Fell From a Second-Story Window.
 We learn from a gentleman just from Columbia, S. C., that a New York drummer, who had been imbibing too freely, was locked up in a room in the second-story of the hotel, and in attempting to make his escape, fell from the window to the pavement below. His injuries are supposed to be fatal, but up to the time of the train leaving Columbia life was not extinct.

Bondholder's Meeting.
 The holders of the First Mortgage Bonds and those holding registered certificates of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta railroad held a meeting in Baltimore yesterday for the purpose of re-organizing and election of officers. At a meeting held on the 5th of November last a commission was appointed, who, at the meeting yesterday, reported that, in pursuance of instructions, they had purchased the road in the interest of the first mortgage bondholders. Upon the adoption of the report, the meeting immediately went into an election of officers with the following result: President, R. R. Bridges; Directors, Messrs. Waiters, Shoemaker, Newcomer, Short, Brown Jenkins, Plant, Cameron and Pratt.
 The company has $960,000 capital stock to begin with, and will issue $1,000,000 in 6 per cent. interest bearing bonds payable semi-annually, on the 1st days of June and December, in gold in New York. The plan of re-organization gives to every holder of old bonds to the amount of $2,000 with accompanying coupons and certificates $1,000 in new bonds and six shares of stock.

Do Not Forget It.
 As we announced on Tuesday in the Review, Col. Duncan K. MacRae will deliver his lecture on Poetry, under the auspices of the Wilmington Library Association, at the Opera House to-morrow, (Friday) evening, the 23d inst. at 8 o'clock. We deem it hardly necessary to add anything more to what we have already said in this connection, for, surely, those who know the wonderful talents and acquirements of the distinguished lecturer, both as an orator and gentleman of scholarly attainments, will not suffer the opportunity of so rare an intellectual treat to pass without availing themselves of the pleasure of an evening of such enjoyment. Col. MacRae has been at considerable trouble and pains to prepare this lecture and, therefore we can confidently expect a fine display of historic, intermingled with the requisite amount of humor, sentiment and history to make it both pleasing and interesting as well as instructive and edifying.

The Lecture Last Evening.
 Rabbi Mendelsohn delivered his lecture on 'Woman: Her Station and Conservatism in the Talmud,' at Tucker Hall last evening, to a large audience. On the stage with the speaker were his Excellency Governor Jarvis, L. Rosenthal, Esq., Hon. D. G. Fowle, Maj. W. A. Moore, Mayor B. C. Manly, and M. Grausman, Esq. The speaker was introduced to the audience by Mayor Manly, and delivered an interesting lecture, handling his subject with ease and grace. He spoke of woman's need of higher culture and knowledge and the way by which to attain it. When thus elevated she will become man's equal in all respects. In many she is now his superior. He spoke of the beauty of simplicity in woman, and how greatly to be admired it is, illustrating by the story of the king to whom were sent two bouquets, exactly similar in appearance, but one of natural, the other of artificial, flowers. He placed both in the open air and discovered the genuine one by the bees which clustered around it. Thus will men gather around a natural woman, leaving those of artificial nature. The speaker pronounced woman the condurum of the nineteenth century. None can guess her, but none will give her up. The lecture was well received, and we hope to soon have the pleasure of again hearing Dr. Mendelsohn. —Raleigh Observer.

The Raleigh Observer says: Johnson Campbell, a colored convict, was yesterday discharged from the penitentiary. He is aged 47 years, is five feet five inches high, weighs 139 pounds, and was convicted of larceny in Brunswick county, at the spring term, 1878.

You can buy No. 1 Heating and Cook Stoves at almost any price by going the Factory Agency, at JACOBI'S.

The "Conjured" People.
 Ben James and family, the colored people who were so bally 'conjured,' an account of which was given in yesterday's REVIEW, were lectured pretty seriously as well as severely by the Chief of Police yesterday afternoon, and upon promise to go home and behave, themselves and also to go to work, the man and his wife were allowed to take their departure from the City Hall last evening with their little children for home.

City Court.
 Ben Galloway and Lewis Perry, two colored youths, were arraigned for fighting on the street yesterday afternoon. The first named having spent the night in the Guard House, was ordered released. Lewis Perry was fined $1 50.
 The case of Charles Owens, colored, arrested in Ca on Vanosen's house in Paddy's Hollow last night, at the instigation of the proprietor, upon the charge of disorderly conduct, was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor. This finished the docket and the Court adjourned.

I. O. B'nai B'rith.
 The annual convention of District No. 5, I. O. B'nai B'rith, was held at Savannah this week. In the election of officers, N Levin, of Charleston, S. C., was made President; J. I. Marks, of this city First Vice President; Max Cohen, of Washington, D. C., Second Vice President; I. B. Wolfe, of Baltimore, Secretary; Aaron Goodman, of Baltimore, Treasurer; and M. J. Solomon, of Savannah, Sergeant-at-Arms. A grand ball by the several lodges in Savannah was tendered the visiting delegates at the Masonic Hall last night.

Hymeneal.
 Mr. Henry S. Foy, formerly of this city and a native of Topsail Sound, arrived here to-day from Winston, his present home, accompanied by his bride, lately Miss Mollie F. White, of Winston, to whom he was married last Tuesday. They are accompanied by Messrs. J. W. Sutherland, J. T. Foy and R. K. Bryan, Jr., of this city and section, who visited Winston for the especial purpose of lending a helping hand in the auspicious affair.
 The happy couple go hence to Topsail, on a visit to the brother of the groom.

Seventeen Feet of Water on the Bar.
 We are reliably informed that a few days since a foreign barque, freighted with a full cargo of naval stores went to sea a half hour after the highest stage of the tide, through Bald Head channel, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river, drawing seventeen feet and two inches. This information, we will state for the benefit of those who are inclined to be skeptical, came through the Chamber of Commerce in this city. Now who dares to say Wilmington is not prepared to do a foreign trade or a coastwise trade in first-class ships? But candor compels us to say that our community now lacks only energy and capital. If our merchants and real estate owners will only show signs of possessing the first named requisite, the last named essential will soon follow.

Died of his Injuries.—The Murderer in Jail.
 Robert Everett was committed to jail in this city this morning, charged with murder while on route for the Brunswick county jail at Smithville. January 6th Robert became engaged in an altercation at a shanty in Brunswick county, near this city, with his brother, George Everett, when a fight ensued, in which George received a fatal wound. An account of the cutting was published in the REVIEW of the 7th inst. The wound was a very ugly one, the knife entering the opening which protruded through the opening in the abdomen. At the time, the wound was pronounced a very dangerous one and Dr. Lane, the attending physician, expressed the opinion that the wounded man would not recover from it. Until yesterday Robert Everett had succeeded in escaping the vigilance of the law. He was captured, however, and carried before Justice A. W. Reiger, of Brunswick, who ordered him committed to jail to await the result of the murderous assault. Special officer Henry Harrison, colored, who was en route for Smithville, hearing that George Everett had died last night of the injuries, left the prisoner in the hands of the Sheriff of this county to await the verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

Personal.
 We were highly pleased as well as gratified to-day to receive a call from Col. Prentiss Ingraham, who formerly resided a few months in Wilmington during the time that Uncle Sam detained him and a ship's crew of adventurous Southerners who had entered the Cuban service and shipped aboard of the sloop of war Cuba, which put into this port's me ten years ago short of coal, when the U. S. government seized and confiscated the vessel. Col. Ingraham has attained high reputation as an author since that time and is the father of the play that will be presented on the boards here to-night by the Buffalo Bill troupe entitled, 'Knight of the Plains.' Col. Ingraham is the son of the celebrated Episcopal clergyman, Rev. J. H. Ingraham, who wrote the 'Lionce of the Prince of David and the 'Pop of Fire' two religious novels that were widely read and favorably pronounced upon at the time of their production.
