The Fun of It Is THAT THE RUSH FOR Gents', Youths, and Boys' Clothing and Furnishing Goods, still continues at our two stores, notwithstanding the immense amount of Goods we have already sold this season. The reason is plain.
 Nobody ever bought a bad bargain at HERRICK'S, while our goods, although low in price, are always just as represented. So

The Diphtheria.
 We regret to hear that diphtheria prevails to an alarming degree in Magnolia and other portions of Duplin county, and several children have died from the effects of this dreaded disease. Several of our State exchanges also speak of it as raging in various other localities.

Work of the Y. M. C. A.
 In connection with the week of prayer of the Young Men's Christian Association, which began Sunday, it will be of interest to know what the organization is doing. A circular from the chairman of the executive committee states that in States west of Ohio, the number of associations in the last ten years has been increased from 30 to 200. In the South the number has grown from 3 in 1870 to 151 in 1879. At 70 railroad centres Christian railroad men are now associated for Christian work and associations exist in 60 colleges, 23 having been organized within the last year. A special work has been going on among commercial travelers and 60 of these were present at the Baltimore convention last year.

The "Mighty Dollar."
 Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence will appear at the Opera House on Friday night, the 14th inst., in their ever popular comedy of "The Mighty Dollar." They are great favorites with the public everywhere and never fail to draw full houses.
 Already many seats have been reserved for Friday evening, and we predict that they will be greeted by a large audience.
 We clip the following complimentary notice from the New York Herald:

"The Florences seem to be attended by good luck. Wherever they have appeared this season large audiences have followed, and in spite of the age and familiarity of the 'Mighty Dollar' the unctuousness and humor of the play have everywhere attracted a remunerative throng. At Haverly's Brooklyn theatre last night, scarcely a seat was to be had after the rising of the curtain. This has been the experience during the week. The portraiture of their respective characters by these two artists is so full of individuality and so strongly suggestive of a type that has become more or less known in public circles, that the satire is at once understood, enjoyed and applauded. The play entirely derives its vitality from the broad treatment with which it is invested by these two comedians, and it owes its success to the excellent caricatures which they never fail to represent. The Bardwell Slote of Mr. Florence and the Mrs.
 General Giffory of Mrs. Florence are artistic creations that will stand apart by themselves. In keeping with her character as a bon ton, Mrs. Florence uses the opportunity to display the arts of the milliner and her most diabolical French is not an offset to the admiration that is occasioned among the fair sex by her picturesque and admirable costume."

Almost Young Again.
 My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family.—A lady, in Providence,

The Meteoric Shower.
 To-morrow night is the time set apart by Prof. Tice for the grand meteoric shower through which the earth is to pass at that time. It is announced in advance as the most brilliant meteoric display seen since 1833, when to all intents and purposes the sky literally rained fire.
 The display for this year will not commence until about 1 o'clock in the morning, but the Professor says that the magnificence of the display will more than compensate for the inconvenience of the vigil. We'll all stay up to see it.

South Carolina Granite.
 A large force of hands is employed at the quarries near Columbia, S. C., in getting out granite to be used as coping for the sea wall at New Inlet. We learn that about 20,000 tons of this granite will be needed. The material for the main portion of the wall is the limestone quarried near Rocky Point, in Pender county, and the granite being so much heavier, is needed to keep the wall in position. The stone is to be delivered in blocks of not less than 1,000 pounds each.

Robeson Court.
 Judge Seymour did not put in an appearance on Monday at Lumberton, at which place Robeson Superior Court was to have convened on that day. He was looked for yesterday but a letter to the REVIEW dated yesterday at Lumberton, says that he had not arrived at the time the letter was written and that the town was full of impatient and "cussing" people who were awaiting his appearance.
 Why isn't that a Judge can do as he pleases about attending Court while nothing but a physician's certificate will save an absent juror or witness from being adjudged guilty of contempt and heavily fined?

Another Runaway.
 Yesterday we recorded the runaway of a bovine steed on Market and Front streets, and to-day it is our duty as a faithful chronicler of current events to mention the runaway of an equine steed with a buggy—both the property of Mr.
 Henry Haar—from the Northeast corner of Market and Front streets, to Boatwright & McKoy's store, where one of the fore wheels of the buggy, which the horse was dragging after him, ran along on the sidewalk, while the other rolled along in the gutter until it struck the post of the shed in front of Messrs. B. & M's store and with such force that it released the animal from the buggy, when he bolted at the door of Boatwright & McKoy's and was making his way straight up to the counter when some one of the attendants or employes in the store seized the frightened equine by the bridle and led him out. Fortunately no one was in the buggy at the time and no one was hurt, and but little damage done to buggy and harness, the cross bar in front of the buggy being the only part of the vehicle that was broken.

Next Monday Night.
 There is a great treat in store for our folks next Monday night, on which occasion we are to have at the Opera House, for one night only, the famous Frayne-Tiffany Combination, and the thrilling dramatic success of Si Slocum, which was written by Clifton W. Taylure, Esq.
 This play is full of marvellous and thrilling scenes and incidents and has drawn immense houses wherever it has been performed. There are many interesting features which add to themselves a peculiar attraction of this production, among them the famous acting dog "Jack," a celebrated trained black bear and a coach and four which are driven across the stage at full speed.

Mr. Frayne will also produce, during the progress of the drama, his daring shots with a rifle, such as cutting the rope by which a man is being hung, holding his gun upside down on his head and shooting a pipe from a man's mouth, snuffing a candle, shooting an apple from a head with a back shot, &c.
 The box sheet for this performance is now open at Heinsberger's and as there is certain to be a large house this; interested should secure their seats at once.

New Jersey Wine sent to Europe.
 The success of Mr. Speer, the great wine man of New Jersey is a result from the strict purity and valuable properties of his wines for invalids and feeble persons, and his reputation extends around the world. His Port Grape Wine is now being ordered by families in London and Paris. For sale by J. C. Munda, Green & Planner and P. L. Bridgers & Co.

The barque Sourcens, (Ner.) Andreae, arrived at Queenstown on the 9th inst., reports that she spoke on the 5th inst., the brig Antee, from this port for London,
