Complimentary.

We notice in the Savannah Sunday Telegram a very complimentary allusion to Col. S. L. Fremont, of this city, who is now in charge of the Sayannah Harbor Improvements. The Telegram [records a visit made by Gen. Gillmore, who is in charge of the works on the South Atlantic coast. Gen, Gilmore was accompanied by Col. S. L. Fremont, First Engineer in charge of that district, and Col. Gustavus A. Karwiese, Supervising Engineer in charge of the Savannah River Improvements, under the McKay contract. We quote from the Telegram :

They proceeded to Tybee, where General Gillmore took personal observation with regard to that point and points washed by the Atlantic Ocean at high sea. A re-survey of the shore has been decided upon

The Festival To-Night.

Those who fail to attend the Festival given at the City Hall this evening by the Mite Society of St. James' Church, will miss a real treat. The ladies inters ested have made ample preparations to appease the appetites of all who may be there and the delicacies which have been prepared will be sold low enough to sate isfy all reasonable demands. The bill of fare, which we print in another column. is an enticing one, and we know of at least one good-looking individual, who sits not very far from the end of this lead pencil, who will be drawn by it to the City Hall to-night. It affords us much pleasure to be able to announce that Major Graham Daves has accepted an invitation from the Ladies' Memorial Association of Wilmington to deliver the next annual address before that Association on Memorial Day.

The 26th day of A pril has been selected as the occasion this year for commemorating the day on which all Southern hearts are bowed in grief and sorrow for those who yielded up their lives upon their country's altar, in defence of the priceless boon of constitutional liberty. We congratulate the Association upon their selection of an orator. No truer Confederate, no more devoted patriot, and no more therough Carolinian ever drew a sword in defence of the "Lost Cause" than Msjer Graham Daves. Of a refined nature, high-toned in feeling and chivalrous in sentiment Major Daves is a type of a North Caros the cause which we all once loved se well, as well as by his cultured tastes, Major D. is, we think, peculiarly fitted for the position with which he has been
