The River.

Capt. Robeson, of the Ware, reports that it was snowing heavily in Fayetteville yesterday morning when he left there and that there was continuous rain all along down the river. He understands that the rains extended to the interior counties and the hope is now freely expressed that we are to have a good sized freshet at last.

A Visit to the Home.

In company with the Rector of St. James' Church, and by his invitation, we this morning, together with a gentleman of the School Committee in this city, visited St. James' Home, located at the corner of Eighth and Orange streets.

This institution, as we have previously stated in the REVIEW, is the offspring of the church or parish of the same name in this city and is maintained, under the management of the Rev. Dr. Watson, almost exclusively by St. James' parish.

In printing an abstract of a sermon delivered by the Rector on Thanksgiving day we took occasion then to refer to the excellent work that has been done and the self-sacrificing labor performed by those who are attached to the institution, but it may not be amiss to repeat here some of the good work which is being accomplished, day by day, by these faithful workers in the Vineyard of their Master. There are at present three Sisters of the Sisterhood who are engaged at the Home in the noble undertaking of imparting religious, as well as secular instruction to children, whom they gather into the fold, from all classes, some of whom, but for the good teaching and patient instruction which they receive there, together with the influence exerted over them by those holy women, would in all probability grow up to become outcasts in society. The children are well grounded in the church catechism and receive the rudiments of a good education. There are in all some sixty scholars at present, but owing to the sickness which is quite prevalent among the children now, not more than half were in attendance this morning. The devotional exercises are conducted every Tuesday morning, at half-past 9 o'clock, by the Rev. Dr. Watson, the children all answering audibly and correctly in the responses. These services over Dr. Watson then examines them on the catechism, or certain parts of it, and their ready and correct answers furnish substantial evidence of the thoroughness of their instruction in this particular. Examinations in arithmetic and other studies were made this morning, which proved quite satisfactory also. This institution has been in existence now over ten years, during which time the immense amount of good accomplished by the work planned and projected from the Home by those in charge, is simply incalculable, and the good work still goes on. The work of the institution is now more thoroughly organized and systematized than possibly ever before. The Sisters have their regular duties mapped out for the day and the week as well. They visit the poor and the sick and the needy and they carry the blessed teachings of the Divine Word into the humblest cot; there are none too poor nor too wretched for those ministering angels, as they are sometimes called by the sick and the suffering, to visit it. Our purpose is not to write in any spirit of fulsome adulation here (and we do not think we have done so) but to give as near as possible a correct and truthful statement of what is and has been accomplished by the faithful workers in this very worthy institution. We would like to see it enlarged, so that more laborers could be employed to sow the good seed.

This can only be done by the liberality of the people of the Church. The Home was founded by the generosity of one donor alone; surely then others might aid in the good work so well begun, by giving of their substance a little, to further the noble objects in view. Dr. A. J. DeRosset, the Senior Warden of the Vestry of St. James' Church, is the generous donor referred to above. This gentleman, in the year 1867 we think conveyed to the vestry of St. James' church the right and title in the entire block of ground, together with the fine large house now standing upon it, which is called and used as St. James' Home, a munificent gift beyond a doubt and one which is well worthy of emulation by others in this community who are no less interested in the grand objects to be attained by this noble institution than the gentleman named above. We understand, however, that there are others who have been liberal to the Home, but our purpose now is to create an interest in this work so that it may meet with a general and liberal response from all who, like the energetic and worthy rector of St. James', have their heart and soul in the cause in which this laudable undertaking was established.

Opera House—The Performance Last Night

The inclement weather kept many of our citizens from attending the performance of Louise Pomeroy and her troupe in the Shakespearean Comedy 'As You Like It,' at the Opera House last night. Despite the heavy rain, a good audience assembled and were well repaid for their hardship in venturing out. Miss Pomeroy, in her character of Rosalind, fully sustained the reputation she has won, and displayed her histrionic powers with good effect. She was well received and frequently called before the curtain.

Mr. Leake's Jacques, was particularly fine and he was received as he always is, with hearty applause. His deep rich voice and perfection in his line of business has made him a reputation not to be despised. Toussaint, as played by Mr. Davidson, differs from other renditions of the character that we have seen, and to our mind his conception of the part is more in accordance with the author's intention of that character, Mr. Charles as Sylvius was amusing, and his appearance always provoked laughter. We were not particularly struck with Mr. Roberts in the character of Orlando. He has a slight tendency to 'stage rant' and thus destroys the effect that his acting would otherwise have. The female characters were well rendered, and Miss Pomeroy's support is, we take it, above the average. To-night she will appear as Pauline in the Lady of Lyons with Mr. Leake as Claude Melnotte. In the character of Pauline she will have a better opportunity to show her histrionic powers her delight and remorse.

County Commissioners.

The following proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners were transacted after our close yesterday. They are in addition to the report as published by us then:

A request from the Board of Supervisors of Public Roads for Harnett Township, for a list of the public roads in that township, was granted, the Clerk being instructed to furnish the same.

It was ordered by the Board that the amount of $31.11, on the old Township Books of the Treasurer, be transferred to the Special Fund.

The Treasurer presented his monthly reports, that of the General Fund showing a balance on hand of $20,658.01, that of the School Fund $11,264.27, and that of the Special Fund a balance due the Treasurer of $32.24, which were received, examined, found correct, and ordered spread upon the minutes.

The Register presented his report of fees collected from marriage licenses for the month of January, and exhibited a receipt from the Treasurer for $12.35, which was received and ordered on file.

The following division of the School fund was made at $1.20 per capita:

Wilmington—District No. 1—Whites, 880; amount, $1,056; colored, 1,184; amount, $2,384.40. District No. 2—Whites, 690; amount, $1,449; colored, 799; amount, $1,677.90.

Federal Point—District No. 3—Whites, 85; amount, $178.50. Colored, 82; amount, $172.20.

Masonboro—District No. 4—Whites, 97; amount, $203.70. Colored, 82; amount, $172.20.

Harnett—District No. 5—Whites, 151; amount, $317.10. Colored, 287; amount, $601.70.

Cape Fear—District No. 6—Whites, 50; amount, $105. Colored, 400; amount $840.

Total Whites, 1,953; colored, 2,784. Total amount, $9,947.70.

On motion the Board adjourned to meet again on the first Monday in March, at 2 30 P. M.

Sociable.

The ladies of St. Thomas' Catholic Church will give a sociable at Germania Hall to-morrow evening. Good things in abundance will be prepared for the inner man and those who feel inclined can indulge in the light fantastic. See advertisement in another column.

For the Irish.

The Cornet Concert Club will give a concert and skating tournament at the City Hall on Monday night next, the proceeds to be devoted to the relief of the suffering Irish. Professor Ouzing's skates have been rented for the occasion and a good time generally is expected.

One can buy No 1. Heating and Cook Stoves at almost any price by going the Factory Agency, at JACOBI'S.

Schooner Ashore.

We learn from Sergeant Watson, of the Signal Service, that a three-masted schooner, name unknown, went ashore on Bald Head beach during the storm of last night. The steam tug Tecumseh went to her assistance this morning, but could accomplish nothing, as the schooner was too high up on the beach and seemed to be deserted.

Personal.

We spoke yesterday of the fact that Mr. Cullipp had been relieved of the management of the office of the Western Union Telegraph Office, and we have since learned that he is to be succeeded by Mr. W. H. Sterling, of Norfolk, who comes here well recommended as a clever gentleman and a capable and obliging official. We trust that his stay among us may be a pleasant one.

Col. McRae's Lecture.

It will not be forgotten that Hon. D. K. McRae will lecture at the Opera House to-morrow evening, for the benefit of the Wilmington Library Association. The subject of the lecture will be Poetry and those who have heard Col. McRae on other occasions know what they may expect to-morrow evening. We look for a large house on the occasion.

A Rush for Seats.

The sale of seats at the Opera House for the Operetta of Red Riding Hood was begun at Heinsberger's at 4 o'clock this afternoon. When the sale commenced the store was crowded with ladies and gentlemen anxious to secure seats, and even the sidewalk in front of the door was thronged with people equally anxious and intent upon the same purpose.

Father Ryan's Poems.

We are indebted to the publishers, Messrs Jno. L. Raper & Co., of Mobile, Ala. through Mr. Heinsberger, of this city, for a copy of Father Ryan's Poems. By solicitation the publishers obtained from the Reverend author his manuscripts for publication, and they have spared no expense in the endeavor to present them in an elegant and attractive volume. The book contains more than one hundred poems, occupying two hundred and sixty-three printed pages. In the collection is embraced all of the leading descriptive, patriotic and devotional poems, which have established the author's wide reputation, besides very many others never heretofore published. It is the first time a collection of these poems has ever been published in book form and the publishers deserve credit for the handsome and attractive volume they here presented. The book is for sale by Mr. Heinsberger, who is the agent here for the publishers.

Answer This.

Did you ever know any person to be ill, without inaction of the Stomach, Liver or kidneys, or did you ever know one who was well when either was obstructed or inactive; and did you ever know or hear of any case of the kind that Hop Bitters would not cure?—Ask your neighbor this same question.
