 The Berger Family gave Goldsboro the go by, after billing the town. It was as much their loss as it was Goldsboro's. They are booked for Portsmouth to-night.

The Templeton Star Alliance have abandoned the opera, and have organized a dramatic troupe. They discharged eight or ten chorus singers in Raleigh last week.

 Advice to parents: Whenever you go to church take your baby. If there is any one thing a baby appreciates more than another it is a sermon. A pew seems to inspire it with more confidence in its howling abilities than a cradle. A baby is sometimes a great relief to a sermon; lends it background, variety, fancy.

Bold Robbery.

About 6:30 o'clock last evening a colored man went into a grocery store in the southerly portion of the city and called for a package of flour, which the proprietor handed to him over the counter, when the bold thief took it and ran with all speed. The thief is known and can be identified by the proprietor of the store. We suppress names for the present for prudential reasons.

Prisoner Committed to Jail.

Justice Robert Bloodworth, of Burgaw sent William Isham to this city last night in the custody of an officer upon the charge of resisting arrest and aiding and abetting in the escape of a prisoner. Isham was committed to the county jail in this city for safe keeping to await his trial at the next term of the Superior Court, to be held in Pender county, commencing on the 13th of December next.

City Tax Receipts.

The City Clerk and Treasurer of this city, Captain Henry Savage, has received since September 25th, the date when the city tax list was first made ready for collection, the sum little sum of $18,686.31 and by the 25th inst, when the collection shall have been going on for a month, it is thought the sum will reach fully $20,000, if not more. Oh, as Mrs. Toodles would say, how convenient it would be to have such a nice little sum in the house, in one's own house, we mean, of course.

You pay the lowest cash prices for Doors, Sash, and Blinds, Builders' Hardware, &c., at JACOBI'S, No. 10 South Front street.

The Stedman Fire Company.

A meeting of the C. M. Stedman Fire Company is called for to-morrow evening at which time a general attendance of the members is urgently requested.
 We have before referred to the fact that this company have received their uniform caps, and since then we learn that they have received their badges and belts. The shirts are of blue with a black cravat. The company is composed of strong, able-bodied young men and we predict that they will make a good record for themselves.

Alderman, of Greensboro, requests all delegates who propose attending to inform him of the fact. They will be met at the depot and conducted to their homes.

Save your money by buying your Building Supplies from Altaffer & Price.

At the City Hall.

The Mayor held no regular Court this morning. There being only two arrests last night, and those of such a trivial character, they were disposed of without the formality of a court. One was Tom Titt, the notorious little colored Dick Turpin, of Wilmington, who was arrested for disorderly conduct. The Chief of Police was told to keep him locked up for a couple of days. The other was a white man who got too much benzine aboard and becoming rather noisy was arrested. The last named case was dismissed upon payment of cost.

White Children of Negro Parents.

In the Southeastern portion of this city there live two Albino children who were born of negro parentage. Their parents, Squire and Eveline Fisher, have lived in this city for a number of years and have a family of seven children, the Albinos being the fourth and fifth born to them. The others are of the same color as their parents. The eldest of the Albinos is a girl about six years of age, and the youngest a boy of about four. They are well formed and differ only in looks from their darker brothers and sisters. Their skin is white with a pinkish tinge. The pupils of their eyes are a light blue and have also a pinkish cast. They keep their eyes almost closed and carry their heads down, the chin resting on the breast. The hair is perfectly white and looks more like the wool on a sheep's back than any thing we can compare it with. Their habits and amusements are the same as other children while their mental qualities seem to be of the average of white children.

THE PERFORMANCE AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

"Fatinitza."

Quite a large audience greeted Miss Adah Richmond and her Comic Opera Troupe, on their first appearance this season at the Opera House in this city last night.

The piece selected for the evening's entertainment, entitled "Fatinitza," was entirely new to our theater going people, most of whom had never seen it rendered before. The acting on the average was as good as in burlesque operas generally, but the piece was not one calculated to inspire a looker on with any thrilling sensations or to draw forth any emotional or sentimental feeling. It was simply a burlesque farcical sort of piece without pith or point, and one in which the talent of many actors had no opportunity for display. Miss Adah Richmond is the young Russian Lieutenant and again as Fatinitza, sustained her part successfully and sang with much fervor and sweetness, her charming voice being the chief attraction of the different characters she personated.

Miss Belle Girard, as the Princess Lydia, sustained her part well and sang at times with peculiar sweetness and melody, her personal charms lending an additional interest to the part she assumed.

Mr. J. C. Armand, the newspaper correspondent following up on the movements of the Russian and Turkish armies, was first rate, while the silvery notes of his sweet tenor voice brought out much applause from the audience. Mr. Livingston Kent, as the Russian General, performed his part excellently well, and his rich bass voice was quite an addition to the vocal music of the evening. Mr. James Sturgess, a Mustapha, the Guard of the Harem, drew forth much laughter and applause, both by his comic acting and his no less comical costume and appearance.

The best piece is reserved for to-night, when "The Chimes of Normandy," in which Miss Richmond is said to excel in the role she assumes, will be performed. Those who witnessed the last named piece on a previous occasion are said to have been highly delighted with it, and many are gratified to know that they will have another opportunity of witnessing the "Chimes of Normandy."

The celebrated Zeb Vance, Southern Baker and Chief Cook Stoves, Parlor and Heating Stoves for old prices. No advance at JACOBI'S Hardware Dept.

No Meeting.

A called meeting of the Board of Aldermen was in contemplation for this afternoon, but after deliberation it was decided to postpone the same until Friday afternoon. This we learn from Chief of Police Brock at the City Hall.

Money saved in buying your Household Hardware at JACOBI'S, No. 10 South Front street.

Personal.

We were pleased to receive a call today from Mr. Robert H. Cowan, traveling agent and correspondent for that excellent paper, the Raleigh Observer. Mr. Cowan is on a short visit to our city in the interest of the Observer and we trust that he may succeed in the objects of his visit.

The Isis Takes the Place of the Wave.

The steamer Isis has been chartered by Messrs. Williams & Murchison to ply between this place and Fayetteville, until the Wave, which is undergoing repairs, shall have been overhauled and made ready to resume her regular place on the line again. The Isis started on her first trip under the new arrangement at 1 o'clock to-day.

Improved Dental Chair.

Dr. Jas. E. Kea gives notice elsewhere in this issue to day of his return to business again, and also notifies his patrons that he will seat them in the newest and most comfortable chair in the city. The chair spoken of we have seen and examined and squatted in while the Doctor dug away at one of our grinders. It is the latest improved dentist's chair, of the Wilkerson patent, and can be so arranged that a child or a grown person, a tall man or a short one, can be comfortably seated in it. The only uncomfortable part is the dentist himself, who don't always make one feel exactly comfortable while he occupies the chair. But this pertains to all members of the profession and not to any particular one.
