BROWN & RODDICK,
5 & 10 Cent Store.
(N. E. CORNER OF MARKET AND SECOND STREETS.)

WE TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY OF thanking the general public for their very liberal patronage in the above branch of our business and desire to state that at no time since our first opening have we ever carried such an assortment as at present. Having anticipated the recent great advance in such goods, we are now fully prepared to offer the Largest and Cheapest assortment of goods in this section at any time. We can with truthfulness assert that our stock is more than double the size of any other of this kind south of Baltimore. It is a very easy matter to call in and verify the above statement.

We would also add that we have of late added several new departments to the above, which we retail at higher prices, consisting of many useful articles in Housekeeping, &c., such as we have a demand for, and in future it will be our endeavor to keep adding and everything we can buy useful and low price. Our intention is to make this our Store of the South for Bargains of all kinds.

The following is a very imperfect list but our space will admit of no more.

Japanese Ware, Glass Ware, Tin Ware, Sissors, French Dressing, Blacking, Lut, Oil Cans, Machine Oil, Faucets, Trays, Trumpets, Toilet Soap, Forks, Table and Tea Spoons, Marbles, Movie Polish, Pistols, Can Openers, Hammers, Pocket Knives, Children's Slates, Perfumery, Jewelry, Combs, Pop Guns, Door Banners, Cord Screws, Dolls, Hair Pins, Pulleys, Lemon Squeezers, Wafers, Brushes, Bridles, Horse and Carriage Saddles, Hammers, Jumping Ropes, Note Paper and En- velopes, Feather Dusters, Doll Cages, Razor Straps, Brooms, Buckets, Baskets,	Toilet Sets, Vases, Velocipedes, Carts, Wagons, Wash Boards, Clocks, Spool Cotton Hamburg Lace, Spool Silk, Ladies' and Gents' Hdk's, Linen Table Napkins, Ladies' Hosiery, Linen Table Linens, Children's Hosiery, Gents' Socks, Gents' Shirts, &c., &c., &c., &c., &c.,

A Chicken Dispute.

A cocking main was fought at Klein's Garden this afternoon. Quite a number of persons witnessed the sport. The cocks pitted against each other belonged to persons to this city, who arranged the fight for their amusement. At 4:30 o'clock three fights had been had, and four more were to have taken place. Improved steels were used, and a cock was killed in each fight. The contests were spirited and the cocks showed themselves full game.

Pleasure Excursion.

To-morrow (Thursday) morning, at 9 o'clock the steam yacht Passport, Capt Harper, will leave her wharf at the foot of Market street, for an excursion to Smithville and the fortifications at the mouth of the river. The excursion is given up under the auspices of ladies connected with St. John's Church and the proceeds will be devoted to the benefit of that religious organization. This will be the first pleasure trip of the season and we hope it may prove pleasant to the participants and yield a handsome amount to the laudable purpose for which it is intended.

Polish for Shirts.

A shirt board for ironing is a necessity in every well regulated family. This should be covered with at least two thicknesses of blankets, and have the ironing sheet, also double, smoothly pinned over it, so that it cannot slip. Keep wax tied up in a rag to rub the iron. The polish of collars, etc., done up at large laundries is given by means of a polishing iron and by dint of much rubbing.
It may be done by any good laundress, but it takes much time, and is fearfully hard on the linen. Spermaceti added in small quantities to the starch gives a pretty gloss. We insert this recipe: Melt together with a gentle heat, one ounce of white wax and two ounces of spermaceti; prepare in the usual way a sufficient quantity of starch for a dozen bosoms; put into it a piece of this emame the size of a hazel nut. This gives a beautiful polish.

Opera House To-Night.

Another large audience greeted Professor Macallister at the Opera House last night. The illusions were very fine, and if it can be possible, were even more im-comprehensible than those performed the night previous. Combinations made by Prof. Macallister with the silver rings was proof positive that he is master of his art.
The Conservatory of Flowers was particularly fine, as was also the trick performed with the finger rings, handkerchief and watch.

Many useful and valuable presents were given away, and Mr. W. J. Yopp was the lucky holder of ticket No. 51 which drew in the cash gift of $15. To-night the Professor will give what he terms his ne plus ultra programme, when the magical part of the entertainment will close with the illusion known as the Elements.
A cash gift of $15 will be given out, and a fine silver cake basket will be one of the gifts.

Advertising.

The most important part of every dealer's business, is to try and get business, that is to say, to advertise for it. The first item of expenditure which an experienced dealer increases and the last one which he reduces is the item for advertising. The question with him is not, shall I advertise, but how and where? The experience of wise and liberal advertisers—that is to say, of all successful business men—is that of a New York merchant whose creed has been thus epigrammatically formulated: "It what you have to say be strictly true, say it in a good newspaper. Its readers are intelligent, will appreciate a bargain, and of every such customer you make an advertiser." To resort to poor methods when a good method is available is in effect to indicate parsimony or ignorance, neither of which qualities is compatible with business success. Against the disfigurement of natural scenery by painted signs decent people long ago rose in wrath.
The credulous dealer who puts his faith exclusively in circulars and hand bills has but to follow a postman or an animated sandwich to be convinced that he has been toiling to enrich the rag-picker and junkman. The "trade journal" hallucination, being a shadow of real journalism, is probably and naturally the strongest, but manufacturers and merchants are beginning to see that it is buyers they should seek to reach and not rival sellers.

The people have been so much imposed upon by worthless Blood Purifiers, that we are glad to be able to recommend a preparation which can be depended on as containing invaluable medicinal virtues, and is worthy of the public confidence. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures when anything can cure, the diseases that require an alternative medicine.

Happy Hearts.

Mr. John D. Von Glahn, one of the very popular young gentlemen employed in the Post office in this city, was married last night to Miss Fannie, daughter of John Dyer, Esq. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Wilson, D. D., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, at the residence of the bride's parents on Market street. Our sincere congratulations, with many warm wishes for their future, are tendered the happy couple.

Death of an Estimable Lady.

It is with sincere regret that we learn of the distress which has visited Rev. C.
M. Payne, Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city, in the loss of his estimable wife, which sad event occurred about 1 o'clock this morning at the Parasona in this city. Her loss will be felt very acutely, not only by the bereaved husband and the two motherless children, but by the many in this city who had learned to admire and esteem the deceased lady for her many beautiful traits of character and for the truly Christian life she had led while among us.

The remains will be taken to Winston to-morrow and there interred in the family burying ground.

Returned in Distress.

Schooner S. F. W. Simmons, from this port for Philadelphia, put into Smithville yesterday in distress. She was cleared on the 9th inst., by Messrs. Harris & Howell, with 100 tons old railroad iron, 45,000 feet lumber and 204,975 shingles. She went to sea on the 10th (last Wednesday), with the wind from the Northeast; on the 12th experienced heavy weather, when the vessel labored very much and the backing to the rudder was split off, and the rudder stock was split. A temporary rudder, made from planks, was rigged and the vessel was run before the wind and sea for Smithville, where she arrived yesterday.
The Simmons is now being towed up to this city for survey and repairs. No other damage than the loss of the rudder is reported.

St. Patrick's Day.

The members of the Hibernian Benevolent Society this morning celebrated the anniversary of St. Patrick's Day according to the programme which had been agreed upon by them, by a parade and an address at St. Thomas' church. They met at Hibernian Hall, and at 9 o'clock, under the direction of Major James Reilly, the Marshal, and in full regalia, marched in a body to St. Thomas' church, where services appropriate to the day were celebrated, and an address was delivered by Rev.
Father Moore. This address, we understand, is considered by those who were so fortunate as to hear it as one of the most graceful and pleasing efforts ever made within the walls of that sacred building. We hear it spoken of on all sides as a marvel of deep research and charming eloquence. There were many ladies present, and also many gentlemen besides the members of the society.

On the conclusion of the services at the church, the members re-formed in line and returned to the Hall, where the following gentlemen were elected to serve in their respective offices for the ensuing year:

President—F. H. Darby.
Vice President—Geo. P. Lamb.
Secretary—James Corbett.
Asst. Secretary—John W. Reilly.
Treasurer—Timothy Donlan.

Supreme Court.

The following causes were disposed of in this Court, at Raleigh, on Monday:
O. R. Hollingsworth vs. J. A. Harmon et al., from Pender; called and continued.

Stephen Winbury vs. F. D. Koonce, from Onslow; called and continued for absence of counsel.

State vs. Peter Leitch, from Robeson; argued by Attorney General Kenan for the State; no counsel for the defendant.

W. B. Holliday vs. Andrew McMillan et al., from Richmond; argued by J. D.
Shaw (by brief) for the plaintiff, and P.
D. Walker (by brief), Mason & Devreux and G. V. Strong for the defendants.

DIED.

This morning, an hour after midnight, Mrs. GARRIE WATKINS PAYNE, the beloved and devoted wife of the Rev. C. M.
Payne.

This sad event has desolated a happy home and afflicted many hearts. But they mourn not for the departed, who they know has entered into "the inheritance of the saints in light", but for themselves, the bereaved husband, parents, children, friends and the be-so of mourning.
The mortal remains will be taken by the Northern train to-morrow morning to the family burying place at Winston, Forythe county.
