There is much speculation as to the verdict of the jury in the case of Maria Hall on trial to-day, on the charge of murder.

The catch of sturgeon, this season, promises to be very large. Extensive arrangements are being made for the shipment of these fish north.

Quite a number of rafts have arrived since Saturday. As they lie abreast of each other in the stream, they extend far into the middle of the river.

Iron of the street car track has been taken up and in some places the crotties and stringers. But in many places the last named nuisances are still in the street.

Many of the young shade trees which were set out on Market street have died.
Can't the city replace them? Keep up the street improvements by all means.

Mr. James B. Orrell, who was struck by a falling signboard a few days ago, is, we are happy to say, getting along much better than could have been reasonably hoped for.

Steamboatmen report the water of the Cape Fear as falling off quite rapidly. and if the decline continues a few days longer navigation will be difficult between here and Fayetteville.

We call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Chess, Carley & Co. to be found in another column. Their business is an important one to the city, and they offer unusual advantages in the articles in which they are dealers.

People with thin heads of hair should use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Re-newer to make the hair grow cut thick.

Good Evidence.
When such men as the Rev. Dr.
Harvey, Father Fitz Gerald, Prof. Green, Dr. Bartine, Col. John K. McChesney, E.
W. Nef, and a host of others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject.

Commenced Opera ion.

The new saw mill in the southwestern portion of the city owned by Mr. Wilson has commenced operation. Steam was up on Saturday and sawdust was made to fly. The mill began work this morning in good earnest and is working very satisfactorily.

Butts' Panorama.

Mr. A. L. Butts' Panorama, illustrating the Book of Revelations, will be exhibited at the Opera House in this city on Friday evening. The paintings, 22 in number, 16x20 feet, are said to be fine, and we trust that Mr. Butts will receive that encouragement his efforts deserve.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church

At a meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's Lutheran Church held yesterday, the following gentlemen were elected as church officers for the term of 2 year:
E. Sculken, Elder.
H. C. Prempert, Deacon.
J. D. H. Klander, Deacon.
J. W. Strauss, Trustee.
M. J. Dinglehoof, Trustee.
J. F. Ruff, Trustee.

It was decided that the services on the first Sunday of each month should be conducted in German and on the remaining Sundays of the month the services should be in English. The services during the weekly festival days will be divided between the two languages.

"We'll all Take a Ride"

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the sale of carriages advertised in this issue by Messrs.
Crosly & Morris. These vehicles are all of excellent pattern and finished workmanship from good materials, and the variety is such that any one desiring to purchase may easily make a selection from among them all. The carriages are brought here under the charge of Mr. W.
H. Huffman, the agent for the house from whom they were ordered. For five consecutive years this gentleman has visited this city in the interest of the Cincinnati carriage industry, and has always found a cordial welcome for himself and a ready sale for the property he has brought with him.

CITY COURT.

For the first time since this session of the Criminal Court, Mayor Fishbate held a levee at the City Hall this morning.

Lewis Larkins, colored, was the first name on docket. Charge—disorderly conduct. The testimony of a respectable witness convicted the defendant of using very profane and indecent language on the corner of Fourth and Harnett streets on Saturday night; for which offence the Mayor pronounced sentence of $5 fine, or ten days in the City Prison. His Honor remarking at the same time that this habit of being so boisterous, and cursing and swearing on the streets, must be broken up.

W. H. Blackburn, colored, was the next and last case on docket, charge—larceny. Duncan Holden and Lewis Hicks, both colored men, were the witnesses. From the evidence given in, it appears that Holden on Saturday night while purchasing a piece of beef in the market offered a $5 bill in payment of the same, and the seller of the meat being unable to change the bill, Blackburn, who was standing near, offered to take the money over to Mr. Dawson's hardware store and get it changed. To this Holden readily acceded and handed him the five dollars. But the defendant it appears forgot to return, and when at last he was overhauled by the second named witness, Lewis Hicks, some three hours afterwards, had only four cents of the five dollars remaining. It should be mentioned, however, that the defendant acknowledged to have treated himself to a new pair of shoes for which he gave three of the five dollars. The remaining $1 96 went where the wood bine twine.

The Mayor bound Blackburn over in a justified bond to the amount of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court to answer to the charge of larceny. The witnesses Holden and Hicks were recognized to appear at that time as witnesses in behalf of the State. There being no further business the Court adjourned.

It is estimated that 90,000 deadheads attend the New York theatres every month.

The oyster is said to be growing fatter during the past two days of coolish weather.

Wild ducks are becoming more shy, and the man who kills a half dozen a day, is doing well.

the trial of Maria Hall.

'Shall I hereafter darn your stockings?' is said to be the fashionable language for a young lady to use when making a leap year proposal.

This being leap-year, any wife is privileged to go down town after 10 o'clock and hunt up her husband and read him a lecture on larks and other birds.

Returning Home.
For the past few days our streets, especially along the line of the wharver, have been enlivened by the presence of a great number of strangers from up the river, who had taken advantage of the recent rise in the river, to bring their rafts of timber and naval stores to market.
From 75 to 100 of these strangers took passage for home to-day on the steamer North State.

Guilt or Not Guilty.
The Criminal Court has been in session to-day and the tune has been consumed up to this hour, 4 P. M., in drawing a jury for the trial of Maria Hall, charged with murder. At the time we wrote only seven jurors have been drawn, and the special venire of one hundred was pretty well exhausted. The jury as it now stands is one white man and six colored men.

The Agent of the Syndicate.
Mr. W. J. Best, the agent of the syndicate for the purchase of the Western North Carolina Railroad, had a conference with some of our wealthiest and most prominent citizens on Saturday last, for the purpose of inducing them, as we understand, to offer no opposition to the sale of that road. We do not know the arguments used by Mr. Best in furtherance of the scheme, but we are told that the gentlemen in question gave the agent of the capitalists a respectful hearing, but no decided answer.

Mr. Best left here at 8:40, on the Northern bound train, last Saturday evening for New York City.
