YELLOW JACK CONQUERED.

Only One New Case in Memphis Sunday, and Three Cases of Death.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 26.—The Board of Health report to-day only one new case—Mary McGuire, white, aged 25 years, 68 Jefferson street. W B Kirk, telegraph company's employee, aged 26 years, died to-day. Miss Lulu Hama, aged 16 years, died five miles out of the city, near Buntyn's station. One colored man died on the Cow Island road, six miles south of the city. The Howards report to-night one new case supplied with nurse, T J McFadden, aged 27 years, residing in Kerr avenue, three miles south of the city. The Howards supply depot for the sick will close to-morrow, and at the Howard meeting to-morrow night a motion to disband the organization for the season will probably be adopted.

Refugees are returning by hundreds from all parts. All quarantine restrictions being removed, trains and steamboats come in crowded with people. There is yet some danger, owing to the number of infected houses in the city. The authorities advise people to beware of such, and have them properly ventilated and disinfected before occupancy. Business will open up lively to-morrow. Memphis merchants doing business in St. Louis, Louisville, and other places will close out at those points and return immediately.

For Archbishop Purcell.

PETERBURG, Va., Oct. 26.—A collection was taken up to-day at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, the Rev T J Wilson pastor, for the benefit of Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati. The contributions aggregated $400.50. The congregation was very small and the sum subscribed averages $4 per member. Father Wilson's appeal to the congregation was a very feeling and touching one. Bishop Purcell was consecrated in Baltimore October 13, 1833.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26.—Nothing has lately transpired regarding Archbishop Purcell's debts. The efforts of the ladies to raise money by holding a bazaar for his benefit realized only about $10,000, and merely resulted in bringing a throng of hungry creditors to his doors, although he had nothing for them. The money previously donated was on deposit in Basing's Bank at the time of its failure, and is now locked up with the other assets of the bank awaiting division among its creditors. The sum already raised has been so small, when compared with the immensity of the Archbishop's liabilities, as to paralyze the efforts of his friends, and nothing is now being done.

CAROLINA.

Goldsboro, Oct 2500 bales of cotton last week.

Newbern Nut Shell: A cargo of corn, about 250 bushels, was sold in job lots in this city yesterday at 70 cents per bushel.

Henderson Review: The meeting which has been in progress here about two weeks, closed last Tuesday. We learn that there were over fifty coverings.

Henderson Review: As we go to press we learn that Dr Hawkins' cotton gin was burned yesterday morning with about 25 bales cotton—work of incendiary. Fully insured.

Goldsboro Messenger: About 1,200 bales of cotton were sold in this market Thursday and Friday of last week. The Bank of New Hanover paid about $32,000 in cotton checks Friday.

Newbern Nut Shell: Rice and peas, the products of our lower counties, is coming into our market in large quantities, but is only a beginning to what will come, as immense amounts have been raised. Rice brings 65 to 90 cents and peas from 40 to 75 cents.

Goldsboro Messenger: The negro Deems Simmons, who murdered Mr Lanier near Dudley some months ago, has at last come to grief. After successfully evading the vigilance of our efficient sheriff, he was captured in the edge of Cumberland county, near the Bladen and Sampson line, on Saturday night last, and is now securely lodged in our county jail.

Newbern Democrat: We have never seen cotton come into this market more liberally than it has within the last two weeks, and while we have five sea going steamers constantly plying to and from this city, yet this great Southern staple—upon which more people are dependent for a livelihood than any other product of the soil—accumulates in vast quantities upon our wharves.

Goldsboro Messenger: Our L-Orange neighbors had some excitement in their usually quiet town on Saturday last, arising out of the fact that Richard Moyer was found dead in front of Mr F W Whitaker's saloon, on Caswell street. He was seen by several after 9 o'clock the night previous, in an intoxicated condition, and it is supposed that he died from whisky and exposure. He seemed to be in perfect health when sober.

Newbern Nut Shell: James Albert, a colored man of this city, employed by Gen Ransom on one of the derricks used in cleaning Neuse river channel of obstructions, was killed near La Grange on Tuesday morning. A huge log had been hoisted out of the river and was resting nearly balanced on the edge of the derrick, the heaviest end being in the water. Albert was astride the end which was on the derrick and was holding one of the guys, when it slipped from its proper position, causing the log to fall back into the river suddenly, throwing the unfortunate man about 20 feet in the air, where he struck the rigging of the mast, and was hurled back on the deck, receiving injuries which resulted in his death two hours after.

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr Mott of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey:

62 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK, April 11, 1878.

MR. ALFRED SPEER.—Dear Sir: The visit which I made last year to your Vineyards, wine-presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfied me thoroughly that the wines manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.

Acting upon my favorable impressions at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied, with marked benefit, to my patients.

There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grape, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine bearing the luxuriant fruit. Witnessing your success in your praiseworthy enterprise, remain respectfully yours, ALEX B. MOTT, M. D., Col. of Surgery, Bellevue Hosp. Med'l College, &c., &c. For sale by J. C. Munds, Green & Flanner, P. L. Bridgers & Co.

"Don't know half their value." "They cured me of Ague, Billiousness and Kidney Complaint, as recommended. I had a half bottle left, which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you don't know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B., Rochester, N. Y. See other column.

Wine and Cake for Eventings.

Alfred Speer of New Jersey, it should be known, is one of the most extensive producers and dealers in Pure Wines and Brandies in the United States. He makes a Superior Port Wine, which took the highest premium at the Centennial, known as Speer's Port Grape Wine. It is sold by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co., and Green & Flanner. Aug-17.

Good Cotton Receipts.

The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday amounted to 1,474 bales. To-day the receipts foot up 2,575 bales. Total for the two days, 4,049 bales. Not a bad showing that, and one that we doubt if either of our next door neighbors, Norfolk or Charleston, can beat.

FIGHTING IN AFGHANISTAN.

The British Force at Shutar-Gardan Surrounded by Thousands of Afghans.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—A despatch to the Standard from Kushi says: Gen Gough's brigade has arrived here to succeed the forces holding the entrenched camp at Shutar-Gardan, the commander of which reports that he is surrounded by thousands of Mangals. He signals that he can hold his town but from the heavy firing it is clear he is hotly engaged. Gen Gough will march for Shutar-Gardan to-morrow (Monday). If the position should prove untenable it will be evacuated, but if the enemy disperse, the force will remain at Shutar-Gardan and Gen Gough's brigade return to Cabul.

A Cabul despatch to the same paper says that the Kotwal of the same and four others have been hanged for complicity in the massacre of the British embassy. There has been fighting between Ali-Kheyl and Shutar-Gardan, in which the enemy was defeated with heavy loss, and communications have since been reopened.

Board of Aldermen.

A called meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last evening in the City Court Room, the object of the meeting being to hear counsel pro and con in the matter of a judgment obtained by the city against Mr. Henry Nutt, as surety on the bond of J. C. Mann, formerly Superior Court Clerk for this county.
