

VLADETSKY ON THE SCAFFOLD.

Calmly Awaiting his Death, and Bowing to the Throng that Saw Him Hanged.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—The name of the Nihilist who attempted to shoot Gen Melikoff on Wednesday last was not Miodetsky, but Vladetsky. He was brought to-day from the fortress to the place of execution, strapped in a sitting posture on a black vehicle, with his back to the horse. A placard bearing the words 'State criminal' was attached to his breast. A company of Cossacks was the escort. The scaffold was surrounded by infantry drawn up in a hollow square. On the way to the scaffold and after reaching it, Vladetsky was calm, smiling occasionally. After his sentence had been read to him, he turned and bowed on all sides to the people. Just before being delivered to the hangman, he said a few words to the priest attending him and kissed the cross. The execution took place in the presence of an immense concourse. The body remained hanging twenty minutes.

The police arrested seven men in the crowd having the appearance of students. They were taken to the fortress under a strong escort.

LONDON, March 5.—When he was first arrested Vladetsky behaved in such a manner as to suggest mental derangement. A surgeon was sent for to ascertain whether he was under the influence of poison, but the surgeon pronounced him well and sane. When he appeared before Gen Zuroff, Prefect of Police, for a preliminary examination, he had fully recovered his self-possession, and made the declaration, referred to yesterday, that 'Gen Melikoff would be killed by some of his comrades, and that although his own attempt had failed a second and, if necessary, a third would be made. He said that he was a native of Minsk, 30 years old, and became a convert from Judaism, because it was impossible for a Jew to live in St. Petersburg. Gen Melikoff on Wednesday evening, ordered a court martial to assemble on Thursday morning.

The trial of the prisoner was opened at 11 o'clock in the morning. The prisoner was insolent in his language. He said he had nothing more to add to what he had already told Gen Zuroff; that he did not want to be troubled any more and wanted the matter finished. The depositions were then read, and the prisoner withdrawn while the Court deliberated. He was brought back at 1 o'clock, when judgment was pronounced against him.—The judgment on the prisoner sentenced him to be hanged, and his execution was appointed for 10 o'clock this (Friday) morning on the Simeonofsky plain, near the Tea-skoie-sole Railway terminus.

The correspondent of the Daily News at Paris says: 'Putting together a good deal of information I have come to the conclusion that Hartmann, the Nihilist arrested here, will not be surrendered to the Russian authorities. Prince Orloff, the Russian Ambassador here, has assured the French Government that its decision in the matter, whatever it may be, will not affect the relations between France and Russia.'

LONDON, March 6.—The Standard's Berlin dispatch says that the Russian Government has engaged the services of M. Hyrovicz, late Chief of the Personal Police Staff of Napoleon III. The Czar has sent an autograph reply to the Emperor William's congratulatory letter.

A Vienna dispatch to the Standard says that Vera Sasulitch is still at Geneva engaged on Krapotkine's revolutionary journal.

LONDON, March 6.—The Daily News correspondent at Petersburg telegraphs: 'It is said that the seven men taken into custody by the police at the execution of Vladetsky were arrested for saying that though the present attempt had failed, another would succeed. The prisoners were poorly clad and dirty looking.'

The News' Berlin despatch reports that the Czar, in a despatch to the Emperor William, states that the Emperor's letter of congratulation, 'has produced the most intense satisfaction in St. Petersburg.'

A Paris despatch to the Daily News says Hartmann's counsel has received the brief against him, and will shortly publish a memorial in answer thereto.

Paris, March 5.—The 'irreconcilable' journals publish what purports to be a manifesto of the Russian Revolutionary Executive Committee, justifying the plot against the life of the Czar which resulted in the explosion in the Winter palace at St. Petersburg. The manifesto expresses regret at the death of the unfortunate soldiers in the palace but declares 'that such catastrophes are inevitable so long as the army is the bulwark of imperial autocracy. It says that the revolution is forced on Russia by the Government's repression of intellectual developments, and that the struggle must continue until the Czar abdicates or grants a Constitution; and it declares: 'We will triumph at all costs.'

NEWBURG, N. Y., Oct. 20, 1879. H. H. WARNER & Co., ROCHESTER, N. Y.—GENTLEMEN—A lady of over seventy years of age, in failing health for over a year, has been using Warner's Safe Bitters on my recommendation. She feels very grateful for the benefit she has derived therefrom, and says that until she used it her stomach could bear no vegetable food for over three years. I believe it to be a certain specific for dyspepsia.

Mafine News. Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, biliousness and kidney complaints. Those who use them say they cannot be too highly recommended. Those afflicted should give them a fair trial, and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities.—Portland Me.

CAROLINA.

Oxford Free Lance: Mr. John Burton, a resident of P. erson, is 98 years of age. Last year he cultivated himself 3,000 tobacco hills, carried his crop to Durham last week and sold at a satisfactory price. He is now engaged in grubbing up a lot for his crop this year. He has never failed to vote a single time during the past 76 years and has always voted the Democratic ticket.

Raleigh Dispatch: Would it not be well for the Board of Agriculture, in notifying Dr. Goessman, of Amherst College, of his election as State Chemist, to also notify him that his office is likely to be abolished upon the Department, immediately upon the assembling of the Legislature of 1881?

Monroe Express: About 200 more bales of cotton have been sold in this market this season to date than were sold last season to same date. Nearly every branch of business in Monroe is carried on by young men; in fact, there are but one or two persons past middle age, engaged in any kind of business here.

Raleigh News: The Republicans of the Fifth Congressional District met in Greensboro Thursday and elected Thomas B. Keogh and J. W. Hardin, delegates to the Chicago Convention. Jos. A. Hoskins and J. L. Keith are the alternates. Resolutions were passed declaring Gen Grant the unanimous choice of the Republicans for President, and instructing the delegates to vote for him on all ballots.

Newbernian: We learn from Capt. Abby, that during last week, several parties from Cape Lookout, and Shackleford banks, chased two large whales up to Hatteras Inlet. They fired four bombs into them and had one boat badly stove; the crew, however, escaped without serious injury. They followed the whales as far as the outer diamond shoal, and were then compelled to abandon the chase.

Monroe Enquirer: A cutting affray occurred on Saturday on the road between this place and Beaver Dam. It seems that Joseph Collins and Sebe Pope were in a buggy together, and the latter being somewhat intoxicated, a difficulty sprang up between them during which they got out of the buggy. Pope received several cuts in the body, from a knife in the hands of Collins, producing ugly but not serious wounds.

Concord Sun: The population of our neighbor town, Mt. Pleasant, according to the report brought us by the mail carrier, Mr. D. A. Sides, is trying to swell itself before the census taker comes aound. In the short space of half an hour last Thursday, it was increased by the arrival of three young colored stagemen. They and their brunette mother are doing well.

A friend from Stanley tells us that the fishermen on the Yadkin are catching fine shad by the hundreds, but for lack of transportation none of them find their way to market.

Raleigh Observer: The Episcopal Church, to be built at once at Durham, will be a very handsome edifice. It is gothic in design, and will be surrounded by a spire. —There was another fire in the country, near Rogers' Mill, northwest of the city, Friday night. A dwelling house was burned, the destruction of the building and contents being total. —Yesterday a few of the boys on Hillsboro street made a kite eight feet high and five wide, and sent it up in the camp ground in rear of Maj. Tucker's. It was perhaps the largest kite ever made here. —The colored woman, Octavia Wilson, or Brown, who was so horribly burned at the house of Mr. Jacob Higgs, corner Wilmington and Cabarrus streets, last week, died Thursday afternoon, in great agony.

Charlotte Observer: Arrangements have been made with Rev. W. W. Landrum, pastor of the First Baptist church of Augusta, to deliver a lecture in Charlotte next Friday evening, for the benefit of the Baptist church which is to be erected here. —The general aspect of the mining interest is more encouraging than it has been for some time, and the coming summer promise new and important developments. —The visiting merchants continue to come in and make things lively. One whose sole merchant says he sold three bills of $300 which he knew he would not have sold but for the excursion. —Henry Horne and George Galloway, both colored, have been sentenced in the Superior Court of this county to be hung on the 7th of May next, one for murder and the other for burglary. —The residence of Dr. J. F. Long, near the track of the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad, about two miles this side of Statesville, was burned night before last, nothing being saved but a few articles of furniture. A valuable piano was included in the furniture not saved. The fire was accidental, arising from an overheated stove pipe. —Day before yesterday, about 9 o'clock p. m., Richmond's cotton gin, very near the depot at Concord, was destroyed by fire. Two bales of cotton and about 60 tons of guano were burned.

LOCAL NEWS.

Easter Eggs will soon be fashionable and will excite the wonder of the unexpecting children who cannot understand how a white hen can lay red and blue eggs.

Wanted and Caught.

Another thief has come to grief and this time one who seems to have figured to some extent in this city as a professional 'sunshine nigger.' This morning the steamer No. 10 State brought to this city a bag containing about sixty pounds of beeswax which was marked for and consigned to Mr. Morris Lear. One George Hill, colored, stole the wax from the steamer's wharf and off red it for sale to Mr. E. F. Johnson who does business on Front street. Mr. J. saw the name on the bag and immediately slipped down to Mr. Lear and notified him of it. They next went to the steamer's agents and asked if the wax had been received and were told that it had been. They then went up to Mr. Johnson's, and Mr. Lear asked the thief some questions and consented to buy it and told the man to walk down to his store for the money. As the trio arrived at Mr. Lear's store a policeman was called and the thief taken charge of. He has been 'wanted' before and the officers who had warrants for his arrest were looking for him. Hill is the thief who got Messrs Kerchner & Calder Bros' cotton and also a tarpanlin which was stolen last week from Messrs E. Kidder & Sons'.

Mrs. Jones, how is your health this morning? Thank you, madam, much improved. I bought a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup last night, and after the first dose my cough was checked I slept well, and have no coughed once this morning.

Interesting to Many.

Some of the census supervisors have called attention to the following instructions which will be of interest to the large number of persons who are making applications for the position of enumerator:

'In general, every township will constitute one enumeration district. Each enumerator must be a resident of the township to which he is appointed. Only for the reason that no competent person can be secured in one township can it be embraced with another; or an enumerator from another assigned to it.

'The appointments should be made with reference to physical activity, and to aptness, neatness and accuracy in writing, and the use of figures. These requirements are scarcely more in the interest of the census than in the interest of the enumerator himself. Unless the officer appointed be fairly proficient in all clerical exercises he will find his duties very trying and his pay very meagre. To appoint old or broken men to this duty (as Supervisors will, on all sides, be pressed to do) would not be an act of charity but of cruelty.

'The census requires active, energetic men of good address and readiness with the pen. Only such can do the work with satisfaction to the government or profit to themselves.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine.

The number for April is one of unusual attractiveness; its pages are brilliant with literary and artistic gems. Among the most notable articles are a charming German allegory, 'The Maiden of the Winged Wheel'; a comprehensive article on the Mormons, by the Rev. W. Fleming Stevenson, entitled 'A City of Saints.' It is profusely illustrated, as is likewise 'Martin Luther,' a biographical study, by A. H. Guernsey. There is a timely and appropriate article by M. E. W. S., entitled 'Fashion and Faith.' The subject of No. III of 'The Children of the Bible,' is 'Joseph the Dreamer.' The department of fiction contains, besides the continuation of the popular serial 'Bebe, the Nailmaker's Daughter' and 'Little Hinges,' some exceedingly interesting stories by celebrated writers. There are poems of unusual merit; one by J. D. Burns entitled 'Baalbek,' with two views of the ancient city; 'April,' by the late Frances Ridley Havergal (finely illustrated) and the 'Magnificat,' a poem of the New Testament, by the Bishop of Derby, are admirable. 'Religious Notes and News at Home and Abroad,' is a new and interesting feature. There are numerous illustrations and descriptions of ecclesiastical architecture, scenery, natural history, adventure etc. Also many articles illustrative of religious habits and customs, with Scriptural interpretations. In fact, the 128 quarto pages teem with most delightful and edifying matter. The illustrations number about 100. A single number is only 25 cents, and the annual subscription $3, postpaid. Physicians' Wine. New York physicians say that they have been using Speer's Port Grape Wine and Wine Bitters in their practice for years, to the entire satisfaction of their patients and themselves, and take great pleasure in recommending them to the public as being all that is claimed for them, and in fact the most reliable they can find. Steamboat men inform us that when they left Fayetteville on Saturday morning, there had been a rise of about five feet in the river, with the water still on the increase.

Now Open.

Mr. Julius Hahn's new dry goods store, at No. 38 Market street, was thrown open to the public to-day. Notwithstanding the very disagreeable weather the ladies were out in force and the counters were thronged during the forenoon with those who went there to see and to buy. Mr. Hahn believes in printer's ink and the result to-day fully justifies that belief.

A Memorial Gift to Bishop Atkinson.

It is proposed to present to the venerable bishop of this Episcopal diocese a memorial gift during this the twentieth sixth year of his episcopate. A circular on the subject has been issued by the Rev. A. H. Boyle, rector of Calvary church, Wadesboro, N. C., which suggests that after the contributions are all in the hands of Dr. A. J. Deltosset, of Wilmington, who has consented to act as treasurer, the whole matter be left with the Standing Committee, to present the memorial in such form as they may deem most suitable. It is furthermore suggested that the offerings of the Sunday Schools throughout the present season of Lent be devoted to this object. Each rector is also invited to employ such means as he may think fitted to secure the hearty co-operation of his parishioners. He may make collections or ask for personal contributions of a specified sum from the communicants of his parish. An average of a dollar from every member of the Church in the diocese would doubtless ensure enough to procure a gift worthy of its purpose.

This information we gather from the Churchman.

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr. Mott of New York, speaks wondrously for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey:

62 MADISON AVENUE, }
NEW YORK, April 11, 1878. }
MR. ALFRED SPEER.—Dear Sir: The visit which I made last year to your Vineyards, wine-presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfied me thoroughly that the wines manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.

Acting upon my favorable impressions at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied, with marked benefit, to my patients.

There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grapes, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine bearing the luxuriant fruit. Wishing you success in your praiseworthy enterprise, remain respectfully yours,

Speer's Port Grape Wine
Four's Years Old.

THIS JUSTLY CELEBRATED NATIVE Wine is made from the juice of the Oporto Grape, raised in this country. Its invaluable Tonic and Strengthening Properties are unsurpassed by any other native wine. Being the pure juice of the grape, produced under Mr. Speer's own personal supervision, its purity and genuineness are guaranteed. The youngest child may partake of its generous qualities, and the weakest invalid may use it to advantage. It is particularly beneficial to the aged and debilitated, and to the various ailments that afflict the weaker sex. It is, in every respect, A WINE TO BE RELIED ON.

Speer's P. J. Sherry.

The P. J. SHERRY is a Wine of SUPERIOR CHARACTER and partakes of the highest qualities of the grape from which it is made. For MEDICINAL PROPERTIES, it will be found unexcelled. Speer's P. J. or Pedro J. Brandy. This noted Brandy is a pure distillation from the grape and is equal to the finest Cognac or Utdard Brandy; for medicinal purposes it can be relied upon as strictly pure. See that the signature of Alfred Speer, Passaic, N. J., is over the cork of each bottle. A. SPEER'S Mt. Prospect Vineyard, New Jersey, Green & Flanner, J. C. Munds, Druggists, and P. L.
