Green Peas.

It seems that the truck farms in this vicinity did not escape entirely from injury during the recent cold weather. Those in the vicinity of Rocky Point, were injured materially. At first it was feared that the peas were finally ruined but the warm weather has since brought them out wonderfully. Picking will commence this week and next week lots of them will go forward to the Northern markets,

City Court.

C. B. Nolan, a tourist of the commer cial class, all the way from Manhattanville, New York, was arraigned at the Bar of the Court this morning, charged with being drunk and disorderly and resisting the police. His defence was that it was not himself, but whiskey, that made the rumpuss. The Mayor by repeated quess tions finally drew out of the defendant that himself and partner were here in some manufacturing interests and had been in the city four days, but by reference to the Treasurer's books it was discovered that there was no record of any license having been issued to the party named by defendant. The Court then ordered the prisoner remanded to the cell pending a further consideration of the case. Upon hearing this, the defendant Is your life worth '25 cents? Narro w Escape From Death.

A young lady of this city narrowly escaped death by asphyxia on Thursday night last. Having been out to an entertainment she retired about 12 o'clock, want to be locked up and would pay any after turning off the gas. There proved fine that might be imposed upon him if he to be a leak in the pipe near the bracket it. It is the cheapest article in the world and by early morning the room was filled with gas. She awoke about 6 o clock with a feeling of very great oppression and had hardly the consciousness to throw off her lethargy, but finally with almost unnatural vigor she bounded from her couch and threw the windows wide open, While trying to ventilate the room she discovered that her senses were freely permeated with the treacherous gas and rushed to the sleeping apartment of her mother and fell in a swoon at the door. Just before she lost all consciousness she gasped the word "gas." Medical assistance was summoned and antidotes and restoratives applied. We are glad to know that she has entirely recovered from the
