this place met with a very painful accident last Saturday night. While on his way home, and when passing along Chestnut street, East of Third, he slipped and fell, and his left arm falling under him, one of the bones was broken near the elbow. As soon as he could recover himself he went at once to a physician and received the necessary attention. We are pleased to learn that the injury is not very severe and that our friend will be at his office again in a day or two, although it will be weeks before he can use his arm again.

Tax Receipts.

The following different sums, collected by the Sheriff, have been paid over to the proper county official authorized to receive the same on the respective dates given below: On September 30th, the Sheriff turned over the sum of $704.21; Oct. 6th, $790.70; Oct. 13th, $1,094.00, Oct. 20th, $6,000.00, making the sum total of $9,188.91 collected and paid over since Sept. 22nd, the day on which Sheriff Manning received the tax books from the County Commissioners.

The above collections are all for county taxes exclusively.

The celebrated Zeb Vance, Southern Baker and Chief Cook Stoves, Parlor and Heating Stoves for old prices. No advance at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

City Court.

Two cases were up before the Mayor this morning, the charges being disorderly conduct in one instance and drunk and disorderly in the other. Thomas Mills, colored, was the first called, but judgment was suspended in this case upon payment of costs.

Washington Green, alias Wash Nutt, was next arraigned for being both drunk and disorderly and was sentenced to pay the costs, amounting to $1.70, after which he was permitted to make himself scarce, or in other words to take his departure, which he immediately proceeded to do.

The Difference.

On Saturday night last, in company with a friend, we took a stroll through the business portion of the city, and we were struck with the great inequality with which the trade seemed to be divided. After noticing the fact we directed our attention, especially, to two stores, dealing exclusively in the same goods; one of them was lit up brilliantly, and the proprietor, with four or five clerks, was as busy as a bee and the customers were coming and going in regular succession, while in the other the lights gave unmistakable evidence of a closeness too close to even buy kerosene at 12 cents a gallon, and the serenity of the proprietor, as he sat with his feet above his head, was seldom disturbed by the calls of buyers.

Our friend asking us why this? We pulled from our pocket a copy of the Review and pointing to a well-displayed ad remarked that probably this had something to do with it. Stepping into the store of the busy merchant and remarking that he "seemed to be doing quite a lively business to-night," he remarked, "yes, I have not yet had time to go to supper."

We think it would pay some of our merchants who complain of "dull times," and whose names never appear in an advertisement in the papers to step outside of their stores some Saturday night and view the scene themselves. We are sure they might profit by it.

You pay the lowest cash prices for Doors, Sash, and Blinds, Builder's Hardware, &c., at Jacob's, No. 10 South Front street.

SIGNAL SERVICE, U. S. A.,
Station Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 20, 1879
5-10 a. m.

The following orders have been received at this station:

Signals are ordered down at New York, New London, Newport, Woodhall, Boston, Section eight, Portland, Section seven.

J. M. WATSON,
Sergt. Signal Corps, U. S. A.

Spirits turpentine is on the boom today. Saturday noon it sold for 31, Saturday evening at 32 and to-day [Monday] at 33 cents.

Brunswick Court.

The October term of Brunswick county Superior Court convened at Smithville this morning. His Honor, Judge Seymour, presiding. Several members of the Wilmington Bar went down on the Paspor this evening to be in attendance upon the Court.

Coal and Wood.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. A. Springer's wood and coal yard, as it appears in this issue. He is located now near the foot of Chestnut street and has excellent facilities. He proposes to sell coal and wood at the lowest rates and invites the attention of old and new customers to these facts.

The Change.

We haven't heard any one complain to-day in regard to the weather. The indications as published by us on Saturday were correct and the thermometer fell some 15 degrees in about twenty-four hours. The change was inaugurated yesterday by a heavy rain and the prospects are now for a spell of continued cold weather.

Miss Adah Richmond.

The prospects are good for a fine house to greet Miss Richmond this evening. We are glad of this as we can assure our readers that it is a first-class troupe. They played in Raleigh all last week, to full houses, and the Observer and News are both loud in their praise. They tell us that Fatinitza is a charming play and commend Miss Richmond and her troupe to the people of this city. It is not the first time this charming and sprightly actress has visited our city and many will remember how she took all hearts by storm during a short engagement at our Opera House last Winter. We trust that a substantial welcome will be accorded to her on this occasion.

A Convenient Schedule.

The present schedule between this city and New York is a very convenient one for our people. A merchant can leave here now on the morning train for the big city, arrive in New York the next morning, spend one day or more, as his necessities may require, and then return here in a day and a night's travel. This is what Capt. McIntire did. He left here last Monday morning for New York and returned on Friday night, having spent Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in buying his second stock of Fall and Winter goods.

Temple of Israel.

Pursuant to a notice published by Mr. S. Hanstein, Chairman of the School Committee, a large assemblage of ladies and gentlemen of the Hebrew faith gathered at the vestry room of the Temple of Israel last night.

At precisely 8 o'clock Mr. Hanstein took the chair and called the meeting to order, requesting Mr. H. Brundage, one of the School Committee, to act as Secretary. The chair then stated the object of the meeting, after which, by request, Mr. A. Weill made a brief and pertinent address. He was followed by Mr. Samuel Bear, Jr., one of the assistant teachers, who urged the necessity of action. The pastor, Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn, was invited to address the audience, and responded at length, appealing as their minister and teacher for aid and cooperation, which we are aware, so his words of admonition as feelingly expressed, found their way into the hearts of all present.

After their pastor had concluded his remarks, Mr. A. Weill offered a series of resolutions pledging the aid and co-operation of every member and seat-holder of the congregation to accomplish this earnest desire—the strict discipline and instruction of their little ones in the religion of their fathers and their education in the Hebrew and German languages. The most entire harmony prevailed and the meeting was both pleasant and profitable.
