

NEVER GIVE UP.

Oh, never give up and never get blue,
Keep a brave soul, you'll weather it thro',
Never say fail,
Three clad in mail,
Is the hero who's honest and true.

When the weather is dull, and the rain
Boils like never get blue,
Light will shine through,
And the sun will be in glory again.

Though thy losses like tempest clouds low,
Be here—shrink not from the shower,
Never despair,
Arching the air
Is a bow, spanning cottage and tower.

What though riches should take wings and Fly,
And fly not with the lonely should be,
Never give up,
Mixed in the cup
Of tears are the sweets of adversity.

If the haughty pass by with a sneer,
Think not that you can eclipse the sphere,
Never say die,
Let him pass by,
A turn of the wheel may bring help near.

Strike out and swim through the rolling
Sea,
To shore, where hands are outstretched to Thee,
Never go down,
He will not drown
Whose head is raised and whose hands are Free.

Oh, never give up, and never get blue,
Keep a brave soul, you'll weather it thro',
Never say fail,
Three clad in mail,
Is the hero who's honest and true.

Wedded Love—A True Incident.

"Make the bed easy, Mr B," said old Uncle Abe to the undertaker, who was preparing the coffin for his aged wife. "Make the bed soft and easy, for her old bones are tender and sore, and a hard bed will hurt them." He forgot for a moment—that old, gray-haired man—that she was dead; that the old bones had done aching forever. Sixty-four years had she wedded by his side, a true and loving wife. Sixty-four years! Just think of it in this age of divorce! Sixty-four years had they dwelt under the same sorrows of life; together mourned over the coffin of their first born; together rejoiced in the prosperity of their sons and daughters, and now she has left him alone. No wonder he forgot. Her loving hands had so long cared for him, for he had been the feebler of the two. "Until death do us part," said the marriage service that had united them so many years ago. Death had parted them, but the love still survived. Tenderly had he cared for her all these years, and now tenderly did he watch the making of the last bed of this still loved wife. He had barely breathed the storm of life with her by his side, but now that she was gone he could not live, and in a few days they laid him by her side.

THE GREAT POLITICAL CAMPAIGN of 1880 has begun, and it is your duty to watch it and to understand it. To that end, what you need is a good Democratic Newspaper. What everybody says is apt to be true, and everybody says that is the best ever printed in North Carolina. It is Democratic in principle. It gives the news in the most condensed and well-ordered style, because it is a newspaper. It is printed on good white paper from large, clear type, because its subscribers pay for a good paper and are entitled to one. It will furnish a complete history of the exciting times and of the federal and State campaigns now just begun.

After paying for your home paper, instead of sending to New York, or Boston, or Philadelphia for a weekly, send for which not only supplies the news and good reading sometimes to be had from abroad, but to whose ample space the application of a thorough knowledge of how to use it adds to news, and politics, and literature, a complete history of all that is done in North Carolina. The information printed in it weekly for months past, and to be had in no other paper, ought to be in the possession of every citizen.

The price is only $2 a year, $1 for six months. Sample copies sent on application, but no name is entered on its mail books without payment, and subscribers are saved the unpleasantness of ordering the paper stopped, as it is discontinued at the end of time paid for. Address

The World for 1880.

Democrats everywhere should inform themselves carefully of the action of their party throughout the country and of the movements of their Republican opponents. A failure to do this in 1876 contributed greatly to the loss by the Democracy of the fruits of the victory fairly won at the polls.

The year 1880 promises to be one of the most interesting and important years of the crowded and eventful century. It will witness a Presidential election which may result in reestablishing the Government of this country on the principles of its constitutional founders, or in permanently changing the relation of the States to the Federal power. No intelligent man can regard such an election with indifference. The World, as the only daily English newspaper published in the city of New York which upholds the doctrine of constitutional Democracy, will steadily reassert the Democratic party in this great canvass. It will do this in no spirit of mere partisanship, but temperately and truthfully. As a newspaper the World, being the organ of no man, no clique and no interest, will present the fullest and the fairest picture of the present day's history in the city, the State, the country and the world. It will aim hereafter, as heretofore, at accuracy first of all things in all that it publishes. No man, however humble, shall ever be permitted to complain that he has been unjustly dealt with in the columns of The World. No interest, however powerful, shall ever be permitted to boast that it can silence the fair criticisms of The World.

During the past year The World has seen its daily circulation trebled and its weekly circulation pushed far beyond that of any other weekly newspaper in the country. This great increase has been won, as The World believes, by truthfulness, enterprise, ceaseless activity in collecting news and unflinching loyalty to itself and to its readers in dealing with the questions of the day. It is our hope and it will be our endeavor that The World's record for 1880 may be written in the approbation and the support of many thousands more of new readers in all parts of this Indivisible Union of Indestructible States.

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for diseases, caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effective treatment. Ayer's Pills are especially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel, or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.
