WE TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY of thanking the general public for their very liberal patronage in the above branch of our business and desire to state that at no time since our first opening have we ever carried such an assortment as at present. Having anticipated the recent great advance in such goods, we are now fully prepared to offer the Largest and Cheapest assortment ever shown in this section at any time. We can with truthfulness assert that our stock is more than double the size of any other of this kind south of Baltimore. It is a very easy matter to call in and verify the above statement.

We would also add that we have of late added several new departments to the above, which we retail at higher prices, consisting of many useful articles in Housekeeping, &c., such as we have a demand for, and in future
it will be our endeavor to keep adding any and everything we can buy useful and below value. Our intention is to make this THE Store of the South for Bargains of all Kinds.

The following is a very imperfect list but our space will admit of no more.

Talking about big Early Rose potatoes, we saw three at Capt. C. D. Myers' this morning which together pull down the scales at 6 1/2 pounds. They will please go up head.

A little girl went into a drug store the other day and said to the proprietor, in a half whisper, "If a little girl hasn't got no money, how much chewing gum do you give her for nothing?"

Low-necked dresses are now out of style. Those who have the old style dresses and would economise, can take up a few yards of the trail and lengthen out the upper section of their suits.

The new market is to be formally opened in a few days. The choice stalls will be offered for rent by Messrs. Cronly & Morris at public auction, on the premises, on Thursday next, March 4th, at 12 o'clock, the lease to run until next October 1st. The occasion will be one of interest.

The schooner Julia Elizabeth, Capt. Ingraham, arrived here to-day from the West Indies with a cargo of oranges, bananas, pineapples, and cocoa nuts on board, which will be offered for sale on Monday next on board the schooner by Messrs. Cronly & Morris.

Dr. W. W. Harriss has formally resumed the practice of medicine. As one who stands deservedly high in the ranks of his profession and who filled so acceptably trustworthy positions during the war, we trust that he will meet with that success which he so eminently deserves.

We understand that Prof. McAllister, a famous magician, has leased the Opera House in this city for the week running from March 15th to 22d. He opens an engagement for a week in Charleston on Monday next. From there he goes to Augusta and from Augusta will come to Wilmington.

Dandruff eradicated, the scalp made clean, and gray hair restored to its original youthful beauty and vigor by the use of HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RESTORER.

The Canal Meeting.

We saw a young gentleman last night, who is engaged in business at Magnolia, Duplin county, and he stated that the projected canal question has aroused quite an enthusiasm in that county, and that the meeting for organization, on the 10th of March next, will be largely attended by the people of that section.

Correction.

We stated yesterday, or meant to state, that Mr. Walker Meares was collecting back city taxes—the printer made us say Mr. Walter Meares. But we were slightly in error. Mr. F. H. Darby, the city attorney, is collecting the back city taxes, and Mr. Meares is only collecting the city poll tax. There now, we think that's all right, unless our everlasting evil genius in the composing room causes us to make another bull.

Marine Disaster.

The British schooner Julia Elizabeth, Captain Ingraham, arrived in port from Nassau, this morning, and reports having passed the barque James E. Ward, Captain Atkinson, which cleared from this port on the 14th of this month for Pensacola, Fla., sunk on the Martinilla reef of the Little Bermuda Island. The Captain and crew are thought to be safe.

Dot Liddle Game.

A few days since a family living on the North side of the railroad ordered a load of wood of a drayman who had been in the habit of hauling wood to quite a number of families in the same neighborhood. The wood was hauled, but when it arrived it was noticed to look suspiciously small, although no complaint was made at the time. A few hours afterward one of the neighbors, who had also been in the habit of purchasing wood from the same drayman, called at the house in question and stated that when a short distance from the house, the man threw off quite a number of sticks from the load, and on his return, after delivering the remainder of the load, put them on his dray again and carried them off. The act was noticed by a number of persons, and all those living in the vicinity were notified, so that the drayman has no more custom among those people, and will be compelled to seek "fresh fields and pastures green" to carry on his business. The drayman was a white man.

City Court.

John Taylor and Ferdinand Ryan, two sailors who pull ropes on the same ship together, were arrested last night on Fourth street, charged with an affray. It appeared in the evidence this morning that one was drunk and that the other was trying to take care of his messmate, who had a full cargo of "string lightning" aboard. The Mayor thereupon discharged the first named and held Ryan for the costs.

The next case on docket was that of Josh Galley, colored, versus Harriet Moore, colored. The charges preferred by Galley against the defendant were numerous, but the one on which the party was arraigned in court was disorderly conduct. Galley being called to the stand to give in his evidence, made quite a harangue before the court which he told all the vices and none of the virtues of the defendant. The witness took a great many liberties for a witness, in his diatribe against the prisoner, but nothing of that kind compared with the liberty he took with the king's English; this was openly slaughtered and vilely cut to pieces in the presence of His Honor the Mayor. Arson were among the numerous charges brought against the defendant by the plaintiff in this case, alleging that the woman tried at one time to set his house on fire. But the last grievance complained of was the fact that defendant went to plaintiff's house after midnight last night in search of her husband. The plaintiff and his sister live in the same building, and it was proven by a competent witness that Harriet Moore's husband had frequently visited the house of the Galleys, and the green-eyed monster, it leaked out, was the cause of the defendant's trespass last night upon their premises. The witness Galley concluded his philippic against the defendant by urging the Mayor to send the said Harriet Moore, the prisoner at the bar, to the Penitentiary for life, otherwise, pleaded this eloquent kinsman of the Zulus, "somebody will have to hang her or me one." The Mayor remanded defendant to the cell, pending the further consideration of the case, but afterwards released her on bail for her appearance at the City Court whenever wanted. This done, the Court adjourned.

For Charity's Sake.

The charity quilt donated to the Ladies Benevolent Society of this city, some week or two ago, will be sold at auction at 5 o'clock on Monday evening next, at J. P. Heinsberger's book-store. The proceeds, as is well known, are to be devoted to charitable purposes, consequently it is hoped that the bidding will be quite spirited and the price at which the article may sell fully commensurate with the noble object in view.

The New Wires.

During a recent visit to New York we had the pleasure of an interview with Mr. Bates, President of the American Union Telegraph Company, to whom we carried a letter of introduction. Our readers here will be pleased to learn that Mr. Bates promises to plant his wires in the streets of Wilmington within a short period. He thought it likely that they would be here in sixty days and was confident that it would be inside of three months. This is an item of good news to our people and we can only trust that they may not be disappointed this time.

The Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire was sounded at about 8.15 o'clock last evening, which was caused by the ignition of a quantity of letters and papers stored in a wooden box in the second story of the house occupied by Mr. John H. Allen, on Fifth, between Market and Princess streets. The Fire Department responded promptly, but its services were not brought into requisition as one of the members of the Hook and Ladder Company and one also of the Steadman Bucket Company made their way to the room where the fire was burning and threw the box with its contents out of the window. It is not known with certainty how the fire originated, but the fact that the room had been used during the day for the purpose of ironing, may afford a clue to the cause.

Windy and Dusty.

To-day is the windiest, dustiest, most disagreeable day we have experienced thus far this month. North Water street has been in a cloud of blinding dust all day, and to add to the discomfort we should imagine all the phosphate factories in the country, with all the guano deposits of every ocean, were piled up in a promiscuous heap and were being mercilessly stirred up by some senseless and scoundrel vagabond of the earth for our special torture. If we go upon the street we are knocked down by the guano, and our eyes and mouth are plugged up by the dust; the nose only is exempt and that seems to be reserved especially for the guano. If we remain in-doors, and the door is opened for a moment, here they come trooping in without a word of apology, and dust and guano take possession, and hold undisputed sway.

Physicians' Wine.

New York physicians say that they have been using Spear's Port Grape Wine and Wine Bitters in their practice for years, to the entire satisfaction of their patients and themselves, and take great pleasure in recommending them to the public as being all that is claimed for them, and, in fact the most reliable they can find. For sale by Green & Flanner, Jas. C. Munds and P. L. Bridges & Co.

From the Quaker City.

E. J. Campbell, of Philadelphia, under date of Oct 4 1879, certified to the wonderful efficacy of Warner's Safe Pills and Safe Tonic in removing a liver disease accompanied by chronic constipation and yellow skin.

Fees of Doctors.

The fee of doctors in an item that very many persons are interested in just at present. We believe the schedule for visits is $3 00 which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of a daily visit, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.—Ed.
