Mayor's Office,

City of Wilmington,

January 12th, 1880.

An Appeal from Ireland.

TO THE CITIZENS OF WILMINGTON

It is universally known that the distress in Ireland is now very great and daily increasing, from an extensive famine which has again been inflicted upon that unhappy country. As Mayor of the City of Wilmington

I have received telegrams from the Lord

Mayor of London and the Lord Mayor of Dublin, appealing to the generosity of Wilmington for aid to the sufferers. It is the cry of a Nation asking for bread.

In order that our citizens may take the matter into consideration, I do hereby invite all who feel an interest in and desire to aid

the suffering people, to assemble at the City

Court Room, at the City Hall, on the Evening of WEDNESDAY, the 14th inst., at 7 1/2 o'clock, in preliminary meeting, to take such steps as they may deem best to carry into effect their wishes.

S. H. FISHBLATE,

Jan 13-21 Mayor.

It rains alike on the just and on the unjust—on the just mainly because the unjust have borrowed their umbrellas.

Who is master, you or your habit? If the latter, isn't it time you were taking steps to regain your lost power and position?

A physiognomist says that long ears denote generosity, which is probably the reason why a mule squanders his hind legs.

Christmas Fire Dogs and Fire Irons Plating Machines, and every sort of Hardware at lowest sort of cash prices at JACOBI'S.

There a rush for reserve seats for Mr. Joseph Jefferson's rendition of Rip Van Winkle on Saturday night at Heinsberger's, this morning.

My boy, treat everyone with politeness; even those who are rude with you. For remember that you show courtesy to others not because they are gentlemen, but because you are one.

Brig Alice Lea, Foster, which sailed from this port on the 28th ult, for Philadelphia, went ashore on Watchnprigue, on the 8th inst, and will probably prove a total loss.

Sheriff Manning received this morning from the State Treasurer a receipt for $16,412.42, being the amount due the State for taxes from New Hanover county for the year 1879.

Some of the handsomest Florida oranges we have ever seen are offered for sale by Mr. Peter Barontine at the foot of Chestnutstreet. They were shipped to him from Buffalo Bluff by his son.

The expression of a boy's face at the end of a straw that lacks two inches of reaching the cider in a barrel, is supposed to be the model that the artist selected in the delineation of Adam leaving Paradise.

A young lady in this city hinted to her beau that she would like to have a parlor magazine. Whereupon he sent her a kerosene lamp, with the message that such a lamp was the best parlor magazine he knew of.

The gallows in the jail yard on which Allan Mathis expiated his crime will not be taken down until after the trial of John Grady and Maria Hall, both of whom are confined in the county jail charged with murder.

Mr. Josh E. Ogden, business manager, and Mr. Alex. McCarthy, traveling agent for Buffalo Bill, are in the city, getting things in readiness for the appearance of Hon. W. F. Cooy—Buffalo Bill—in this city to-morrow night week.

The Festival.

Those of our citizens who are fond of the good things of this world should bear in mind the festival to be given in the old First National Bank building to-morrow evening for the benefit of St. John's Church. Those in charge of the festival will do all in their power to add to the comfort and pleasure of their patrons.

Sympathy for Ireland.

We hope that a large audience may be in attendance at the City Court Room to-night, at the meeting which is called to take into consideration measures for the relief of suffering and starving Ireland. The call is one which will find a responsive throb in every breast, and we doubt not that Wilmington, ever generous and humane, will prove by her works, her sympathy for the sufferers.

We are pleased to learn that Col. Duncan K. MacRae, and, possibly others, will address the meeting upon the subject which calls them together.

Professional Walking Match.

Wilmington is to have a walking match to-morrow, and by professionals, too, Miss Jennit Foster, of Gilmore's Garden, and Will Cummings, Champion of the Augusta 200 mile match, will be the walkers. They are both here getting things in readiness so as to start the walk, 100 miles, to-morrow (Thursday) evening at 6 o'clock at the City Hall. The tracks will be made to-day. Their matinee on Saturday will be for the benefit of suffering Ireland. See advertisement in another column.

An Old Authority for the Custom.

In connection with the leap year privileges of ladies, the following has been resurrected by some one from an ancient volume entitled "Love, Courtship and Matrimoniae," London, 1606: "Albeit it has now become a part of common lawe in regarde to social relations of life that as often as every bissexile year dothe return, the ladies have the sole privilege during the time it continueth of making love unto the men, which they doe, either by words or looks, as to them it seemeth proper; and moreover, no man will be intitled to the benefit of clergy who doeth in any way treat her proposal with slight or contumely."

Uses of Old Newspapers.

One of our exchanges tells of the following uses to which old newspapers may be put after furnishing the family with its share of reading matter: Old newspapers are useful in many ways. Under carpets they save wear and keep the floor warmer by covering the cracks. Over the edge of each step, under stair carpets, they are almost indispensable, and serve a better purpose than clumsy carpet pads. A news paper folded across the chest and buttoned under the outer garments protects the lungs in a long, cold ride. Newspapers are equal to chamois skin for rubbing windows after they are washed and wiped. Zinc under stoves is better polished by rubbing with dry paper than by washing. Dampened paper is good to rub up and brighten the kitchen stove.

Knives and Forks, Pocket Knives &c for the Children at JACOBI'S.

Fire This Morning.

This morning at 2:30 o'clock the fire alarm for the Fourth Fire district was sounded, caused by the burning of the residence of Lewis LeGrand, on Second between Dawson and Wright streets. Lewis was aroused from his slumbers by the coughing of one of his children, and on getting up to ascertain the cause found the room in which the child was sleeping full of smoke and the flames bursting through the window. The means of egress by the doors was cut off by the flames and LeGrand and his family were compelled to escape through the windows at the Southern face of the building. Before the Fire Department could arrive the Mount Olive church (colored) was also in flames and too far consumed to be saved. There was an insurance of $500 on Le Grand's house in the Hartford Insurance Company, represented in this city by Messrs Atkinson & Manning. There was no insurance on the furniture in the house and it was entirely consumed, the only thing saved being a feather bed. We learn there was an insurance of $1,000 on the Church but cannot ascertain in what company. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been incendiary based on the following facts. Yesterday, Louis Le Grand, was arrested on a peace warrant sworn out by a woman, whom he asserts he had never seen until brought face to face with her in the Magistrate's office. There being no evidence against him he was discharged and the woman made to pay the costs. LeGrand thinks some of the party who caused his arrest set fire to his house.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States stationary or decreasing northeasterly winds, veering to southerly, followed by warmer clear weather, stationary or falling barometer.

The Skating Masquerade

At the City Hall last night drew together quite a large number of spectators as well as skaters, and the affair was enjoyed by all as a season of amusement and recreation. The Hall was brilliantly lighted and presented an attractive and gay appearance.

The Oratorical Contest,

For the Philomathean Society medals, between Messrs. J. W. Meares and B. G. Eadie, was witnessed last night by quite a number of ladies and gentlemen of this city. The theme selected by Mr. Meares, the first speaker, was "Eloquence," followed by Mr. Eadie on the "Triumphs of Peace." The contestants acquitted themselves with great credit, but the committee, composed of Messrs. Junius Davis, T. B. Kingsbury and Col. D. K. MacRae, after deliberation awarded the prize to Mr. Meares. Col. MacRae, in behalf of the Committee, awarded the prize in an excellent and appropriate speech, in which he regretted that a medal could not be given to each of the young gentlemen.

You can buy No 1. Heating and Cook Stoves at almost any price by going the Factory Agency, at JACOBI'S.

Leap Year Ball.

A large representation of the youth and beauty of Wilmington, gay gallants and fair maidens, assembled at Germania Hall last evening to indulge in tripping the light fantastic; the occasion being a Leap Year Ball to the young gentlemen of this city by some of the young ladies, and an evening of unalloyed pleasure was the result. The hall was beautifully decorated, and never did the fair ones look prettier or the young men happier. The young ladies entered fully into the spirit of the "Leap Year Ball," and acted out their parts with the grace and ease for which they are so justly noted. At 12 o'clock the gentle ones invited their male attendants to partake of a sumptuous repast prepared in the refreshment room. The gentlemen, hesitating not a moment, accepted the courteous invitation and showed their appreciation by partaking heartily of the tempting eatables spread before them, assuring their fair waitresses at the same time that they were engaged in a labor of love. Rather ambiguous that, but as it is Leap Year the ladies would not permit any infringement upon their prerogatives, and turned a deaf ear to all such sentimental suggestions.

The dancing was continued until the "wee sma hours" when the entertainment came to a close, and the gentlemen escorted the different ladies safely home, all agreeing that the Leap Year Ball of the young ladies of Wilmington was a grand success and the affair of the season.

The City Treasurer has been issuing warrants during the past two days for delinquent tax payers.

DIED.

JOHN ELMO—Infant child of John H. and Sallie Tinklin, Dec. 31st, 1879. Little Elmo was young, only two and a half months old, but for one of his age he suffered greatly, but what a sweet little cherub, he was God's, and He saw fit to take him to dwell with Him in Heaven, being too pure for earth. Another link Father and Mother, to bind you to Heaven, then let your every act be with a view to meeting little Johnnie in Heaven. "He can never come to you, but you can go to him." What a great consolation. Weep not then, for "it is well with the child." See to it, that it is well with you. E.

The public may be protected against imitations and frauds we specially caution all purchasers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS to see that the word CAPCINE on each plaster is spelled correctly. Do not allow some other plaster to be palmed off under similar sounding names, with the assurance that it is the same thing or as good. Bear in mind that the only object such vendors can have is the fact that they can buy imitations at half the price of the genuine, and they hope by this sale to obtain a small additional profit.
