Mason—Try Our Cutter.
J. B. MELTON—Beautiful Beef.
L. M. WILLIAMS—Notice.
BROWN & RODDICK—Revolution in Carpets.
A. & I. SHRIER—Unsurpassed.

No City Court to-day.
Window Glass—all sizes at Staffer & Price's.
The retail carpet trade is active.

A round concern—the telephone.
Did you ever see a walking match?
Eve's first outfit was a fall costume.

Ice dealers would now sell out cheap.
Wedding gifts are very elegant this season.
A fall opening—the uncovered coal-hole.

We lose 47 minutes of daylight this month.
An auctioneer is a man of more-bid tastes.
A cold wave—putting aside the ice question.

A schooner that always tips a beer schooner.
The market matrimonial is certainly looming up.

The homestretch is best taken in the evening on the sofa.
How many passengers will a train of circumstances carry?

Turkeys are kindly requested to go into training for the 27th.
Derby hats are both fashionable and pretty for young ladies.

What often passes for the golden rule is merely very poor plate.
House flies are doing speculating extensively in window glass.

Jack Frost has kissed the maples and they are blushing a rosy red.
The barque Fred, Thorsen, hence, arrived at London on the 24th ult.

The barque Jerbuen, Svendsen, hence, arrived at Hamburg on the 22d ult.
Oysters are becoming more plentiful, and are of a finer quality and flavor.

Save your money by buying your Building Supplies from Altaffer & Price.
Magistrate's Row presents rather a dreary appearance for a hungry local.

Now the turkeys are fattening, and the Thanksgiving dinner creeps on apace.
The steamship Regulator, Doane, hence, arrived at New York on the 5th inst.

The uncertainty of wealth is more than counterbalanced by the certainty of poverty.
Strangers in the city should not feel to visit the Sash Factory, Foot of Walnut street.

Now is the coal man's time to smile, while the ice dealer begins to look despondent.
We were pleased to receive a visit to-day from two very good friends of ours, Mr. W. F. Tomlinson, of the Piedmont Press, and Mr. W. W. McDiarmid, of the Robesonian.

Ladies will be somewhat surprised to know that thimbles are not of recent date, as many suppose; they were well known to the Romans, and in England, and in North Europe were made of leather.

You pay the lowest cash prices for Doors, Sash and Blinds, Builder's Hardware, &c., at Jacob's No. 10 South Front street.

It doesn't do a bit of good to take a twelve mile promenade in a fourteen foot room with a baby, and sing or declaim: 'Lochee, pochie, pudgen and pie.' Use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup and be done with it.

Rev. S. Mendelsohn, of this city, was in Goldsboro yesterday and last night united in marriage, Mr. Isaac Fuchler and Miss Isabella Kern, both of that town. Dr. Mendelsohn has already returned here.

Economy is wealth—buy White Lead Colors, Varnishes, and all kinds of painting materials for the lowest prices at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

The Next Performance.

W. J. Florence is making barrels of "Mighty Dollars" this season—in fact the Florences seem to be more successful than ever.
The Hon. Bardwell Stote will be in Wilmington and submit his peculiar views for public consideration as a P. I. G.—perfectly independent gentleman.

As Good as His Word.

Some five or six weeks ago a party of young gentlemen were gathered in the office connected with Mr. T. J. Southerland's stables, when the conversation finally merged into the subject of marriage. In the course of the conversation, Mr. James Southerland said to one of those present, that if he would get married any time within two months that he (Southerland) would harness the best four-horse team in the stable to the b at carriage and meet the bride and groom at the depot, when they should come to the city, and convey them home free of charge. The banter was made in jest, the party dispersed and Mr. Southerland thought no more of the matter until a few days ago, when he was notified by the party to whom he made the proposition, that the carriage would be needed on Thursday (last) night. In accordance with this hint Mr. Southerland repaired to the Front street depot last night with one of the best four-horse teams in the State, and met his friend, who had taken as his bride one of the fairest of the fair daughters of Duplin county and transplanted her to a new home with its responsibilities and duties, in this city. The happy couple were soon seated in the magnificent carriage and driven in right regal style to their residence, where we hope a long, happy and prosperous life of domestic enjoyment may attend them.

The celebrated Zeb Vance, So ern Baker and Chief Cook Stoves, Parlor and Heating Stoves for old prices. No advance at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

The Excursion Yesterday.

At ten minutes past eleven o'clock yesterday, the steam yacht Passport glided from her wharf for a trip down the river, having on board about sixty of our up-country visitors. The fair sex was well represented and their presence added much to the pleasure of the trip. Capt. Harper, as usual, was very courteous to his passengers and pointed out the places of interest on the river to all who were interested in sight-seeing. The yacht ran close alongside of the rock wall at New Inlet and steamed gaily past Smithville and out to sea. While the guests were enjoying themselves in different ways on the boat, Col. Kerchner and his right bower, Mr. Wm. Gilchrist, both of the city committee, were busying themselves in getting ready a little collation for the excursionists. Everything in the way of refreshing beverages were at the disposal of the guests, and at 1 o'clock they were invited down into the cabin to partake of the creature comforts prepared for them. The excursion was hurriedly gotten up, but notwithstanding the many drawbacks in preparing a hurried lunch, the committee did very well indeed, and gave entire satisfaction, as they had prepared everything that one could think of, except hot meats, which of course were not to be had. Mr. J. H. Currie, also of the committee, gave himself up to the ladies, and nobly performed the duties assigned to him by the other committee-men.

The sea was "as smooth as a dish," there hardly being a perceptible ground swell. In coming back to the city a stoppage of fifteen minutes was made at Smithville in order to allow the excursionists to look around Fort Johnson. The trip up the river was even more pleasant than the downward trip. The River and Harbor Improvement steam dredge Woodbury, Battery Buchanan, Fort Caswell, Sugar Loaf, Old Brunswick, Orton Light House and the Jetties were pointed out to the excursionists as they were passed. When nearly opposite the Dram Tree, Mr. Ramsey, of the Statesville Landmark, arose and thanked the merchants of Wilmington in behalf of the excursionists for their hospitality, and assured them that Wilmington would ever be thought of with pride and delight. In steaming up to the wharf, the city with its large buildings and streets brilliantly illuminated presented a very fine spectacular view. The little impromptu trip will long be remembered by those in attendance, and we trust that our up-country friends will be so impressed with it as to often visit our city by the sea, where an old North Carolina welcome will ever await them.

The Indian Summer is evidently with us now.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 703 bales.
Steamship Benefactor, Capt. Jones, sailed hence for New York to-day.

No matter how handsome a family monument a man may have in the cemetery, he never wants to lie on his back to look up at it.
Mr. H. S. Blair, editor and proprietor of the Hickory Carolinian, is on a brief visit to this city, and gladdened our sanctum by his presence for a few moments to-day.

The Whiting Rifles are called on to meet at Temperance Hall next Monday evening, at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance is requested as the object of the meeting is important.

Lovers of the fragrant Havana will be interested to know that Connecticut tobacco is booming. Strange that the size of the crop in the Nutmeg State should have more effect upon the price of Havana cigars than half a hundred Cuban insurrections.

Unmailables.

The following unmailable postal matter remains at the postoffice in this city: J. C. Boyd, New York; Toney Batte, William, N. C.; J. S. Johnson, New York.

From New York.

News received here this afternoon from New York states that the Republicans have elected their entire State ticket. It is proper to state, however, that this news is from Republican sources in New York and our readers are at liberty to take it cum grano salis.

The Cape Fear.

The river is still very low, and if there is any change, it is still falling. Steamboats cross the shoals with much difficulty, and are delayed and subjected to great trouble in making their trips. Appearances now indicate that unless there are rains before long sufficient to make a decided rise of water the boats will be compelled to stop running.

It takes a clever woman to keep up with the fashions, for they come so thick, fast and in such varieties. Sidney Smith wept because he could not read all the books that were written, and well may the girl of the period shed tears because she cannot wear all the fashions that are introduced.

U. S. District Court.

The attention of the Court was claimed to-day, in hearing the case of John Davis, colored, charged with robbing the U. S. mail. It will be remembered that a bag of mail was taken from the train on the N. C. & A. Railroad, robbed and then hid in a swamp, from whence it was recovered by the detective sent to work the case up, and that Davis was subsequently arrested and committed by a commissioner for his appearance at this term of the Court. At the time of our closing the jury were out.
5 P. M.—A verdict of guilty has just been rendered.

Disastrous Fire.

About 10 o'clock last night the barn on the rice plantation of Mr. Francis M. Moore, located on Brunswick river, about four miles from the city and a half mile from the Narva's Guano Works, was discovered to be on fire. The flames spread very rapidly and the structure with its contents was soon consumed. Mr. Moore was in the city at the time but left early this morning for the scene of the fire. He was unable to say how the fire originated, but thinks it must have been incendiary. The barn was a large structure and held a large quantity of rice, which was in process of being threshed out. We do not know the exact number of bushels contained in the building, but the loss is very heavy, estimated at about $12,000. On this there was insurance for $8,000 in agencies represented by Messrs. Joo. W. Gordon & Bro. in this city and located as follows: $2,000 on barn and $2,000 on rice, in Liverpool, London & Globe, of London, Eng.; $2,000 on rice in Virginia Fire and Marine, of Richmond, and $2,000 on rice in Merchants and Mechanics, of Richmond.

Grape Juice.

The art of fermenting the Quercus Grape into wine in this country has been brought to a greater degree of perfection by Mr. Alfred Spear, of Passaic, New Jersey, than by any other person, and his wine is very popular as a ladies' wine, as well as for the communion table and for invalids. For sale by Green & Glanzer, Jas. C. Monds and F. L. Bridgers & Co.

Some of the Benefits that Accrue

More excursionists came on the Carolina Central Railway this morning and the cry is still they come. Propos to this we learn that the C. C. Railway have had to double the number of cars to their freight trains recently in one or two instances, in order to carry forward the merchandise purchased by the visitors from the West. In addition to this we learn from the same reliable source that the inward freight from places along the line of the C. C. Railway and points beyond has increased very perceptibly since the first arrival of our visiting friends, which goes to prove that when Eastern and Western Carolinians are brought face to face with each other, some beneficial results are bound to flow from an interchange of ideas, and a sort of community of interest is established at once. Our friends in the West send down their produce and we buy; they come here and our merchants show them their goods and give them the bottom figures and the visiting merchant or producer buys the merchant's wares.
We think a similar scheme to the one now in progress over the C. C. Railway and its connections might prove profitable over the W. & W. R. R. and its connections and branches even as high up as Tarboro and as low down as Washington or Kingston. There is no doubt, we imagine, but that the W. & W. Railroad authorities will exhibit a liberality both in excursion rates and in the freight tariffs.
