Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, rising barometer, colder northerly winds, clear or fair weather, possibly preceded by light rains on the southern coast.
A great many boys and girls fall desperately in love with each other, and rave over disappointed hopes before they are old enough to tell the difference between the heart ache and colic. Very few such cases prove fatal.
Round Trip Tickets.
The managers of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad are selling round trip tickets to and from all stations on its line. These tickets are sold on Saturday and are good until Monday. Could not the officials of the Railroads centering in this city adopt a similar plan? Travel would thereby be increased and the merchants of this city would be materially benefited. It looks to us as though it would be mutually beneficial all around.

The Musical Herald
We have received a 'sample' copy of a musical magazine bearing the above title. It is published monthly by the Musical Herald Co., Music Hall, Boston, Mass., at a subscription price of $1 50 per annum and is devoted to topics connected with that science. The present number contains much that is interesting and instructive in musical matters, besides eight pages of good music, vocal and instrumental. The selections in this number are unusually fine.
All About Yellow Tobacco.
W. A. Davis, Editor of the Oxford (N. C.) Torchlight, has just published a handsome little book containing the experience of fifty of the most successful yellow tobacco farmers in Granville county, N. C. If you want to learn all about tobacco from the plant-bed to the sales-room floor, you should enclose 25 cents in postage stamps to W. A. Davis, Publisher, Oxford, N. C., and receive his book, post-paid. The tobacco grown in his county (Granville) has a greater reputation than that of any other county in the United States.
City Hall Items.
George Hill, colored, was arrested and lodged in the Guard House last night upon the charge of stealing cotton from Messrs. Kerchner & Calder Bros.
Deleware Moore, colored, was arrested upon the charge of fighting, and locked up.
Sydney Moore, colored, for committing a nuisance in the street last night, was lodged free of charge in the City Prison.
Two white men whose names are unknown to us, were arrested upon the street at 1 o'clock this morning, before the dawn of day, for fisticuffing on the streets.
The Mayor pro tem and other city officials being in attendance at the Criminal Court, there was no session of the City Court to day.
People with thin heads of hair should use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer to make the hair grow out thick.
Lippincott's Magazine.
Lippincott's Magazine for March opens with a description of the Lakes of Minnesota, with their healthful and picturesque summer resorts, which are already much frequented by Northern tourists, and which, judging from this article and its attractive illustrations, deserves to be better known. There are two other illustrated papers in the number,—the 1Xth Chapter of Dr. Oswald's 'Sunmerland Sketches,' which treats of Yucatan, and the conclusion of Edward King's account of 'Old and New Rouen.' 'The American Suez' is the title of an article which will be read with special interest, on account of the subject, and the able summary which it gives of the arguments for and against each of the proposed routes for a canal to connect the waters of the Gulf of Mexico with those of the Pacific Ocean. The writer shows a personal familiarity with the country, and the maps inserted in the text will do much to assist the reader in forming an opinion on this vexed question. Another timely paper is devoted to the 'Ute Matter,' and evidently emanates from Colorado, where the feeling on the subject is naturally strongest, and the decision of Congress and the Government is awaited with impatience. 'At the Foot of the Sierras' is not a mere descriptive article but contains some capital sketches of life and manners in the most beautiful region of the West.
The well-written and suggestive description of 'Decorative Art and its Dogmas' by M G Van Rensselaer, is included in this number. There is a fresh instalment of 'Adam and Eve,' by the author of 'Dorothy Fox,' a very pathetic and realistic story, entitled 'A Mother's Vision,' by Sarah Winter Kellogg; and a bright little Italian sketch, by the author of 'Signor Mondini's Niece.' 'Playing a Part,' by J Brander Matthews, is a witty and neatly-constructed comedy, well adapted for amateur acting. The poetry is by Paul Hayne and Howard Glyndon, and a large space, as usual, is devoted to the 'Monthly Gossip' and the 'Literature of the Day.'

A Cross Baby.
Nothing is so conducive to a man's retaining a bachelor as stopping for one night at the house of a married friend and being kept awake for five or six hours by the crying of a cross baby. All crosses and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young men, remember this.—Ed.

Magistrate's Row is barren of news.
Cotton futures have declined eighteen to twenty points since yesterday. Stand firm under.
Captain Green, of the North State, reports the rafts are nearly all in that started on this last freshet, and that there is still good boating water in the river with the water falling slightly.
Col. Duncan K. McKee will make his speech before the jury in behalf of his client, John Grady, now on trial for murder, about 6 o'clock this afternoon, and we expect standing room in the Court House will be scarce indeed.

Personal.
Mr. Thos Atkinson, Jr., son of Col. J. W. Atkinson, and a grandson of the venerable Bishop Atkinson, is on a visit to this city. Mr. Atkinson is accompanied by his bride, and is stopping at the residence of his father, on Third street.

Trial Postponed.
The case of Samuel Stacy, colored, charged with burglary, which was set for trial to-day in the Criminal Court, was postponed until to-morrow, on account of the trial of John Grady, which is consuming more time than was anticipated. The special venire of fifty good and lawful citizens which was summoned to be in attendance to-day was excused until to-morrow morning.

The Trial of John Grady.
The examination of the witnesses in the case of John Grady, now on trial for murder, was commenced this morning. Col. Duncan K. McKee and Mr. John L. Holmes are the counsel for the defence, and Mr. Solicitor Moore is conducting the prosecution for the State. A considerable interest is manifested and the court room is crowded by persons who have either been drawn there by curiosity or who have been summoned as witnesses.
At the hour of closing our report Col. McKee for the defence and Mr. Solicitor Moore for the prosecution, were discussing a point of law as to the admissibility of written evidence taken before the coroner's jury. The examination of witnesses will come to a close about five o'clock it is thought, when the argument of counsel will begin.

Even So.
We publish the following from an exchange for the benefit of some of our recalcitrating readers: "If your local paper happens to tread on your toes a little in performing its mission, don't get your back up and abuse its editor, but stop and take a good breath and think for a season, and see if you can't remember some of the favors and kindnesses it has shown you in the past. Then remember that it may not be long before you want favors again."

The Verdict—How the Jury stood.
The verdict of the jury in the case of Maria Hall, convicted of manslaughter, was a surprise to most persons who heard the evidence in the case. The murder of which she was convicted is thought to have been premeditated and deliberate. Since the jury was empanelled it has been ascertained that two of the number were opposed to capital punishment and one, perhaps two, of the other jurors were friends of the woman and had been very intimate with her. When the jury left the box and retired to their room, a vote was taken which resulted in seven for murder and five for manslaughter. Thus stood matters until yesterday morning, when one of the number, who at first favored a verdict of murder, changed his vote to manslaughter, making the jury stand six to six. Maria Hall's friends and those who were opposed to capital punishment stood firm, and a compromise was made and a verdict of manslaughter was returned for one of the most deliberate murders ever committed in this city.
