 The kind wife who has a smile for her husband when he comes into the house will not drive him to a saloon to get one.
 Jones says it is not the color of her hair that troubles him in choosing a help-mate. The color of her money is what interests him vastly more.

A sailor is not a sailor when he is a board; a sailor is not a sailor when he is a shore; but he must be either ashore or aboard; therefore, a sailor is not a sailor at all.
 It has come to be generally believed that one can get more for his money out of the telephone than anything else which runs by lightning.
 Schooner R. S. Graham, Scull, hence, arrived at New York on the 7th inst. Feb 2nd had a heavy gale from E. S. E. to S. and S. W. in which her boat was stove.

Captain Worth, of the steamer Governor Worth, reports everything as remarkably quiet on the Cape Fear, with the water slowly falling off, but with a plenty for all practical purposes as yet.
 We notice quite a number of strangers from "up country" upon our streets, the most of whom are here waiting for the arrival of their rafts of wood, timber and naval stores, which are now on their way down the Cape Fear and its tributaries.

There are unmailable postal matter remaining in the postoffice for Webb Willis, Rock Point, N. C.; B. Brown, Rock Point, N. C.; Abram Hicks, Goldsboro N. C.
New Store.
 Mr. Julius Hahn has rented the store on Market street recently occupied by Mr. D. Greenwall as a clothing establishment. Mr. Hahn will go North next week and select an extensive stock of dry goods and will open the store in about three weeks.

A Successful Chase.
 The Fox Hunter's Cub was out in the early morn-to-day and the loud shrill blasts from the huntsman's horn was heard among the pines beyond the river in Brunswick county until 12 o'clock, when the chase after Reynard, ended in the death of two fine foxes, Mr. J. M. Forshee being first in at the death of one and Mr. E. S. Latimer first in at the death of the other.
Mrs Partington says
 Don't take any of the quack nostrums, as they are regimental to the human cistern; but put your trust in Hop Bitters, which will cure general dilapidation, constive habits and all comic diseases. They saved Isaac from a severe extract of tripod fever. They are the ne plus ultra of medicines.

Physicians' Wine.
 New York physicians say that they have been using Speer's Port Grape Wine and Wine Bitters in their practice for years, to the entire satisfaction of their patients and themselves, and take great pleasure in recommending them to the public as being all that is claimed for them, and in fact the most reliable they can find. For sale by Green & Flanner, Jas. O. Munds and P. L. Bridgers & Co.

Montreal Heard From.
 R. L. Mosely, of Montreal, Canada, certified Sept. 27, 1879, that he had suffered terribly from dyspepsia, and was completely cured by taking Warner's Safe Bitters. He says: "My appetite is good, and I now suffer no inconvenience from eating hearty meals." These Bitters are also a specific for all shu diseases.

Shipment of Shad.
 The first shipment of shad this season from this city, for Northern markets, was made this morning. Mr. John Carroll shipped a barrel full, and says he shipped four days earlier this year than last. The shipment of shad from this market has assumed large proportions. Last year he shipped ten thousand pairs, and is making arrangements to enlarge his business during the coming season.

Last Night.
 The Carnival and Concert last night at the City Hall, given by the Cornet Concert Club for the benefit of the suffering poor in Ireland, was not as well patronized as it should have been, all things considered. There were many skaters on the floor and the evening was enlivened throughout by some of the best music we have ever heard the Cornet Club dis-course. It was not a masquerade, as we stated yesterday it would be. We were misled by the fact of its being called a Carnival, a name which is always associated in our mind (and in that of many others) with masquers. Still it was a very enjoyable affair and was kept up until a late hours.

Personal.
 Rev. Dr. Patterson, of St. John's Church, returned to the city last night and will serve to-morrow at the Ash-Wednesday services. He did not get beyond Baltimore on his recent visit North, but remained there as his physician advised him not to travel any farther North at this season of the year.
 Major James D. Cumming, of the firm of Hinson & Cumming, New York, but formerly of this place, and a gallant "Old Reb.," of the Army of Northern Virginia, during the war, is here on a visit to his many friends in this city. Major C. looks well and hearty, but his beard is a little frost-d since we saw him last. Otherwise, our old friend looks the same as of yore, when he commanded a few 'dogs of war,' that belched forth shrapnel, grape shot and canister and the like around Petersburg.

Criminal Court.
 This tribunal has been engaged to-day on the regular docket. The first case called was:
 State vs. Maria Hall, charge murder. Motion for removal by defendant upon affidavit filed, overruled. Trial set for Monday, 16th inst, at 10 A. M. Special venire of 100 ordered.
 State vs. Geo. G. McGhee, charge failure to work public road; verdict not guilty.
 State vs. Geo. G. McGhee, charge failure to work public road; verdict not guilty.
 State vs. Jno. Grady, arraigned for murder. Trial set for Wednesday, 18th inst, at 10 A. M. Special venire of 100 ordered.
 State vs. Geo. G. McGhee, charge failure to work public road; verdict not guilty.

The Northern Mail.
 The train due here this morning on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad at 9:13 o'clock, did not arrive until about 4 o'clock this afternoon. The delay was caused by the burning of the bridge over the Meherrin river, 23 miles North of Weldon and on the Petersburg R. R. The W & W. train waited at Weldon in hopes of making a connection but found out, after long waiting, that this could not be accomplished. The passengers and mails due here this morning are therefore at this writing on the other side of the Meherrin River, it having been found that a transfer could not be made. We presume, however, that the proper connection will be made to-morrow.
 On this detained Petersburg train are a number of the stockholders of the W. C. & A. R. R., and hence the meeting which was to have been held here this forenoon did not take place.

The Lecture To-Night.
 We trust that Col. McRae will have a good house to-night. A man who is always ready to sacrifice himself for the benefit of others should have this mark of appreciation at least. The lecture has already been delivered in Wilmington, months ago, and it is said to be one of the distinguished lecturers very best efforts, it will doubtless draw a large house.

The bookstores of this city have taken the preliminary steps to suppress the circulation of vulgar, alias comic, valentines by refusing to sell them. The valentines offered for sale this year are the prettiest and most refined of Prang and McLaughlin Bros. make. We are glad to see that the booksellers have taken the matter in hand and we are sure that they have the hearty endorsement of the good people of this city.
An Old Citizen.
 Just 43 years ago to-day Mr. S. W. Dunham, one of our oldest and most esteemed citizens, stepped ashore at Wilmington, at the wharf just in front of the Custom House, with the intent of casting in his fortunes with the people of the then infant town. And in Wilmington he has remained ever since.
 At that time, Mr. Dunham tells us, there was very little visible of the Wilmington of to-day—very little besides the river and Eagle's Island and the broad and beautifully laid out streets. It was a sleepy place, then and gave but little indications of its future activity and enterprise. Fourth street was by enactment the Eastern extremity of the town, but Third street was actually its boundary and there were but comparatively few houses beyond that street, and those were scattered and looked upon as being 'in the woods.' Where the elegant residence of Mr. Edward Kidder now stands, just two blocks removed, in a direct line from the Market House, Mr. Dunham says that he has often picked chinquepins.

Life or Death—Guilty or not Guilty?
 The 'Good Samaritans, to which order John Grady, who is to be tried at this term of the Criminal Court for the murder of the colored man Taylor, which occurred some three months ago, have interested themselves to the extent of employing counsel for the accused, so we learn, and the defendant will be represented by Col. Duncan K. McRae and John L. Holmes, Esq. The trial is set for Wednesday next, the 18th inst, at 10 a. m.

Maria Hall, the colored woman charged with the murder of a white sailor on the night before Christmas, will be defended by Marsden Bellamy Esq., and Captain W. S. Norment. The counsel in this case tried hard to get the case removed to another county for trial, but the motion was overruled by the court and the case set for trial on Monday next, the 16th inst, at 10 a. m. The Court has ordered the Sheriff to summon a special venire of one hundred, from which a jury of twelve good and lawful citizens may be selected to hear the evidence in the case, and a true verdict render as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant.
 A special venire of one hundred has been also ordered in the case of John Grady, to be tried as stated above on Wednesday next, the 18th inst.
