VOL. IV. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1879. NO. 227

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
P. HEINSBERGER—An Invitation.
MUNSON—Extra Pants.
Mrs. S. J. BAKER—New Millinery and New Stock.
NEWBURY & CHASTEN—Mackerel, Herring and Codfish.
A. & I. SHERIER—Used passed.
Widow Glass—all sizes at Altaffer & Price's.
Coughs and colds are fashionable.
It is spring that brings relief to the tree.
Tredescuen are thinking of holiday presents already.
Some of the fashionable cravats are models of bad taste.
Some policemen do not confine their brass to their buttons.
What is marriage? One woman the more and one man the less.
Shirring is to be closely associated with the fall and winter fashions.
Save your money by buying your Building Supplies from Altaffer & Price.
The barque Gefion, (Sw) Bergerson, hence, arrived at Hamburg on the 28th inst.
The wide white surcingles made for ladies to wear are not champaign walking belts.
Strangers in the city should not fail to visit the Sash Factory, foot of Walnut street.
You can give your friend a delightful surprise by returning the umbrella he lent you.
The plethora of grapes has subsided and the prices of that healthy fruit have advanced.
The servant girl agony shows no signs of abating. Good domestics are like angels' visits.
The schooner Five Brothers, Bonsall, cleared at Philadelphia on the 28th inst. for this port.
The next census will perhaps disclose that there are several persons who have not heard "Pinafore."
What is it that most lacks self-respect? The watch, because it is always trying to run itself down.
It is easy to pick holes in other people's work, but far more profitable to do better work yourself.
Even if he does not get a bite the boy who goes a fishing on Sunday may get a licking when he gets home.
Clergymen hint that wedding fees are a trifle better than they were a short time since. The times are improving.
Think of it, little folks—Christmas is less than two months off. Get your banks ready and save up your pennies.
Kid gloves are not made from kid skins but of lamb or sheep skins. At present many of them are made of rat skins.
"How old is the world," is not a question of half the vital human interest to most men as to know the age of the whiskey they drink.
An infallible cure for ivy or sumac poisoning is said to be water as hot as can possibly be used without burning; bathe two or three times.
A young gentleman in the First ward has a novel way of removing freckles from a young lady's face; he rubs them off with a sot mustache.
The celebrated Zab Vance, Southern Baker and Chief Cook Stoves, Parlor and Heating Stoves for old prices. No advance at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
When you begin to praise a man for anything he has done you should tell him beforehand that you don't want to borrow any money from him.
As a valuable remedy for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Torpid Liver, and such like diseases we can recommend Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills. They are for sale by all druggists. Price only 25 cents.

Money saved in buying your Household Hardware at JACOBI'S, No. 10 South Front street.
The mania for old gold has extended to stockings, and they are just about the handsomest things in silk hosiery ever seen, and suggest an attack of jaundice.
The cheapest jewelry is always the kind which is conspicuous by its glitter, even as the most ignorant auctioneer or lighting rod agent is noted for his silvery eloquence.
The young lady who worked a pair of slippers for her beau, with the unique design of a coiled snake on each, doesn't go to the theatre at his expense any more.
It seems remarkable that a nice easy-chair at home is so much less comfortable to a man than the hard side of a drygoods box on a street corner, with a crowd of loafers around.

The Funding of City Bonds.
From a visit to the treasurer's office at the City Hall this morning we gleaned the following information which we think will be of interest to our many readers, and all others as well, who are interested in the finances of this city. As is well known the present administration obtained permission by an act passed at the last General Assembly of this State to issue new bonds to the amount of $200,000; said bonds to be sold or exchanged for those outstanding bonds that had matured, at not less than par, the proceeds from the sale of this new issue to be applied exclusively to payment of bonds and coupons past due. In other words, the $199,900 of bonds and coupons past due, the most of which debt this present administration received as a legacy from the Radicals who had control of the city government for the ten preceding years, was to be funded in bonds bearing six per cent interest and running 18 and 20 years, but with the privilege on the part of the city to redeem the whole amount at the expiration of ten years if they desired so to do.
The funding has now been going on for one or two months, and we are informed that in that time there have been received in the treasurer's office some $80,000 in matured bonds and coupons.
Except $28,000, the whole amount of bonds outstanding to be funded bear six per cent interest.

The large proportion of this outstanding bonded debt which is being funded was issued during the Dawson administration of 1856 in payment of stock taken and subscribed to by the city in the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad (now the Carolina Central) every dollar of which has been lost by the insolvency of that corporation.
The $28,000 mentioned above are in seven per cent. bonds, which is part of the issue made for the erection of the City Hall. Of this last named amount $16,000 have already been funded, which leaves $7,000 of seven per cent. bonds still outstanding. Of this latter sum the State Board of Education holds $5,600, the remaining $1,500 being held by different individuals. It should be borne in mind that of this debt of $199,900, which is now being funded at one hundred cents on the dollar, principal and interest, $50,000 in bonds does not fall due until February 1st, 1880.
This, we think, is a first-rate showing and speaks well for the financial ability as well as integrity of the present city administration.
In addition to the foregoing exhibit, the present Democratic administration have reduced the city debt over $50,000 and the city taxes thirty-seven and a half per cent. And we are now authorized to state by the proper city officials that coupons on all city bonds falling due on the 1st of January, 1880, and all there after, will be paid in cash at the City Treasurer's office in this city, on the very day that they are due. What a blessing it is to have an honest administration of government in local affairs, even if we can't get Honest John Sherman and his confederates to explain the $200,000,000 discrepancy in the National Treasury.

Indications.
WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of the Chief Signal Officer,
Washington, D. C., Oct. 29, 1879.
For the South Atlantic States, the Gulf States, Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, clear or partly cloudy weather—winds mostly from Northwest to North, east and rising barometer, followed during the night by lower temperature.

SIGNAL SERVICE, U. S. A.,

Floating Compress.
The floating Compress has been in successful operation for a week past and has compressed cotton to the satisfaction of all concerned. It compresses and holds cotton at fourteen inches after expansion.
New Millinery Depot.
Mrs. S. J. Baker has established a depot for the sale of millinery and hair goods at the corner of Third and Orange streets, filling a want, we are inclined to believe, long felt in that section of the city. She has lots of new goods of the latest styles and designs and invites the ladies to call and inspect the stock.

City Court.
William Sears, colored, was interviewed by the Mayor this morning for disorderly conduct, the testimony in the case being to the effect that the defendant was put out of a seaman's boarding house and bar room on North Water street, by the proprietress, last night, when he flourished a stick with intent to strike the person who ejected him. Officer Grant then appeared upon the scene and arrested the belligerent individual and carried him to the Guard House. It being the first offence, His Honor suspended judgment upon payment of costs.
Dick Deadeye was the next case on docket, the charge being drunk and down. There being nothing else preferred against the defendant, judgment was suspended upon payment of costs.
Stephen White, him of the tragic dramatic notoriety mentioned in the Review yesterday as being in training for a second appearance at the Mayor's Court this morning, did not disappoint our expectations. He appeared in the last scene of the last act of the Court this morning. The charge preferred was drunk and down. When asked by the Mayor what he had to say for himself, he claimed to be an Englishman, and said that he reached this city on Tuesday last from Burgaw, that he would be 75 years old in February next, if he lived to see the day of the anniversary of his birth, that he was a stage actor by profession and talked nothing but poetry, but notwithstanding this assertion the old fellow was beginning to get quite prosy when the Mayor asked him if he did not know that it was wrong to get drunk? "Yes, yer honor," was the reply and then as the distinguished defendant proceeded to make a quotation from Pope's Universal prayer, he remarked "but Alexander Pope has said,"

"Teach me to feel another's woe
Another's grief to see;
That mercy I to others show
That mercy show to me."
But apparently thinking that this pathetic appeal was not strong enough to secure the clemency of the Court, he added his own earnest words and forgetting again his assertion that he spoke nothing but poetry, began to get rather prosy once more when the Mayor told him he would suspend judgment provided he would leave the city by 12 o'clock to-day. "I will leave it within an hour's time, sir, and never come back again," was the response. "If you are found in the city after 12 o'clock to-day I will imprison you for 30 days," remarked the Mayor. "Aye, aye sir, you may hang me, you may hang me, sir!" was the emphasized reply of the crushed tragedian as he walked off and made his exit by the nearest door to the street.
And so ended the last act of the play of Stephen White, the five and twenty years actor and ten year barlequin.

You pay the lowest cash prices for Doors, Sash, and Blinds, Builder's Hardware, &c., at JACOBI'S No. 10 South Front street.
The fish market was well supplied yesterday.
New River oysters are scarce in this market and sell for one dollar a gallon.
The custom of rehearsing weddings is not uncommon but decidedly bad.
Mr. Holland has concluded to keep the little waif left on his door step a few nights ago. It is doing well, so we are told.
The damage done to the steeples and roof of St. Paul's Lutheran Church by the last big storm is being repaired by Mr. G. W. Summerill.

Young man, young woman, why blush to the eyebrows and stammer like another stuttrer, because the secret happens to get out that you are engaged to be married? Marriage is honorable in all, says the inspired Word, and we believe it. What the Bible says must be right.

Indications promise us that it will be cooler to-night.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,347 bales.
Naval stores still boom. Rosin is quoted to day at $1.50 for good strained and spirits at 46 1/2 cent per gallon. Let her boom!
Business and work of all kind is on a boom in this city. Mechanics in all branches are busy and brick masons, painters, etc., are in demand.
Chief of Police Brock is still pushing the good work of improving the streets and sidewalks. In our walks about the city in quest of news we see many traces of his work.
For 1880.
From Mr. J. H. Ennis, of Raleigh, we have received a copy of Turner's North Carolina Almanac for next year, 1880. It is not only a complete calendar for the year but contains other matters of interest and for reference which will be found very valuable.
Economy is wealth—buy White Lead Colors, Varnishes, and all kinds of painting materials for the lowest prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
Weakly Persons' Wine.
Old and infirm persons need some mild tonic or gentle stimulant, especially in warm weather. The wines made at Speer's Mount Prospect Vineyards, in New Jersey, called Speer's Port Grape Wine, is used in the Atlantic States as the best tonic wine known, and is regarded as pure, and is very popular among physicians. For sale by Green & Flanner, J. O. Munds and P. L. Bridgers & Co.
