Joint Services.

There will be joint services in the First and Second Presbyterian churches to-morrow, conducted by Rev. Jas. M. Sprunt, D. D., in the First church at 11 A. M., and the Second church at 8 P. M. There will be no services in the First at night nor in the Second in the morning.

Confirmation.

Rev. Dr. Bernheim, Pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, administered the Rite of Confirmation to nine candidates, all misses and boys, at St. Paul's Church, last evening. There was a very large attendance and the services were both interesting and impressive. We understand that there is another class preparing to receive the holy rite at some day in the near future.

A New Enterprise.

Mr. N. N. Smith, formerly of Fayetteville, who has had considerable experience in the manufacture of potter's ware, has removed to this city and established a pottery on the corner of Sixth and Nixon streets. He has just completed his establishment and manufactured his first lot of earthen ware, which consists of jars, pans and other articles for domestic use. We learn that he obtains clay for his purposes in abundance near his pottery. We hope he may have that patronage and success which the enterprise demands.

Window Glass of all sizes, Doors, Sash and Blinds, Builders' Hardware, &c. Lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Easter.

To-day is Easter Even and to-morrow will be Easter Day. This latter is known in the Church Calendar as the Christian Pasover and Festival of the Resurrection of Christ, and will be duly celebrated by the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches in this city.

In the early Christian ages a wide difference of opinion sprang up between different sects and creeds as to what day of the week and month Easter came on. After years of angry strife and bitter discussions it was finally settled for the whole church by adopting the rule which makes Easter day to be always the first Sunday after the full moon upon or next after March 21st, and if the full moon happens on Sunday, Easter day is the Sunday after. By this arrangement Easter may come as early as March 22nd, or as late as April 25th. This sacred festival has been termed the Queen of Festivals; it has been observed from the very beginning, and is celebrated in every part of the Christian world with great solemnity and devotion. In nearly all Christian countries the recurrence of Easter has been celebrated with various ceremonies and popular sports and observances. Among the best known is the custom of making presents of colored eggs, called pasch or pale eggs, which were often elaborately ornamented; and in a royal roll of the time of Edward I., preserved in the Tower, appears an entry of 181 for 400 eggs to be used for this purpose. Colored eggs were used by children at Easter at a sort of game which consisted in testing the strength of the egg shell, and this practice is still continued in some Christian countries. The game of ball was a favorite Easter sport, in which municipal corporations formerly engaged with due parade and dignity; and at Bury St. Edmund's within a few years the game was kept up with great spirit by twelve old women. In the Northern countries of England the men parade the streets on Easter Sunday and claim the privilege of lifting every woman three times from the ground, receiving in payment a kiss or a silver sixpence. The same is done by the women to the men on the next day.

Pinafore Again.

It seems that we are to have the pleasure of this favorite Opera again by the popular Juvenile Troupe which won so much favor here in the earlier part of the season. They will perform at the Opera House in this city on the evening of April 7th and will hold a matinee on the afternoon of April 8th.

Capt. Ellis.

Good Friday.

This day was more generally observed in this city yesterday than usual. The public offices, except those belonging to the government, were closed as were the banks, the Produce Exchange and many other places of business. Religious services were held at the Episcopal, Catholic and Lutheran churches, and the flags of the German Vice Consulate and the German vessels in port were at half mast during the day.

City Court.

There were three cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning. The first called was that of a young German Jack Tar who could scarcely speak English. The charge against the defendant was, that he fired a pistol in Paddy's Hollow last night about 10 o'clock. The young son of Neptune declared his innocent intention of anything wrong and tried to explain that in the old country Good Friday was a holiday and folks are allowed a little license. The Mayor dismissed the case.

The next case was that of a young white man who got into a difficulty with a disreputable white woman in front of a saloon in the neighborhood of Paddy's Hollow, known as the "Red Light." The charge against this valiant young man and chivalrous hero was, that he knocked a woman down twice on the street. The woman herself failed to complain, and while on the witness stand this morning evidently delivered her testimony very reluctantly. We suppress the names of the parties by special request, (we suppose they are fearful the publication of them will injure their reputations—REPORTER) The Mayor stated that in consideration of this being the first offence and inasmuch as there was no complain, of damage, he would suspend judgment in this instance.

The third and last case was that of a colored habitue of Paddy's Hollow, who fiddled there for a living—charge: Drunk and down on the streets. The Mayor said three days and defendant went below. The Court then adjourned.

Train Wrecking.

Some scoundrel, whose neck richly deserves a hempen cravat, attempted to wreck a train on the W. & W. Railroad between Weldon and Halifax, on Thursday evening, by placing rails across the track. The train was delayed for about an hour, but no serious damage was done.

Mrs. Jarley.

The box sheet for the entertainment to be given at the Opera House on next Tuesday evening is now open at Heinsberger's and the seats are being rapidly secured. It is the first time, we think, that Mrs. Jarley has ever been presented to a Wilmington public and there will undoubtedly be a very large house. It is one of the most unique, pleasing entertainments of the day and must be seen to be appreciated. Besides the wax-works there will be other attractions, such as tableaux, music, proverbs, &c., the whole making a bill which is bound to please everybody. We candidly advise those who have not yet secured seats to attend to it at once.

Complimentary.

Brother Bonitz, of the Goldsboro Messenger, who was here a few days since on a flying visit, speaks thus handsomely of our city and of our people:

We, of course, noted many handsome improvements that had been added to the city since our last visit there in 1872, and were pleased to hear that the business outlook of the city was never brighter and that the future looks quite encouraging. The trade of Wilmington is said to be growing with each succeeding season. The enterprising, public spirited business men of the noble Cape Fear city are certainly entitled to the greatest credit for the solid, steady progress the commerce of the city is making, in the face of the many combinations, the State and some of the railroads have succeeded in forming to her detriment, and in the interests of seaports beyond the State.
