Railroad Freights.

The backbone of the great rush of rail road freigh a seems to have been broken and it is expected that they will fall off sensibly between this and April 1st-However, there is still an enormous freighting business being done here yet,

Quick Time,

The steamer Governor Worth made her last trip from Fayetteville to this city in 111 hours, including the time consumed in making 19 stoppages on the passage. This is considered a good run. Fayetteville is 112 miles from Wilming-

Plenty of Water.

Steamboutmen report that there is now from 25 to 30 leet of water in the Cape Fear at Fayetteville and that the freshet seems to have attained its highest mark. There are no fears now of very low water before the dry Summer season comes up-

Plows, Shoves, Pitchtorks, Spaces, Rakes, Frace Chains, Plow Lines, &c. For the lowest prices, go to JACoBI's.

Magistrate's Court.

Shade Isham, ol red, was arraigned upon a peace warrant before a Justice of the Peace this morning, and charged with assault and battery in addition thereto. After an investigation of the facts the de fendant was ordered to pay one penny and the costs, in default of which he was

st. Fatrick's Day. As was announced by us some days since there will be no especial demonstration here to-morrow in honor of St. Patrick's Day, the intention being, we understand, to devote the amount which would be expended on a celebration to the benefit of the suffering poor in Ireland The day will not, however, be allewed to A LL KINDS OF BUT DING Material, pass upnoticed and unregarded and with this object in view the members of the Seasoned Flooring, Weather Boarding, &c Hibernian Benevolent Society will assem-&c.
