Mr. Best and the A & N. C. R. R. Our information in regard to Mr. Best's movements and intentions, as published by us in Friday's REVIEW, proves to have been correct. He did go to Newbern and evidently for the pur pose stated by us, as the following from the Nut Shell of that city of Saturday's date will show;

held a meeting last night and, we learn, entertained a proposition from Mr. Best in reference to leasing the road. The proposition was not accepted at once, but there will be another meeting of the Directors to-day, and as it will no doubt be to the interest of the road, and accord with the wishes of the stockholders, the lease will be made. But what Mr. Best wants with the A & N. C. R. R., in view of the fact that it is now entirely controlled by the R. & D.R. R. , who also are the legsees of the long line of railway between Goldsboro and Charlotte, or what Mr. Best will do with this elephant, should be get pessession of it, we are utterly unable to imagine.

New Enterprise.

A factory for the manufacture of shirts has been established in this city by Mr. J. Elsbach, with a depot at No. Market street. The goods offered by Mr E. are of good quality and are nicely made. We have examined some of them and to our eye they look the same as ether shirts offered in this market. The manufacturer, who is an expe ienced workman on shirts, guarantees that they are equal to any goods offered in this city. See his advertisement in another column.

Death of Officer Biddle,

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. W. H. Biddle, which occurred after a short illness of a few days, at his residence in this city at 9 o'clock this morning. The deceased has filled several offices at differ ent periods in this county since his advent here from Ouslow county many years ago, and was always faithful to his trust. For a good many years he was Deputy. Sheriff under the late S. R. Bunting, while the latter was High Sheriff of New Hanover county. He was also Jailor under Sheriff Vann before the war, and at an. other time was Constable in one of the divisions of the then town of Wilming ton. A Six Months Thratre.

We clip this from the Charlotte Observer: It is stated on good authority that Office City Clerk & Treasurer, a theatrical man who passed through the city with one of the roupes this spring, engaged a house in the city. with the purpose of establishing nex fall a theatre, bar and billiard saloon. He stated that he would engage ten actresses and ten female beer slingers. For six months in the year be would give performance every night in Charlotte and the other six months he would devote to the moral improvement of Wi'mington, He claimed that there would be nothing improper in the confluct of the theatre or in the performances. The house which he is said to have engaged is one which is admirably adapted to the purposes of a vari ty theatre and arrangements for it, lease are said to have been actually made. How will this go down with the bosor able Board of Aldermen?
