noon, in regular annual session.
The "Galley Slave" is to be performed in Charlotte on the 18th inst. Mr. Ford has made inquiries for dates in this city, but there is nothing definite as yet.
Gilbert Fisher, who was arrested a few days ago on the charge of felony and who subsequently made his escape, was outlawed by Justices Gardner and Mills on yesterday.
Coyness is a very attractive and lovely quality. We all admire it but what Messrs. Best and Jarvis and Buford think now of "coy maidens" we must beg the Raleigh Observer to find out.

Plated Forks and Spoons; largest variety

Christmas Fire Dogs and Fire Irons,

We are told that we were in error yesterday when we stated that the Good Samaritan, to which John Grady belongs, have retained the services of counsel for his defence in the trial which is now progressing in which he is charged with murder. We are informed by one of the members, that no Lodge has acted in the matter in any way in relation to the employment of counsel. Our information was furnished by a member of the Bar.

Not to Be Sold.
Information was received here this morning which puts a new face on the matter of the proposed sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad: The Board of Directors of the Road met yesterday, and after considering Mr. Best's offer, (his second-best), refused to entertain his proposition for the purchase of the Road and refused also to request the Governor to call the Legislature together for the purpose of considering the proposed sale of the Road. This is so much better news than we had been led to expect that we can't help but say, "Hully for the coy maidens."
AYERS' CHERRY PECTORAL—the world's great remedy for Colds, Coughs, Consumption, and all affections of the Lungs and Throat.

Unmailable.
The following unmailable postal matter remains in the postoffice in this city: Willis Webb, Rocky Point, N. C.; P.
Brown, Rocky Point, N. C.; Abram Hicks, Goldsboro, N. C.; William S.
Campbell, 29 Carondelet Street, N. O.
Personal.
Mr. Harry J. Brooks, who was a clerk in the Drug Store Mr. J. K. McIlhenny about two years ago, but who left to go to Memphis during the prevalence of the yellow fever, has returned to this city and is again employed by Mr. McIlhenny.
A Pretty Fire.
There was a narrow escape from a disastrous fire a night or two ago at the residence of a gentleman on Chestnut street.
Several children were sleeping in a large room, when one of them awoke, and calling to an elder sister, said: "See, Sissy, what a pretty fire." Sissy awoke, and at once saw it. A lamp which had been left burning had overturned, and the oil was on fire, and there were the materials ready at hand for a big disaster, when help was called and the fire was extinguished.

The Fate of the North Carolina.
Br. barque North Carolina, Buchan, from Baltimore for Liverpool, before reported ashore near Bermuda, was pumped out with the aid of two steam pumps, and the water gotten under control, but in towing her from among the reefs, the anchor, which had made a hole in her bottom and was secured from the inside, became entangled in the rocks, making the hole larger, and when the vessel got in deeper water she went down by the head and lay (Feb. 5) with her hatches under water. The idea of getting her afloat has been abandoned.
For Europe.
We have received from Mr. A. D.
Wessell, agent in this city for the North German Lloyd Steamship Company, a pamphlet containing information of much value to those contemplating a visit to Europe. He will furnish the pamphlet free of charge to those who desire to inform themselves concerning a voyage across the ocean and will gladly impart all the knowledge upon the subject in his power to interested parties. The company he represents are the owners of eight first-class steamers, excellently officered, well manned, and superb in all their appointments.
City Court.
Peter Pickett, colored, a well-known turbulent character, was arraigned before Alderman Planner, Mayor pro tem, this morning upon the charge of disorderly conduct. The testimony of respectable witnesses convicted the defendant of using very profane and abusive language to a citizen without the least provocation. The Mayor pro tem, after hearing the evidence told the defendant to go and sin no more, and Peter Pickett walked out of court a no sadder and no wiser man, we opine, than before he committed the offence.
Henry MacRae and Lewis Hicks, charged with an affray in the market house yesterday, in which a knife was drawn and Hicks received a wound on the fingers of the right hand, were ordered to pay a fine of $5 each or go to the city prison for ten days. This finished the docket and the court adjourned.
Save your money by buying your Building Supplies from Altffer & Price.

Criminal Court.
Before this tribunal today, in the case of C. Z. Costin, who was found guilty of an assault and battery upon the person of J.
R. Bolton, His Honor imposed a fine of $50, but the same was subsequently remitted at the solicitation of the prosecutor.
State vs. Mayor S. H. Fishbiate et al., charged with failure to repair the streets; a motion to quash the indictment, made by the defendants, was granted. An appeal was taken by the State.
State vs. The Wilmington Sea Side Railroad, charged with a nuisance, a motion was made to quash by the defendant which was denied. Jurymen withdrawn—mistrial. Appeal taken by defendant.
The court continued in session until 2.30 p. m. at which time a recess of one hour was taken.
Mrs Partington Says Don't take any of the quick rostrums, as they are regimental to the human system; but put your trust in Hop Bitters, which will cure general debilitation, coveise habits and all chronic diseases. They saved Isaac from a severe extract of tripod fever.
They are the ne plus ultra of medicine.

S. D. WALLACE, Cashier.
We publish on the fourth page of this issue a full report, which we extract from the Charlotte Observer, relative to the unfortunate suicide in that city on Monday last.
The Raleigh Observer's "coy maid-ens" were equal to the emergency. They just met this emergency and refused to come out of their coyness. Hence Mr.
Best had best pocket his feelings and go wool elsewhere.
The Cape Fear.
The river, thus far, has fallen about five feet since the recent rise. There is yet, however, good boating water, and the steamboatmen suffer no delays on account of insufficiency of water.
The small boy who lives on the north side of the railroad and made a big fuss the other morning because he did not have pancakes for breakfast, after being taken across his mother's lap and vigorously caressed by the fat of her hand, while his eyes were cast sorrowfully upon the floor, was very well content to hide his spunk-ache in a chair, and eat what was placed before him without further murmuring.
No Northern Mail.
We are informed, at the postoffice, that no mail will arrive from the North for delivery until to-morrow morning.
The mail which was due base this morning was delayed by the burning of the bridge 2 1/2 miles beyond Weldon, and the W. & W. train could not wait for it. It is to be hoped that this inconvenience and delay may be remedied in a day or two, so that the mails may come regularly and promptly on time.
Physicians' Wine.
New York physicians say that they have used using Speer's Port Grape Wine and Wine Bitters in their practice for years, to the entire satisfaction of their patients and themselves, and take great pleasure in recommending them to the public as being all that is claimed for them, and in fact the most reliable they can find. For sale by Green & Plummer, Jas. C. Munds and
P. L. Bridgers & Co.
Col. MacRae's Lecture.
As usual the audience which gathered to hear Col. MacRae's lecture on Genius and Fate, delivered for the third time in this city, during the past twelve months, at the Opera House last night, were pleased as only those can be pleased who listen to the recital of the gifted lecturer of this marvelous production of a fertile and prolific brain. To appreciate the eloquence of the lecturer and the beauty of this celebrated lecture one must both see and hear Col. MacRae in the delivery. Those who have not heard him are the losers, while those who have sat and listened to the charm of his voice, without wearying for the space of an hour or more have something always to look back upon in the lecture field, with delight and satisfaction.
The Detained Passengers and the Stockholders.
The passengers from the North who were detained by the burning of the bridge on the Petersburg Railroad, an account of which appeared in yesterday's REVIEW, arrived in this city this morning at 9 o'clock. Among the arrivals were a number of stockholders of the W.
C. & A. R. R. who were to have held a meeting in this city according to published notice, but owing to the detention suffered from the cause mentioned above the meeting was not held until this morning, after which the whole party, including President Bridgers and Mr. J. W.
Thompson, Treasurer of W. & W. & W.
C. & A. Railroads, left for Florence South Carolina, where they will probably remain until this evening's train at which time it is thought they will return to this city.
Do not be troubled because you have no great virtues. God made a million species of grass where He made one tree. The earth is fringed and carpeted, not with forests, but grass. Only have enough of little virtues and common affections and you need not mourn because you are neither a saint nor a hero.

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but:
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written on one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.
