Deservedly popular. We mean Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It never fails to cure a Cough. Physicians recommend it. Price only 25 cents.

A building, near the corner of Sixth and Red Cross streets, used as a carpenter shop, was blown down by the wind Saturday night.

We are glad to learn that notwithstanding the cold weather and the high winds, the truck gardens in this vicinity have thus far escaped serious injury.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States clear or partly cloudy weather, winds northeasterly, stationary or higher temperature, rising barometer.

We noticed on the streets yesterday some handsome suits of Spring Clothing, which were bought at the well-known Clothing House of Messrs. SHERRILL'S, 28 and 34 Market street.

Added to the pleasant superstition that the fruit is never killed in leap year, is another which provides for its salvation during the month of March; so we may yet have an abundance of peaches and apples next summer.

The sale of fine furniture, groceries, &c., &c., advertised by Messrs. Conly & Morris, to take place this day, was postponed until to-morrow, Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock.

It is again cold enough for fires and overcoats. The wind is from the North to-day, but some of the weatherwise predict that it is a final spurt and that Spring will begin in earnest with the advent of the new month.

More Water.

Advice from Fayetteville are to the effect that there has been another increase of water in the Cape Fear as a result of rains in the interior. It began to rise last Saturday and was still on the increase when the Gov. Worth, left Fayetteville yesterday morning. There is now about twenty feet of water on the shoals at that point.

Chicken Disputes.

A cocking main was fought at Klein's Garden on yesterday. Ten fights were had and the sport was said to have been unusually fine. Quite a number of the cocks were placed hors de combat and there were two draw fights and no runs. As on previous occasions the cocks belonged to members of the Sporting Club and were put in the main chiefly for the amusement it would afford the owners. Quite a number of persons were in attendance to witness the disputes.

Feast of the Passover.

The Hebrew Feast of the Passover, celebrated in commemoration of the delivery of the children of Israel from the slavery of bondage in Egypt, began Friday evening at 6 o'clock, and will continue for eight days. The Orthodox Hebrews celebrated Saturday and Sunday, 28th and 29th inst., and Friday and Saturday, April 21 and 23, the two first and the two last days, and the Reformed, Saturday 28th, and Friday, April 21, the first and last days.

Both Orthodox and Reformed are permitted in the interim between the days observed to engage in their ordinary business pursuits, but the eating of any leavened bread is strictly prohibited.

The Association of Eggs With Easter.

In answer to the question why is it that eggs are associated with Easter, the New York Journal of Commerce thus replies:
The egg is an accepted symbol of the Resurrection. It was used long before Christianity to represent both the creation and deluge, as life and order came out of chaos, and out of the ark which inclosed it as the shell does the life to be quickened within it. The transfer of the symbol to the new life that comes out of the grave is very natural. These eggs were colored red or crimson to represent the blood poured out for man's redemption, through which alone, as the believers held, the new life was promised.

International Money Orders.

The Exchange of International Money Orders between the United States and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the German Empire, and the Republics of France and Algeria, under the new regulations, will commence on the 1st day of April, 1880, at the post-office in Wilmington. The amount of each international money order, payable in either of said countries, must be expressed thereon in U. S. money as well as in the money of the country of payment. S. money in the currency of the country in which the money order is payable. Money orders can also be obtained on Italy, and the Dominion of Canada as formerly.

This Evening's Entertainment.
Our readers will bear in mind that this evening an entertainment will be given at the Opera House for the benefit of St. John's Church. The programme, a copy of which we have seen, is a very good one, consisting of such a variety as to make the entertainment both pleasant and interesting. Those having the matter in charge have spared no pains to make the affair a success, and we hope their efforts may be appreciated by an intelligent public, and that a crowded house may materially aid the worthy cause for which the entertainment is gotten up. Some of the best amateur musicians in the city have volunteered their assistance, and the best of vocal and instrumental music will add to the pleasures of the occasion.

St. James'.

For many years past it has been the custom in this Parish at every advent of Easter for the children connected with the Sunday School to gather on the tower of the church at early morn and break forth in songs of joy as the rising sun kindles the purple East. It is a beautiful custom, and one well calculated to excite devotional feelings in the breast of the most worldly, and on this occasion their voices seemed to harmonize in sweeter accord than ever before. The contrast between the dark and stormy night, and the bright and beautiful morning, was emblematic of the darkness which had shrouded the Church since the Crucifixion, and the glorious triumph over death and the grave by the risen Saviour. The leaves of the forest quivered in the sunlight as if they were dancing for joy, the birds carolled forth their sweetest strains sending their unconscious music up to the throne of God, and mingling with the harmony of nature came the sweet voices of innocent childhood, singing "psalms and hymns, and songs of praise." That heart must indeed be callous which could not be moved at such a scene, on such an occasion.

Returning to Wilmington.

Dr. J. J. DeRosset who, it will be remembered, was induced about a year ago to remove from New York to San Antonio, Texas, to take charge of a practice in that town, has abandoned Texas and will return to Wilmington, at least temporarily. This step has been rendered imperative on account of Dr. DeRosset's health which, we are sorry to hear, has become much impaired. He was to have left San Antonio, with his family, to-day, and is expected here next Monday.

The Bulls and the Bears.

The bulls and the bears made a lively time of it on the cotton market. At the opening in New York the tendency was decidedly downward, as it has been under heavy pressure for several weeks past, and the bears succeeded in pushing the farther months to a further decline of 15 points, but the opposing side made a desperate resistance, resulting in a much firmer tone, and a slight reviving at the close. The sales foot up the enormous figures of 253,000 bales. A big day's work.

City Court.

Alderman Flannor, Mayor pro tem, presiding.
The case of Henry Smith and John Gooding continued from yesterday, was dismissed this morning, no witnesses appearing to testify against defendants.

Peter Hogland, the same individual who was yesterday morning arraigned upon the charge of drunk and disorderly, was again at the bar of the Court this morning with the same complaint on the docket against him. The defendant made a piteous appeal and promised to leave the city within 24 hours time. In consideration of the promise the Mayor pro tem. suspended judgment and the defendant was allowed to depart.

John McLaughlin, a young man, steward on board of a vessel in port, was arraigned upon the charge of wandering about the streets at a late hour last night, and acting in a very strange manner. The conduct of the defendant was also very strange in Court, so much so that it was thought by the Court that the young man's mind must be impaired. The pro tem. ordered the young man below until a medical examination could be made of his condition.

Two other unimportant cases were dismissed from the docket and the Court adjourned.

The Papal brief for the consecration of Rt. Rev. M. S. Gross is now on its way from Rome. The consecration which will make him Bishop and Vicar Apostolic of North Carolina, is expected to take place in Baltimore, Md., sometime during the month of April.

Archbishop Gibbons, accompanied by his secretary and three clergymen, will leave New York for Rome on the 22d proximo.

After making his regular decennial report to the Pope, he will make the tour of Europe during the summer.

Death of Dr. Langdon.

Information has been received from the relatives, as also by Dr. H. G. Plummer, through the medium of a letter from his brother, now in California, of the death, at Stockton, Cal., of Dr. Langdon, Dr. Samuel Langdon, a native and for many years a resident of Wilmington.

Dr. Langdon removed to California in 1849, when the gold fever broke out and has since remained there. After receiving his diploma he practiced for a short time here and in Onslow county before removing from this State. He would have been 58 years of age had he lived but one day longer. He was for many years Superintendent of the California State Insane Asylum but for the past few years conducted an asylum of his own wherein the insane of the State of Nevada were cared for.

Assessors for the County.

The County Commissioners, at their regular monthly meeting next Monday afternoon, will make the appointment of assessors for taxing the county taxes for the ensuing year. Although these appointments will be styled Assessors, still there is to be no new assessment of property, and will be none according to the reading of the law until the Legislature so orders. Is there not something wrong about this? We have half a mind to write a private letter of inquiry to the Secretary of State so as to give him an opportunity of sending out another printed letter to the dear people. Or, may be, the Governor might be induced to call another extra session, i. e. if the $80,000 deposit wasn't all used up at the recent very extraordinary session of our gifted (no pun intended) law-makers.

Correction.

Time is a great appeaser as well as a great healer. When we read in the REVIEW last night—after correcting the sentence in the proof—in the article headed "A Trip to Raleigh," that Mr. R. K. Bryan, Senator from New Hanover county, voted for the bill, and gave as his reason therefor, instead of therefor, as we wrote it in the copy and corrected it in the proof, we determined on fearful things. But upon reflection we concluded that it was human to err and divine to forgive. Consequently we have forgiven our ever blessed (?) typo, and hope those of our readers who were considerate enough to wade through the article, will do the same for the error named above, as well as for others that were made by the printer in the same article.
