BROWN & RODDICK,
5 & 10 Cent Store.
(N. E. CORNER OF MARKET AND SECOND STREETS.)

WE TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY of thanking the general public for their very liberal patronage in the above branch of our business and desire to state that at no time since our first opening have we ever carried such an assortment as at present. Having anticipated the present great advance in such goods, we are now fully prepared to offer the Largest and Cheapest assortment ever seen in this section at any time. We can with truthfulness assert that our stock is more than double the size of any other of this kind south of Baltimore. It is a very easy matter to call in and verify the above statement.

We would also add that we have of late added several new departments to the above, which we retail at higher prices, consisting of many useful articles in housekeeping, &c., such as we have a demand for, and in future it will be our endeavor to keep adding any and everything we can buy useful and below value. Our intention is to make this THE Store of the South for Bargains of all Kinds.

The following is a very imperfect list but our space will admit of no more.

Early vegetables are plentiful in market now.
Eggs are plentiful at 12 1/2 cents per dozen.

New moon this evening at 38 minutes past 7 o'clock.

And now they have the 34 and Little Buttercup puzzles.

Most time for picnic and sound parties and engagement ring business.

The telephone line to Wrightsville Sound is to be erected next week.

The latest slang expression now is not Whoa Emma! but Gew Anna! Phew! how it smells!

The last of the cargo of fruit of the schooner Julia Elizabeth was sold at auction to-day.

Full Metal and Walnut Show Cases, all styles and sizes, at ALTAFFER, PRICE & CO'S.

Steamship Benefactor, Captain Jones, arrived here this morning from New York.

Mr. E. T. Draper, manager of the dry goods house of Mr. Julius Samson, has gone North to select his spring stock of goods.

Chalk, or magnesia, rubbed on silk or ribbon that has been greased, and held near the fire, will absorb the grease so that it may be brushed off.

The Stedman Fire Company have a gong attached to their truck now, so that when you hear the gong strike, look out, the "Stedman Boys" are coming.

In the Supreme Court, on Monday, the decision of the lower Court in the case of F. W. Kerchner vs. Marcus A. Baker, from New Hanover, was affirmed.

Monday's Charlotte Press says: In the Superior Court today, the Carolina Central Railway recovered a verdict of $500 and costs, in a suit against the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta R. R.

The auxiliary fire alarms which have been placed in the residences of the members of the Fire Department will add much to the prompt arrival of the fire companies at the scenes of destruction.

Everybody can get suited with a Pocket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

It speaks for itself, is what a lady said of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup the other day, for a single bottle cured my child of a dreadful cough.

The dirty boxes, barrels and other rubbish of the bucksters on Market street which have stood on the corner for a year past are calculated to impress strangers favorably (?) with our city.

Cotton futures tumbled eighteen points in New York to-day, but as the receipts were light, both yesterday and to-day, a corresponding advance, it is thought by some, may be looked for in a day or two.

Yesterday's Raleigh News says: Governor Jarvis, Mr. M. T. Leach and Mr. A. T. London were passengers on the train from the West yesterday and returning from a visit to Col. Holt's hospitable roof near Haw River, where a party of ladies and gentlemen from this city have been spending the past week in a most delightful manner.

The steamer John Dawson, having been completed, raised steam yesterday and proceeded up the river to Point Caswell. She is expected back to this city in a few days with a load of naval stores.

St. Patrick's Day.
The Hibernian Association of this city have concluded not to have a procession or any public demonstration on St. Patrick's Day of this year. The members of the Association will simply meet at their Hall and go in a body to St. Thomas' Catholic Church, where services will be held, and after the services will march back to their Hall and disperse.

Ready mixed Paints, strictly pure White Lead, C. lora, Brushes, Window Glass, &c., at JACOBI'S.

The River.

Reports from Fayetteville are to the effect that the river is still rising at that point. The recent rain extended all along up the Cape Fear and there are indications that considerable of a freshet will be the result. The steamboatmen are per consequence in a better humor than they were last week.

Plows, shovels, Pitchforks, Spades, Rakes, Trace Chains, Plow Lines, &c. For the lowest prices, go to JACOBI'S.

Liquor Dealers' Association.

This Association met last night at the hall of the Howard Engine Company, Mr. H. E. Scott, President, and Capt. James M. McGowan, Secretary.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to prepare a memorial to the Legislature made their report. The memorial petitions for a reduction of the present 10 per cent. tax on liquor dealers to a tax of one-tenth of one per cent. as imposed on other merchants.

The report was adopted and the committee discharged.

The committee on circulars reported that they had sent circulars to all important towns in the State, asking the cooperation of dealers with the Association in this city.

The Visiting Committee reported four new members.

A motion was made to have one hundred and fifty copies of the constitution and by-laws of the Association printed, and a committee was appointed to ascertain the cost of the same and report.

Window Glass of all sizes, Doors, Sash, and Blinds, Builders' Hardware, &c. Lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

At the Opera House Next Week.

Professor Macallister, the Wizard, is to open an engagement for a week in this city on Monday night, and promises to astound the natives with his new and wonderful sleight of hand tricks. Wherever he has been the press speak well of him. He was playing last week in Charleston and of him the News & Courier says:

Prof. J. M. Macallister, the great prestidigitator, opened his engagement at the Librarian Hall last evening to an immense audience. Every seat was filled and scores of people were compelled to stand. The entertainment was full, varied and wonderful, presenting many entirely new and original illusions that baffled the conception of the most acute and close observer. Macallister's Pandora box trick is alone worth the price of the admission to witness. The Professor has a pleasing presence, and presented his illusions with an ease and grace which added a charm to their incomprehensibility. He is the most expert and pleasing magician that has visited Charleston in many a long year. After the performance a number of valuable and useful presents, including a $10 cash prize, were given away to those who had been fortunate enough to draw a premium with their tickets.

The Boss Puzzle.

It is wonderful to note what a hold this puzzle has taken on the public mind. About two weeks ago the Editor of this paper and a friend returned from the North, bringing with them each a puzzle, the first seen in Wilmington. At that time it had not gotten as far South as Baltimore and had scarcely begun to be known in Philadelphia. How rapidly the mania has spread is evidenced by the fact that in two short weeks it has gone like wildfire everywhere. The awful job is to get out of that 13, 15, 14 position, if there is a way out it has not yet been found although there are many who claim to have worked it out. If they have they have not been able to give the solution. A writer in a Richmond daily thinks it has been found by a young lady in that city. He says:

"Since so many heads have been at work upon this little puzzle, this solution I send you may, perhaps, prove to be not new. With a young lady of our city, however, who is the author, it is original. The rule may be stated thus: Slip the 1 and the 4 to the left and to the right end respectively of the first line; arrange, correspondingly, the 5 and the 8 in the second line; the 3 and the 13 in the third; the 18 and the 16 in the fourth. The eight figures here mentioned, if they be thus arranged, will leave the remaining seven in such positions as that they may, without difficulty, be made to fall into their proper places."

Merchants are required to move their dry goods boxes from the side-walk within twenty-four hours after they are deposited and the goods taken out, but a buckster, who pays no taxes, can let his garbage barrels and boxes remain as long as it suits his convenience.

Handsome Quilt.

We saw this morning, at Capt. N. H. Sprunt's store, a very handsome crocheted quilt made by a young lady of this city who wishes it to be raffled for the benefit of St. John's Church. The quilt is a perfect beauty and will prove a comfort to the one who is lucky enough to get it.

Returning Good for Evil.

Fraunce Outlaw, colored, had Fanny Brewington, colored, arrested and carried before a Magistrate upon a peace warrant. But on the trial the plaintiff in the case failed to substantiate the charges made in the warrant, when the case was dismissed at the prosecutor's costs. The defendant in the case then, in a truly Good Samaritan like spirit, to prevent her prosecutor from being committed to jail paid the costs in the case.

Great Cases!

Yesterday two little boys, one white and the other colored, neither more than 13 or 14 years of age, became engaged in a fist-cuff and the little darkey, at the instance of some one, ran immediately to the law shop of J. C. Hill, J. P. and swore out a warrant for assault and battery and the little white boy was arrested. There were three witnesses examined and the white boy was adjudged guilty and fined $2, and the costs $4.74, making a total of costs and fine $6.75. These figures, it seems to us, are steep for a fight between two little boys and if both fought why were not both fined or reprimanded and turned loose? And how can an affray be transformed into a case of assault and battery?

The Debate Last Night.

The debate between Messrs. G. H. Smith and M. H. Willard, of the Philomathean Literary Society, notice of which we have previously given, took place last evening in Munda Hall, on Third street. It was a very interesting occasion and the attendance was large, select and appreciative. The question for discussion was the respective merits as a reformer of Peter the Great of Russia and Henry VIII of England. Mr. Smith held the affirmative and Mr. Willard the negative view of the question. It was decided in favor of the negative, after a handsome and spirited debate. Rev. Dr. Wilson, Dr. Thos. F. Wood and Mr. James Sprunt were the umpires and their decision was announced by Dr. Wilson.

Next Tuesday evening there will be an anniversary celebration by the Philomatheans and on that occasion the prize medal awarded last night to Mr. Willard, as well as an orator's medal contended for on a previous occasion, will be awarded.

Guano in Raleigh.

A city correspondent of the Raleigh Observer writes a humorous letter to that paper relative to the guano nuisance in that city, and complains of the intolerable and offensive smell arising therefrom and penetrating to the most populous portions of the place and calls upon the Board of Aldermen to abate the nuisance. He quotes from the Review the proceedings of the Wilmington authorities, whereby it is forbidden to store any such article within certain limits, and humorously says of the one vote in opposition, that cast by Alderman Foster that "if he (Foster) would come up here and get some of our 'fostered and developed' in his system he would go back and change his vote."

In continuation of the subject the correspondent pays a handsome little compliment to our people which we make no apology for copying here. He says:

It may be that theirs is not as "red hot" as ours, but, upon reflection, I guess it must be, for I heard a Wilmington man say to-day "there were enough good breakfasts spoiled on one moisty morning to fatten every cur dog in New Hanover county." Somehow or another, I always did think well of those Wilmington folks. They don't know how to be otherwise than clever, and the more I see of them, the more I am reminded of the old saying, "there is a heap in a fellow's raising."

Several timber rafts came down the river this morning.

The market is well supplied with wood, but the prices are stiff high.

The fragrant yellow jessamine is now in all of the glory of full bloom in the woods around the city.

The washed places on Market street between Front and Second streets, were filled up this morning.

The trotting race at the Fair Grounds on Friday evening next is already claiming much attention.

The Little Giant Steam Fire Engine Co., No. 1, will celebrate their anniversary on Monday next by a parade and engine practice.

Fires and overcoats were decidedly comfortable last night and this morning. This afternoon there is some sunshine and the atmosphere has moderated considerably.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Notwithstanding the advance in Clothing and Gen's Furnishing Goods, SHRIER Bros. are selling beautiful suits from $10 to $12. The well known Diamond Shirt at $1 a piece. It will pay all who have an idea of buying a suit to call and examine the immense Spring stock they are now receiving.

One More Dime Party.

There will be a dime party at Mrs. Thos. Morrison's, on Front, between Chestnut and Mulberry streets, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, when lots of goodies and a good time, too, can be had. There will be music without dancing to enliven the occasion, and we feel satisfied in saying that from our knowledge of those who are to have charge of the arrangements, everything will be successfully and happily carried out. The proceeds of the party are to be donated to the benefit of St. John's Church.

To Leave Us.

We have heretofore spoken of the fact that Mr. B. D. DeForest, the very clever gentleman who has had the management of the Bell Telephone Exchange in this city since it was first established here, had been appointed to the position of Assistant Superintendent for the district South of this and that he would be succeeded here by his assistant in the office here, Mr. D. P. Ornes. Mr. DeForest will leave here on Saturday for Augusta, at which point his headquarters will be established. We trust that our friends "down thar" will take good care of him. He is a good, clever, genial fellow and knows all about the business. We trust that he will find it convenient to drop in on us occasionally, and in the meantime we will try and take good care of D. P.
