Physicians' Wine.

New York physicians say that they have been using Speer's Port Grape Wine and Wine Bitters in their practice for years, to the entire satisfaction of their patients and themselves, and take great pleasure in recommending them to the public as being all that is claimed for them, and, in fact, the most reliable they can find. For sale by Green & Flannery, Jas. C. Munds and P. L. Bridgers & Co.

The Carnival and Concert.

We trust that there will be a large attendance to-night at the City Hall, on the occasion of the Skating Carnival and Concert to be given there by the Cornet Concert Club. We understand that the costumes prepared for the occasion are rich and varied, and that there will be lots of fun for the spectators as well as for those who may take an active part in the Carnival. There will also be some delightful music for the occasion, furnished by the Club, which is in itself an attraction of no mean order. Let all who want to have a genuine unadulterated good time be sure to be on hand.

Knights of Pythias.

The Grand Lodge of K. of P., which convenes at Fayetteville to-morrow, the 10th inst., will have as attending delegates from this city, Messrs. John L. Dudley, John W. Zimmerman, W. B. Orr and L. L. Boone, who will represent Stonewall Lodge No. 1, and Messrs. H. C. Prempert, W. H. Gerken, John Haar, Jr., and J. D. Stejles, representing Germania Lodge No. 4. The business of the convention will be to elect officers for the Grand Lodge for the ensuing year, to choose a delegate to attend the convention of the Supreme Lodge of the World, which will be held at St. Louis, Mo., in September next, and to transact the other business necessary to the well-being of the order. The delegation from this city left this afternoon on the steamer North State.

Genius and Talent.

The following correspondence, as well as the advertisement which is published elsewhere, will fully explain to our readers that Hon. D. K. McKrae has again consented to lecture here. To-morrow evening, the 10th inst., has been designated as the time, and the Opera House as the place. Col. McKrae has selected "Genius and Talent" and those who have ever heard it, or ever heard of it, will know that a genuine treat may be expected. The box sheet for the lecture is now open at Heinsberger's. The following is the correspondence alluded to:

Col. D. K. MacRae:

DEAR SIR—Appreciating in common with this whole community, the service you have rendered to the cause of literary culture in our midst, by the delightful lectures which you have delivered, and desirous of seeing you receive some adequate and substantial benefit therefrom, the undersigned request you to repeat one of the lectures, pledging themselves to use every effort to secure for the occasion such an audience as will accomplish the desired object.

WILMINGTON N. C., Feb. 8th 1880.

Gentlemen:—Your note, requesting me to repeat one of my lectures heretofore delivered before the citizens of this place, has just been handed to me.

The terms of your note, as they convey to me an assurance that my efforts to awaken an interest in literary culture are appreciated, and the very kind terms in which this assurance is couched afford me peculiar gratification, and I recognize in the names appended to this note a commendation of which I am entitled to be proud.

There are gentlemen, not a few in this community, gifted beyond me to bear on this good work—acut as the rough stone precedes the exquisite statue, and the pioneer the subsequent refined civilization, so in the near future I hope to see my efforts yield to others of superior excellence.

I will repeat the lecture on "Genius and Talent" on Tuesday next, if that will be agreeable to you.

Very truly,
D. K. McRAE.

Messrs. Alex. Sprunt, D. G. Worth, R. E. Calder and others.

Montreal Herald.

R. L. MOSELEY, of Montreal, Canada, certified Sept. 27, 1879, that he had suffered terribly from dyspepsia, and was completely cured by taking Warner's Safe Bitters. He says: "My appetite is good, and I now suffer no inconvenience from eating hearty meals." These Bitters are also a specific for all skin diseases.

We understand that several ladies and gentlemen in this city have in preparation Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works, to be produced before very long for the benefit of a worthy object.
