LETTERS FROM SANTA CLAUS!
TO
P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.
No. 1. What Stock he Sends.
We have just received the following communication from Santa Claus, which we hasten to lay before our customers:
NEW YORK, Dec. 14th, 1879.
To P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.,
Grocers, Wilmington, N. C.:
Gentlemen—Taking a special interest in your fare and success, from a careful perusal of your highly entertaining contributions to the advertising columns of the Review, and anticipating a great rush to your store in the next ten days, on the part of my friends and the public, I have taken the liberty to supervise in person the fitting of your very large and liberal orders for Christmas Goods, adding only a few articles you omitted. You will find in the boxes I send to-day,
ALL KINDS OF CANDY!
CANDY BY THE BOX!
CANDY BY THE POUND!
CANDY BY THE BARREL!
The Best, the Sweetest, the Freshest Candy Ever Offered in Wilmington.
Also, Raisins, Nuts, Currants, Pickles, Preserves, Jellies, Spices, Crackers to eat and Crackers to shoot. Twenty-five kinds of Sweet Crackers. WINE for cooking and table use. CHAMPAGNE, imported and clear. You will make more money selling cider and vinegar, than this splendid article from the French Vineyards.
CANNED GOODS AND CIGARS!
You may assure your customers that I have not spared time or money in these selections. Yours respectfully,
SANTA CLAUS.

Burned to Death.
Jake Smith, a colored man, was arrested at Rocky Point on Saturday night about 8 o'clock on the charge of drunkenness. At or about 3 o'clock the alarm of fire was sounded and it was ascertained that Smith had set his mattress on fire. He was burned to a "coal" and the guard house was entirely consumed. The unfortunate man leaves a wife and one child.

Very Neat.
Messrs. Jackson & Bell, of this city, have laid before us a very fine specimen of the typographical art, consisting of a complete calendar for the year with a table of distances, to Columbia on the South, Weldon on the North and Shelby on the West, which will prove very valuable to the business man. It was compiled and printed by Messrs Jackson & Bell, at their office in this city.

Short Lived.
The little waif which was left at Mr. J. G. Oldenbuttle's residence, corner of Tenth and Market streets, on Saturday morning, an account of which appeared in Saturday's REVIEW, this morning finished its short earthly career and expired between 2 and 3 o'clock at Mr. Oldenbuttle's house.

Coroner Hewlett, we learn, empaneled a jury who held an inquest over the little infant's remains and returned a verdict, we understand, of death from natural causes.

The celebrated Zep Vance and other Cooking and Heating Stoves at the lowest cash prices at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Xmas, 1879
Fifteen thousand pounds of candy: Just think of it. And yet this is what Messrs Boatwright & McKoy have laid in for sweetening up the palates of the juveniles (and their seniors) this Christmas. This is only one item. There are a thousand others. Everything that is good and nice, as well as sweet, will be found there in the stock which they have laid in for this Xmas. Already has the rush begun and those who would be in good season should call at once and select all they want to secure a proper enjoyment of the Holidays. Next week the rush there will be terrible.

To be Tried in Pender.
Six prisoners who have been lodged in New Hanover county jail for safe keeping, charged with the various crimes mentioned below, were this morning, under charge of Officer B. Reaux, taken on the train to Burgaw where they will be arraigned before Judge Eure for trial during this week's term of Pender Superior Court:
Sam. Faison, charged with rape; Nicholas Baker with murder; Oliver Hargett, with rape; Dock Mathis, with placing obstructions on railroad track; Toney Murphy, with larceny; and Thomas Cream, with arson. The prisoners are all colored men.

Unmailables.
Unmailable matter remains in the Postoffice in this city addressed as follows:
Peter R. Robbins, Port Harahan, S. C.; Isaac Smith, Sampson, N. C.; Miss Callie McDougal, Elkton, N. C.; Jos. Westbrook, Rocky Point, N. C.; Everet Reede, Chululisp; L. Spencer Gable, State Agent, New York.

Physicians' Wine.
New York physicians say that they have been using Spear's Fort Grape Wine and Wine Bitters in their practice for years, to the entire satisfaction of their patients and themselves, and take great pleasure in recommending them to the public as being all that is claimed for them, and, in fact, the most reliable they can find. For sale by Green & Flanner, Jas. C. Munds and P. L. Bridgers & Co.
