Honesty is the best policy, but just now there is but little boom in it.

The barque Frank, sailed from Bristol, Eng., for this port on the 2nd inst.

It is the poorest way to get up in the world to be continually down in the mouth.

Put yourself in his place when you go to rout a boy out of bed at 6 o'clock on a frosty morning.

There are a great many good people who will never go to heaven unless they can go at excursion rates.

Snake bracelets and bugs for bonnets match charmingly with the ladies' fashionable belts made of alligator skins.

Hoops are coming into fashion again. Hoops are things to put around women to keep them from bursting with vanity.

The fault found with all state constitutions is in the fact that they do not provide enough offices to give every reformer a place.

'It is employment that makes the people happy,' remarked Daniel Webster. It is 'holding office that makes them too jolly for anything.'

Mr. Springer advertises in this issue that he is selling coal now cheaper than it can be bought in Philadelphia, and he means what he says.

How is the baby? Is the question often put to a mother, and many an answer comes, 'thanks to Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup much better to-day.'

The wind got around to the North-east during the night and to-day is decidedly cooler and more pleasant than any of its predecessors for a week past.

Housewives are warned to look out for the man who comes with a message purporting to be from the husband or some male member of the family, asking for his overcoat.

A girl who can shed three or four tears at a critical moment, and follow them up with a quivering sigh, can marry all around a good-looking blonde who does nothing but try to bush.

A fashion writer tells us that 'the buttoning of dresses in the back is going out of fashion.' If your unmarried aunt still affects that style, you may tell her it is behind the age—if you dare to.

It is against the law to carry concealed arms, yet it is nothing uncommon on moonlight evenings to see young ladies with half concealed arms around their waists. But they ain't the kind that go off; they stay there.

To have hams and corned beef taste extra good, let them stand for six hours in the water in which they were boiled. Very salty corned beef should be boiled in two waters, adding hot water when the first is poured off, which should be done at the time the meat is half done.

A World of Good.
One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old fashioned boneset tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters. —Nunda News.

For Wadesboro.

The Champion Baseball Club will leave this evening for Wadesboro, where they are to take a part in the games to be played for the championship of the State.

Rumored Fire.

We heard it rumored on the streets this morning that a house in Brooklyn, occupied by John McKoy, colored, together with its contents was, entirely consumed by fire Saturday afternoon. We could not find out any thing definite about the rumored conflagration and publish it only as a rumor.

THE PRAYNE-TIFFANY COMBINATION

In the Greatest Dramatic Success of the Day,

as played to large and enthusiastic audiences in all the principal cities of America and Europe.

Written by Clifton W. Tarr, Esq., entitled, "Si Slocum". A beautiful, exciting and laughable story of frontier and Domestic Life. The eminent sensational actor and world-renowned saraphicist, MRS. FRANK PRAYNE. The charming Comedienne and emotional actress, MISS ANNIE WARD TIFFANY, supported by a full and efficient Company. The famous acting Dog "Jack". The celebrated trained black Bear.

The Robbing of the Overland Mail Coach, a wonderful mechanical contrivance, the horses causing the stage to fall speed. During the action of the drama, Mr. Frayne will introduce his original and daring shots with a rifle as follows: Cutting a single rope with a bullet, reversing hanging negro. Just outside a man on dead, shooting pipe from Deuchman's mouth. Snuffing candle with bullet. Cubic shot, shooting an apple from negro's head and saucer from his own head from opposite sides of stage at same time. Grand backward shot, shooting an apple from Miss Tiffany's head, standing with back to the lady, facing small hand mirror.
