Two young white scamps were caught by the police last night peering into the ladies' dressing room at the theatre, and were hustled into a cell at the guard room in short order.

The Mahu Opera Troupe, of which our young townsman, Mr. Fletcher Manning, is a member is heading this way. The troupe sing in Charleston next week and it is thought they will stop in this city for one night.

Personal.

Mr. Edward Kidder, of this city, has returned here after his Summer visit of several months to the North. We are pleased to see him looking so well.

Communition Wine.

The grape crop of A. Speer's vineyards in New Jersey last year was one-third larger than any previous year. His vineyards in New Jersey, and the product from the grapes he purchases, have enabled him to keep a stock four years ahead. None sold less than four years old. It has become a popular evening wine among the best families in New York, and for communion purposes. For sale by Jas. C. Munds, Green & Flanner and F. L. Bridges & Co.

Doing Well.

We are glad to be able to state that Joshua Meares, a young son of Mr. Walker Meares, who met with an accident yesterday afternoon in a game of baseball is doing very well, and that his arm, which was supposed at first to be broken, is only badly sprained.

The Beacon.

We welcome this new claimant to popular favor to our exchange books. It is a handsome 24-column paper, published at Greensboro, N. C., every Tuesday and Friday, by Jas. W. Albright, at $2 a year. Mr. Albright is an old hand at the bellows and his first issue makes a very creditable showing. We wish him success.

From a Second Story Window.

A colored boy, about 12 years of age, while engaged in washing windows in the second story of a building on Front street fell from his perch on yesterday and was badly cut about the face. His injuries are not as serious as they were first supposed to be. His chin was badly gashed and two of his teeth were knocked out.

Visitors in Town.

An excursion party, consisting of about ninety ladies and gentlemen, came in this morning on the Carolina Central train. They are from Laurel Hill, Laurinburg and Shoe Heel, and will remain in the city until to-morrow evening. They are a very quiet, orderly and intelligent-looking class of people, whom we are glad to see among us, and we hope that their brief visit may prove both pleasant and profitable to them, so that they may be induced to come again.

Death of Dr. Davis.

As was foreshadowed by us in yesterday's issue, the death of Dr. W. W. Davis was announced this morning. He died at the residence of Mr. Samuel Davis, on Eighth, between Market and Dock streets, aged 65 years.

Dr. Davis was a son of one of the oldest and at one time most prosperous families in the Cape Fear section. He was an accomplished gentleman, an excellent physician and a kindly, genial, whole souled man. He leaves two sons, one of whom is now in California and the other, we think, in Georgia. "Green be the turf above him."

Adjournment of Brunswick Court.

The fall term of Superior Court for Brunswick county, which convened at Smithville on Monday of this week at 10 a. m., adjourned the next day, Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock and Judge and Jury, together with the members of the Bar in attendance, dispersed in the direction of their different homes last night. Judge Seymour and the several lawyers from this city who attended the Court, reached here last night on the Passport. From one of the latter we learn that there were only three cases given to the jury, one of which was on the civil docket, while the remaining two were petty cases on the Criminal Calendar.

A Caution About Shot in Game.

The London Lancet, a medical journal of high repute, publishes the following timely advice: This being the season when game killed by shot, and probably containing the pellets, is eaten, it may be worth while to caution those who consume the flesh of birds with avidity, that the proportion of instances in which shot is found is probably small in comparison with the number of cases in which the pellets are unwittingly swallowed.

It is a matter of speculation how much mischief a shot may do when passed into the intestines, but the fact that anomalous diseases have been set up by the presence of very small bodies which have been entangled in folds of the mucous membrane renders it desirable to put the public on their guard. Occasionally the most disastrous results have followed such small causes.

We have in recollection the case of a physician who died after prolonged and unexplained sufferings from the impaction of a very small nail, which had found its way into a pudding, and was inadvertently swallowed. A little care will avoid this contingency, but remembering that the bird had been shot, some pains ought certainly to be taken to avoid swallowing the missile.

Economy is wealth—buy White Lead, Colors, Varnishes, and all kinds of painting materials for the lowest prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Some of the largest blue fish of the season were in market this morning.

THE PERFORMANCE AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

'The Chimes of Normandy'

Owing to the inclement weather last night, the audience at the Opera House was not so large as on the previous evening. But the thinkers of the audience had no apparent effect upon the acting of the performers, who entered into the spirit of the play with the same zest that characterized their performance on the previous occasion. Miss Adah Richmond was particularly happy in the character of Serpette and the rich tones of her melodious voice found ample opportunity in this part for display, much to the gratification of an appreciative audience, who testified their pleasure and delight by frequent applause. Mr. Amand sustained his part well; his acting was good, and his singing better. His fine tenor voice is delightful to listen to, and the audience were rapturous in their approval of his vocalism. We regretted very much that Miss Girard was still out of voice and suffering from a severe cold, but her efforts to sing and to please were warmly sympathized with by the audience. Mr. Sturge, as the Sheriff, was fully up to his part and created considerable merriment by his comic acting. The Company left here this morning for Charleston, where they have an engagement to play to-night.

Strangers in the city should not fail to visit the Sash Factory, foot of Walnut street.

Sales of Real Estate.

Messrs. Cronly & Morris, Auctioneers, sold to-day, at public auction, the following described real estate, situated in or near this city:

The rice plantation, truck farm and brickyard combined, known as 'Belvidere,' on west side of Brunswick river, and about two miles from the city, containing 1,200 acres, sold for $3,000, one-fourth cash, balance one and two years.

The livery and sale stables on South side of Princess street, between Third and Fourth, the lot being 58x165 feet, were knocked down to Mr. Wm. Genaust at $1,250, the sale being subject to confirmation.

A vacant lot on Ann street, North side, between Second and Third streets, 60x85 feet, was sold for $300, one-third cash, balance one and two years.

Boy Lost.

Chief of Police Brock received this morning a handbill from New York, offering a reward of $200 for the recovery of Frank Eldridge, who has been lost to his family since September 1st. He is described as being 8 years and 4 months old; nearly 4 feet in height, slight build, light brown hair, large greyish blue eyes, slight scar over right eyebrow, regular features, dimpled cheeks, neck and face tanned, long neck, slight scar on the back of one hand, dressed in light waist, red necktie, light gray pants, striped stockings, laced shoes and white straw hat. He was last seen near his home, 166 Christopher street, N. Y., and is supposed to have been kidnapped. The father, Richard A. Eldridge, will give the above reward for such information as will lead to his discovery.

The Fisher Trial Postponed.

The trial of Wm and John Fisher, which was to have taken place before Justice Gardener to-day, for the alleged abduction of the wife of Tom Johnson, the notorious outlaw, has been postponed until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, Mr. Solicitor Moore who intends prosecuting the case, asking the postponement in order to give him more time to acquaint himself with the facts in the case.

You pay the lowest cash prices for Doors, Sash, and Blinds, Builders' Hardware, &c., at JACOBI'S, No. 10 South Front street.

We understand that Mr. Livingston Kent, of the Adah Richmond troupe, will sever his connection with that company, in Savannah, to join a grand opera troupe.

Wine and Cake for Evenings.

Alfred Speer of New Jersey, it should be known, is one of the most extensive producers and dealers in Pure Wines and Brandies in the United States. He makes a Superior Port Wine, which took the highest premium at the Centennial, known as Speer's Port Grape Wine. It is sold by J. C. Munds, F. L. Bridges & Co., and Green & Flanner. Aug-17.

"Don't know half their value."

"They cured me of Ague, Billiousness and Kidney Complaint, as recommended I had a half bottle left, which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you don't know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B. Rochester, N. Y.
