WE TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY OF thanking the general public for their very liberal patronage in the above branch of our business. We can with truthfulness assert that our stock is more than double the size of any other of this kind north of Baltimore. It is a very easy matter to call in and verify the above statement. We would also add that we have of late secured several new departments to the above, which we retail at higher prices, consisting of many useful articles in Housekeeping, &c., such as we have a demand for, and in future it will be our endeavor to keep adding any and everything we can buy useful and below value. Our intention is to make this THE Store of the South for

There was only one interment in Pine Forest Cemetery (colored)—that of a child.

Even the cannibals have a tender regard for old age. They will not eat a missionary who is over fifty years old.

Teetotalers object to the theatre because the horse gets full, and the audience gets intoxicated with delight.

Never blow down a lamp chimney to extinguish the flame, for it is quite liable to return the compliment and blow you up.

A philosopher says: 'You require in marriage precisely the same quality that you would in eating sausage—absolute confidence.'

People with thin heads of hair should use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer to make the hair grow cut thick.

The Register of Deeds has issued six marriage licenses during the week, three of which were for white and three for colored couples.

Mr. I. Furmansk, who is well known in this city, is now located in Monroe, Va. We are glad to know he is doing well in his new home.

A man has no more right to say an unkind thing than to act one; no more right to say a rude thing to another than to knock him down.

Steamboatmen report that the waters of the Cape Fear are slowly falling off, but that there is yet an abundance of water for boating purposes.

Not Enough Sleep.
As a people, we do not get enough sleep; we do not get enough rest; we will not take time for such things; hence our nervousness, our instability, our hasty temper, and premature givings out of the stamina of life. Half of us are old at three score, the very time a man ought to be in his mental, moral and physical prime. Half of our wives, especially in the farming districts, die long before their time, because they do not get rest and sleep proportioned to their labor.

Personal.

Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, for some years editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, the organ of the M. E. Church, South, in this State, gave us the pleasure of a brief call this forenoon. Mr. Bobbitt is on a business visit to this city in connection with Trinity College, of which institution he is now the agent, and is trying to raise sufficient money to pay off the College debt.

Apocalyptic Vision of St. John on the Isle of Patmos.

Mr. A. L. Butts's paintings, representing the Vision of St. John on the Isle of Patmos, were exhibited at the Opera House last night and to an unusually large audience for a panoramic exhibition. As is known to our readers, the artist who has placed these scenes upon canvass, is a North Carolinian, and as "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country," etc., we must say, that if the paintings above mentioned are not appreciated by "our people" then certainly the quotation above is literally true as to North Carolinians, as far as our artists are concerned.

The scenes illustrating the vision of St. John, are shown in twenty-one paintings, containing over six thousand feet of canvass, and is the labor of years' of patience, skill and the expenditure of much money, and present upon their face the undeniable evidence of the work of a born artist.

The views must be seen to be appreciated. It is therefore needless for us to particularize. But the last five scenes are simply magnificent. "The Beautiful Woman," "Woman of Babylon," "The Sparkling New Jerusalem," "One of the Pearly Gates" and especially the "New Jerusalem," are certainly scenes that tend to awaken in the hearts of the most unconcerned, a desire, or at least a hope, to inherit at last so blessed and beautiful a place.

As an evidence of the appreciation of the audience last night, the three last scenes, notwithstanding their Biblical nature, were greeted with hearty applause, and so enraptured were a portion of the audience at the last scene—"The New Jerusalem"—that some of them lingered after the close of the entertainment to gaze upon its enchanting beauty.

We take pleasure in recommending these paintings to the patronage of the people not only of North Carolina, but wherever they may be exhibited, not merely as a matter of State pride, but upon their own intrinsic merit.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for March.

The opening article in this number is an exceedingly interesting one on the life and genius of the late Frank Leslie, by Richard B. Kimball. There are ten admirable illustrations, with a portrait of the deceased. There are descriptive articles of 'Mantua,' of the 'Blackeller,' or Vaults of the Dom Kirche, under the Church of St. Peter, Bremen; a very vivid description of the explorations of the Austrians in Kaiser Franz Josef's Land, and the escape from it, etc. Henry Barton Baker has an excellent article on 'The Old Tavern Life in England,' describing the haunts of old-time celebrities. 'Dairy Farming in America' is elaborately treated by A. S. Fuller, and Robert James Mann, M. D. F. R. L. S., has a profusely illustrated article entitled, 'Why the Wind Blows,' which is replete with highly interesting information. The department of fiction is more than usually excellent. The serial 'No Gully,' by Eta W. Pierce, is continued and there are short stories by the author of 'That Lass o' Lowrie's,' John Gilbert, Walter Elgar McCann, Eliezer Kirk, Sue Chesnutwood, and other celebrated writers. There are poems of great merit, several of them beautifully illustrated. There is a very abundant miscellany embracing a large variety of subjects, and affording a vast amount of instruction and entertainment. No better and cheaper magazine is published, or one more deserving of the extensive patronage bestowed upon it. There are 128 quarto pages, over 700 embellishments, with a beautiful colored frontispiece, 'Nature's Own Mirror.' Single copies are only 25 cents each; the annual subscription $3, sent postpaid. Address Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 and 57, Park Place, New York.

Good Evidence.

When such men as the Rev. Dr. Harvey, Father Fitz Gerald, Prof. Green, Dr. Bartine, Col. John K. McChesney, E. W. Nell, and a host of others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject.

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY REVIEW.)

The Extra Session to be Called Anyhow.

RALEIGH, February 21st, 1880.
EDITOR DAILY REVIEW:
The Governor has decided to call an extra session of the Legislature to convene in Raleigh on Monday, the 15th day of March next.

Those who are disposed to run the machine and fight it out on that line to suit themselves, can now have an opportunity to make a display in all their paraphernalia and war paint. Next January would be too long to wait for a legislative session, and twelve months ago before the State had gone to the expense of building the railroad across and through the mountains, when the Legislature was in session, was too soon for Mr. Best, and his kind generous friends who are going to plank $30,000 down for the oil for the machine which they propose running. Of course there will be no lobbying on this question of the sale of the railroad and therefore Mr. Best and his millionaires will not have to spend any money in that way.

Not Complied With

The request of President MacRae of Oakdale Cemetery will not be complied with in every respect. We understand that the Mayor has signified his willingness to depute any watchman whom the Cemetery Company sees fit to put in Oakdale, but will not send one of the police force to guard the flowers and lots in the Cemetery.

City Court.

Alderman Flanner, the Mayor pro tem, held a levee this morning.

A young man was arrested last night for striking a dizzy blonde of this city, and this morning he had a hearing before the Mayor pro tem. The sentence of the Court was $50 fine, or thirty days in the City Prison. The prisoner went below.

Big Men.

A rather portly commercial tourist of this city attended a dinner party in Greene county last week, and was somewhat surprised to ascertain that the aggregate weight of five of the guests was 1,572 pounds. It was no doubt a "Berry" large weight for five men, but it is nevertheless true, for our portly commercial tourist remarked it was hardware on chairs, and he was not speaking ironically, either.

Early Peas.

From a truck farm in this vicinity has been placed upon our table a pea bloom; if nothing untoward occurs, within fifteen days from to-day green peas will be shipped from Newbern. We ask are the truck farms around Norfolk, Goldsboro, or Wilmington as far advanced?—Newbern Democrat.

We insert the above from the Democrat of the 19th inst, so that our truck farmers in this vicinity, if they are able, may see it and go one better on the pea bloom question.

Rail Road Velocipede.

The Wilmington & Weldon Rail Road have at their yard in this city a rail road velocipede which will be used by the Section Masters in inspecting the road. It is a three wheel concern. Two wheels are under the velocipede and runs on one rail, while the third wheel is connected with the main body of the velocipede by a pole and runs on the other rail. It is said that the velocipede can be run at the rate of fifteen miles an hour for ordinary use, but can be propelled at a much faster rate for a short distance.

For suffering Ireland.

As will be seen by the correspondence below, this city has responded heartily and in earnest to the appeals for help from starving Ireland, by contributing $927 for the relief of that brave and suffering people:

MESSES HARPER & GOADBY, AGENTS,
50 Wall Street New York.
WILMINGTON, N. C. February 20.
GENTLEMEN:—We band you herewith check on the National Park Bank in your favor for $927, (say nine hundred and twenty-seven dollars (which sum is pleased to convert in 'o' sterling draft (in the best terms) at sight, payable to the order of the Honorable E. Dwyer Gray, M. P. Chairman Mansion House Committee, Dublin, Ireland, and forward the same to his address as the contribution of the citizens of the City of Wilmington North Carolina, to purchase food for the suffering Irish people.
Yours Respectfully,
F. W. KENCHEER, Chairman,
ALEX. SPRUNT, Treasurer.

The use of whiskey for rattlesnake bites, in Texas, has increased so enormously during the past year that the overworked snakes have resolved to leave the State unless the Board of Immigration reinforces them strongly. They work on double time, and yet can't do half the biting that is demanded by the consumers. One snake that does business at Port Lavaca, is six weeks behind his orders, and three of the clerks are sick.

The Duplin Canal.

The Stockholders of the Duplin Canal Company are to meet at Magnolia, March 10th, for the purpose of perfecting their organization. An advertisement to that effect will appear in the REVIEW of Monday next. It is to be hoped that a full attendance of all those interested in this scheme of internal improvement may give encouragement to the enterprise.

Criminal Court.

The time was consumed to day in disposing of trivial cases. Several cases were submitted and not entered against others. Eli Miller alias Eli McKoy, charged with larceny, was found guilty. Aloozo Fulcher, charged with larceny, was acquitted, but was found guilty of forcible trespass.

A not provs was entered in the case of Gilbert Fisher, Jr.

The case of Larry Williams, charged with assault and battery with a deadly weapon, is now on trial.

Maria Hall and John Grady, convicted of manslaughter, have not yet been sentenced.
