No City Court to-day.

The German is again in order.

The days are now shorter than the nights.

Window Glass—all sizes at Pfaff & Price's.

Two heads are better than one, if both are not empty.

Lees of wine is a favorite color for dinner dresses.

A wonderful instrument—the tongue of an old gossip.

The off-shore signal was raised last night and still floats to-day.

If we believed less in impossibilities we would accomplish much more.

The melancholy days are patiently waiting for the heat to get out.

In the Summer we have the mosquito and in the early Fall the serenader.

Save your money by buying your Building Supplies from Altfer & Price.

Wedding cards are very plain this season, and recommend themselves by their simplicity.

It is good to dwell together in amity, though it is a-mity hard thing to do with some people.

The barque Jerbuen (Nor.) Svensen, from this port, arrived at Hamburg on the 22nd inst.

It is always worth a long journey to see a young man purchase his first high hat, or 'stovepipe,' as it is called.

If you want to feel well and lively use Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills. All druggists keep them. Price 25 cents.

Buttons of two sizes are on most suits. They are made of tinted pearl, in all the gay colors that appear in the cashmere.

Now is the time to get ready for the social; select your partners, fix your programmes, and arrange for the dance music.

Two variety of colors used by the printers of posters wears the poor goats, who like the paper well enough but are afraid of poison.

Isn't it strange that it wearies a man's legs so much less to stand in front of a bar than it does to stand in front of a work bench?

Money saved in buying your Household Hardware at JACOBI'S, No. 10 South Front street.

The busiest class of people in this city to-day are the coal dealers and wood sellers, and we might add also the clothiers and the dry goods merchants.

The novelties in fancy jewelry are earrings and brooches of files, sun beetles, lady birds and beads, which are such good imitations that they are often mistaken for real.

Strangers in the city should not fail to visit the Sash Factory, foot of Walnut street.

It may be real nice sport to attach tin pans to a dog's tail, but the world has never produced a small boy with boldness enough to try the experiment on a mule.

The schooner Carleton is here from Nassau with a cargo of fruit. The sale of it was begun this afternoon by Messrs Cronly & Morris, auctioneers, and will be continued to-morrow.

The celebrated Zeb Vance, Southern Baker and Chief Cook Stoves, Parlor and Heating Stoves for old prices. No advance at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

One of the most novel 'tid-bits' of the season, says an exchange, may be made by wrapping an oyster in a rasher of bacon, then putting it before the fire until the bacon is cooked, when it will be found ready for eating.

The coal and wood dealers look serenely happy to-day, while the ice seller expresses the the frigidty of his feelings in his long drawn countenance. The jig' up with them until the Spring time comes—Gentle Annie.

The schooner C. H. Macomber, Gloucester, from Boston for this port, put into Vineyard Haven on the 21st inst., having cut her anchor on Nantucket Shoals on the 19th inst.

About 10 o'clock last night the fog hereabouts was so thick that one could distinguish nothing fifty yards in front. Soon after, however, the wind lifted and a cool Northwest breeze dispersed it.

An organ grinder was abroad on Third street, about 11 o'clock last night, making bad music to sleep by. What he wanted and who chartered him we didn't find out. We protest against such eye-openers.

Slight Rise in the River.
From Capt. Albert Worth, of the steamer A. P. Hunt, we learn that there has been a rise of nine inches in the river since the rain of Wednesday, and that it still continues to rise, though very slowly.

Gone Back Home.
The excursionists from along the line of the Carolina Central Railway left for their homes yesterday afternoon. Nearly a score of them subscribed for either the REVIEW or the JOURNAL, and we will be pleased to see them all again.

Another Postponement.
The meeting of the Board of Aldermen, which was to have taken place on Tuesday evening last, but postponed until this (Friday evening), has again been postponed, we understand, until Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock. This last postponement, we are told, is owing to the absence from the city of one or two of the members of the Board.

Will Leave Us.
We regret to learn that our enterprising young friend and go ahead fireman, Captain G. W. Lamb, is about to resign his position as foreman of the Little Giant Steam Fire Engine Company and remove from this city to Florence, S. C., where he proposes at an early day to open a branch of the same business in which he is engaged with Capt. T. J. Southerland here. Our best wishes for Capt. Lamb's future success and prosperity go with him.

Burglary.
The residence of Mr. A. Weill, on the corner of Orange and Front streets, was burglariously entered yesterday morning about five o'clock. The clothing in Mr. Weill's bedroom was disturbed and his pants carried out in the passage where a pocketbook was taken from them, but fortunately for Mr. Weill his money was not in the book. The thief got little for his pains, but might have succeeded in securing some booty had he not been discovered and run off.

You pay the lowest cash prices for Doors, Sash, and Blinds, Builder's Hardware, &c., at JACOBI'S, No. 10 South Front street.

The Abduction Case.
The trial of Wm. Fisher and John Fisher, before Justice Gardner, mentioned in the REVIEW yesterday, resulted in the discharge of the elder Fisher and the commitment to jail for trial at the December term of the Criminal Court of John Fisher upon the charge of abduction, the woman Mary Ann Johnson, who was abducted on the occasion referred to, being the chief witness for the prosecution she testifying that the defendant on trial, whom she recognized and identified, was the same person who came to the house of Ida Macks where she, Mary Ann Johnson, was at that time stopping about one year ago, and in company with her late husband, Tom Johnson, an escaped convict, and Simon Haggett, an escaped murderer, did then and there—the whole party being armed with shot-guns—forcibly carry her off against her will.

The evidence being conclusive as to the prisoner's guilt, the Justice demanded a bond of $100 for his appearance at Court, in default of which he was committed to jail as stated above.

Economy is wealth—buy White Lead, Colors, Varnishes, and all kinds of painting materials for the lowest prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

SIGNAL SERVICE, U. S. A.,
Station Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 24, 1879.
8:10 a. m.
The following orders have been received at this station:
Off Shore Signals are ordered up for New Haven, New London, Newport, Woods Hall, Boston, Section Eight, Portland, Section Seven and Norfolk.
J. M. WATSON,
Sergt. Signal Corps, U. S. A.

A Game of Base Ball.
The Second Nine of the Champion base ball club and a few picked players from the Second Nine of the Home and one or two other clubs under the name of the 'Sunny South club' made a test of each other's skill in a game of base ball at the Athletic grounds this afternoon at 3 o'clock. But at the time of our going to press the result of the game has not been made known.

The trial of Arthur Fisher, upon the charge of harboring Tom Johnson, an escaped convict, which was to have taken place before Justice Gardner at 8 p. m. to-day has been continued at the request of the defence, on account of the absence of one of the principal witnesses, detained by sickness. The time now set for the trial is next Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

The Cold Snap.
The first cold weather of the season dropped in upon us last night about bed time, with a sharp wind from the Northwest. Blankets were in order and sleeping was just splendid. This morning the last straw had disappeared and a thriving business has been done during the day in blankets, wcolens, overcoats, coal, wood, &c. As we go to press the cold weather clouds have not yet all passed away.

Accident to the Murchison.
We understand that the steamer D. Murchison, which left here yesterday for Fayetteville, met with an accident last night about 50 miles from this place and when somewhere in the neighborhood of Whitehall, by which the wrist pin which connects the crank with one of the engines was broken and the cylinder heads were blown out. When the Hurt, which arrived here early this morning, passed the Murchison last night she was still heading for Fayetteville, moving slowly and with only one engine at work.

North Carolina Medical Journal.
The October number of this valuable publication has been received. It appears to us to be unusually full and interesting. We notice in it many articles of interest, even to our unprofessional mind, and we are glad to find appended to it a tabular report of the census of the city recently compiled by Mr. Walker Meares. This report is not only interesting but valuable, and we thank the Editor of the Medical Journal for it. In the editorial department, two very fine articles attract our eye one of which 'The Anæsthesia Question Reopened' discusses very cleverly the claim of Dr. Long, of Georgia, as the discoverer of anæsthesia, while the other is a very interesting paper relative to the workings of the North Carolina Board of Health. To both of these we may probably refer hereafter.

We have room here for only one more reference. In the 'Medical Annotations' which are made from time to time, we find the following:
FAMOUS TOOTH PULLING WITH A NEW ANÆSTHETIC.—Dr. John Bull has at last succeeded in extracting an ivory tooth from the famous savage chieftain Cetywayo, measuring seven feet in length and about a half yard in circumference at the girth. No anæsthetic was administered but gunpowder.

Jury of Inquest.
Coroner Hewlett held an inquest to-day over the body of John Ray, colored, who fell overboard from a flat at the foot of Princess street, on Tuesday night last, and was drowned. The body was found this morning and towed to Market Dock where the jury assembled. The verdict was in effect death by accidental drowning.

After the inquest was held the body was turned over to the father-in-law of the unfortunate man. It was then placed in a coffin and conveyed to his late residence on Eleventh, between Market and Dock streets, from whence the funeral will take place. A peculiar fact connected with the circumstance is that when the coffin arrived at the Dock the father-in-law of the deceased appealed to a large crowd of colored men who were standing around for assistance in placing the body in it but not one of them would dare touch it. He was at a loss what to do when a gentleman who was near at hand, a merchant on Market street, stepped forward and proffered his assistance, which was gladly accepted and the two then succeeded in getting the body properly arranged in its last earthly tenement.

Important to the Afflicted.
We would advise all who may need the advice of a physician, to either call or write to Dr. Robertson, 19, So. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., who from 15 years experience in Hospital and Special Practice, guarantees a cure in all diseases of the Urinary Organs and of the Nervous System, Organic and Seminal Weakness, Impotency (loss of sexual power), Nervous Debility and trembling, Palpitation of the Heart, dimness of sight or giddiness, Nocturnal Emissions, &c., all resulting from abuses in youth, or excesses in manhood; also all skin and blood diseases quickly cured. Dr. R. is a graduate of one of the oldest and best medical schools in this country (University of Maryland), and refers to the leading physicians in his city, and all consulting him can rely upon honorable and confidential treatment. In writing enclose stamp for reply. Special attention given to all female complaints. Good accommodations for all wishing to call and see him. Medicine sent to any address.

Communion Wine.
The grape crop of A. Speer's vineyards in New Jersey last year was one-third larger than any previous year. His vineyards in New Jersey, and the product from the grapes he purchases, have enabled him to keep a stock four years ahead. None sold less than four years old. It has become a popular evening wine among the best families in New York, and for communion purposes. For sale by Jas. C. Funds, Green & Finner and P. L. Bridgers & Co.
