Probabilities.
 The probabilities to-day, as received from the Signal Office in this city are as follows:

For the South Atlantic States to-day falling barometer, increasing Southerly winds, warmer, cloudy and rainy weather, followed on Saturday by rising barometer and cold Northwest winds.

Wine for Invalids
 The Port Grape Wine of New Jersey is the best medicinal wine in the market and it is said that the vintage of A.
 Speer far exceeds any other produced. It is heavy in body, rich in flavor and well adapted for sickly persons and for general family use. For sale by J. C. Manda, Green & Flanagan and P. L. Bridges & Co.

New Meter.
 Mr. John Reiley, Superintendent of the Wilmington Gas Company, on Wednesday last placed a large new meter in the Opera House, so that when the Dizzie's come along again there need be no apprehension felt by the audience of a lack of plenty of light upon the subject.

Almost a Fire.
 Last evening about 8 o'clock, a kersene lamp exploded at Mr. Peter Smith's residence, corner of Fourth and Campbell streets, which, but for the timely appearance of Officer Petteway, Dr. Lane and one or two others, who extinguished the flames, might have been a disastrous fire.

A Pain Killer.
 Dr. Deboit, a famous chiropodist, is now in the city and has rooms at the Commercial Hotel. He brings with him very high recommendations, some of them from members of the press fraternity in the South who are known to us. He yesterday operated very skillfully on a number of gentlemen, extracting corns and bunions in a few moments, without pain, and affording great relief to the sufferers.

Criminal Court.
 The attention of the Court has been occupied for the most part to-day in trying only two cases, both of which were stubbornly contested with a huge array of witnesses on both sides. The following are the cases taken up to-day:

State vs. John O'Brien, charged with assault and battery. Verdict not guilty.
State vs. Mingo Marshall, charged with larceny. On trial.

Cornet Concert Club.
 At a Regular meeting of the Cornet Concert Club, held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term:
 S. W. Sanders, President.
 L. J. Otterbourg, Vice President.
 G. R. Dyer, Recording Secretary.
 H. D. Burkholder, Corresponding Secretary.
 D. B. Mitchell, Treasurer.
 J. G. Love, Drum Major and Librarian.
 G. L. Johnson, Musical Director.

 Cooking and Heating Stoves at the lowest cash prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Telephonic Concert.
 Yesterday being an "off day" in telephonic circles Mr. DeFerrest concluded to give his patrons a musical treat. Last evening he made twenty-five connections on his switch board and notified the connections that they would hear some music.
 Several gentlemen congregated in the Bell Telephone Exchange and rendered some magnificent familiar airs which were transmitted through one of the Blake transmitters. Those who heard it were charmed and we here tender our thanks for an invitation to listen to the music.

You can buy a No. 1 heating or Cook Stove at almost any price at JACOBI'S, No.
 10 South Front street.

Base Ball.
 The match game of base ball played yesterday afternoon at the Athletic Grounds between the "Wilmington Nine" and the "Independent Nine" of this city was very exciting, as the score was quite close. There was a large number of spectators on the ground. The following is the score:

"WILMINGTON NINE"		Runs.	Outs
W C Orr	3	4
W Morrison	0	5
D McEthern	3	3
H E Orr Jr.	3	3
R H Kingsbury	3	3
O P Meares	5	1
Martin Willard	5	1
Herbert Smith	2	2
Total	24	24

INDEPENDENT NINE.		Runs.	Outs
Thos Rowell	3	2
Ed Yopp	0	5
Rich r Register	3	1
J D Smith	3	3
Geo Harris	2	4
Thomas Stenwell	3	3
Willie Register	3	3
W R King-bu-y	2	2
J D Kelley	2	3
Total	21	24

Mr R H Grant acted as Umpire and Mr T G Pickett as Scorer. The two nines were the members of the Champion and the Home Base Ball Clubs, but as the game was considered "a scrub" they played under the above names. The Wilmington Nine, of the Champions, were successful.

Magistrate's Court.
 James Williams, colored, was tried before Justice Gardner this morning upon the charge of larceny of several articles of value from the residence of Mrs. L. H.
 Fore, on Fifth, between Market and Princess streets, on Wednesday of this week and bound over to the present term of the Criminal Court.

County Commissioners.
 Next Monday the regular monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners will be held at the Commissioner's room in the Court House, at which time all bonded county officials will have to renew their bonds for the ensuing year and the Board will pass upon the same, deciding whether the sureties offered are good or not.

They Didn't Shoot
 The meteors and shooting stars that were to make the heavens brilliant last night failed to put in an appearance, and Professor Proctor's prophecy falls as far short of the truth as did Professor Tice's.
 We are now ready for the next prediction, but shall not engage to "watch and wait" any more to the curtailment of the comforts of a warm bed and a tranquil sleep.

For the Orphans.
 The Joint Services held yesterday forenoon in the First Baptist Church were largely attended. The sermon which was delivered by Rev. E. A.
 Yates, Pastor of Front street M. E. Church, was an eloquent and touching one and truly appropriate, in thought and expression, to the occasion. The collection made was for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum and we are truly pleased to learn that a sum between $125 and $150 was realized for this truly laudable purpose.

Thanksgiving Day.
 Thanksgiving Day for the year 1879 has passed. With the people of Wilmington it was a quiet, peaceful day, with nearly all of the stores closed, and with services for almost every denomination. A great many persons left the city, the Nimrods having scoured the woods far and near with, fortunately, no disasters of a serious nature. The contributions to the poor, entrusted to the ministers of churches, were quite liberal and many a poor soul is happier to-day than it was on Wednesday. The Day seems to have been observed in a fair and liberal spirit and if there was any drunkenness or rowdy-ing on the streets we failed to see or hear of it.

Mr. Davis' Lecture.
 Quite a respectable number of appreciative listeners were in attendance at the Opera House on Wednesday evening, to hear the Hon. George Davis' Historical lecture upon the theme, "A Study in Colonial History." The lecturer went back in history some two hundred years to make his starting point, and from thence by degrees, through link after link of a succeeding generations and events, he established to the satisfaction of his audience a complete vindication of John Porter and Edward Moseley, from the aspersions cast upon their fair name and fame by Hawks and other historians.
 From the first named distinguished personage in the history of the early colony in this State, Mr. Davis traced the pedigree of some of the most illustrious men of this old Cape Fear section, principal among whom are the names of Ashe, Lillington and Moore.

The name of Edward Moseley, a distinguished citizen of this section, who occupied the position of Surveyor-General for this Colony for many years, was elo-quently eulogized by the distinguished speaker, and rescued from the degraded place in history where the prejudice of a few latter-day historians had placed it and elevated to the front rank of patriots and worthy citizens of the time in which he lived.

The genealogy of other old and prominent families of this section was also mentioned, among whom were the Swanns. But we cannot follow the able lecturer through the labyrinth of historical facts and names and interesting incidents which were brought forward during the discourse. To those who were unable to attend, we can simply say that a perusal of this valuable contribution to the history of the times of which it treats, will amply repay them, and the opportunity, we understand, will be afforded as the Historical Society have gained the consent of Mr. Davis to have the address published in pamphlet form, which we learn is to be done at an early day.

Bold Robbery.
 On Wednesday night of this week Mr.
 Charlie Fore, clerk in the dry goods store of Messrs Brown & Roddick of this city, discovered on going to his room at his mother's residence on Fifth street that some one had broken open his trunk and abstracted therefrom several articles of clothing. Immediately upon discovering the theft, Mr. Fore reported the fact at the Sheriff's office and officers Carr and Strode's services were engaged who proceeded to the scene of the robbery and made an examination of the premises.
 Tracks were discovered and a measure of their length taken. Upon inquiry by the officers, it was discovered that Mrs. Fore and the other members of the family, except Mr. Charlie Fore, had been out of the city for a few days, and that before leaving Mrs. Fore had discharged a colored girl by the name of Jane Williams, who had been waiting in the house.

After ascertaining these facts the party then proceeded to a house on Chestnut, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, where the girl was known to be residing.
 Upon arriving at the house the party surrounded it when officer Carr knocked at the door which was soon opened to admit him by some one inside, when the girl in question leaped from a back window in to the yard, but unfortunately for her, lighted right in to Officer Strode's arms. After diligent search of the premises many of the missing articles were found, which were identified, and also the shoes of Jane Williams, which, upon measurement by Officer Carr, corresponded exactly with the size of the track made in Mrs. Fore's yard.
 The arrested party was then brought down and lodged in jail until this morning, when a preliminary investigation was had before Justice Gardner, who bound the defendant over in the sum of $50 for her appearance at the present term of the Criminal Court, in default of which she was committed to jail.

DIED.
 KELLELY—Friday evening, at 3:15, Mrs.
 SARAH H. KELLELY, aged 82 years and 8 months. The funeral will take place from the residence of her son, Mr. Geo. H. Kelley, on Second, between Chestnut and Mulberry streets, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, thence to Oakdale Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend. Star copy.
