Postponed Until Friday.

The weather this morning was so unpleasant after all the promises of fair weather which had been made, that the management of the excursion which was to have taken place down the river today wisely concluded to postpone it until Friday. This was also the desire of many who wanted to go but who would not venture in such weather as we had this morning. Therefore, ladies and gentlemen, the promises made for today will hold good for Friday when we trust that the weather will be fair and that everybody will have a good time.

Judge Cantwell's Lecture.

One of the finest audiences, in point of numbers, that has yet attended the reading of the series of papers before the Historical and Scientific Society, was assembled last evening to hear Judge Cantwell's lecture on Fort Johnson. It was a pleasant paper, well and carefully prepared, and was heard with much interest.

A very interesting historical sketch of the old Fort was given and one fact at least was introduced which was unknown to many of the audience, even to those best acquainted with the history of the Cape Fear section. This was in reference to the demand made upon Governor Tryon for the surrender of James Houston, the royal stamp-master, who was appointed for the purpose of distributing the stamps which arrived at old Brunswick on the Diligence and which, it will be remembered, Coles Ashe and Waddell, at the head of their militia regiments, refused to allow to be landed. It is the first time we have ever heard of Cornelius Harnett as the leader of this expedition and the author of this demand for the surrender of Houston and yet it is historically true as Judge Cantwell derives his authority from Tryon's letter-book, which is now in Raleigh. He has promised to hand us a copy of the document, in a day or two, for publication.

Judge Cantwell's lecture was in every way pleasing and interesting and would bear a repetition here at an early day.

An infallible remedy for Fever and Ague is AYER'S AGUE CURE. Wholly vegetable and containing no quinine, it is harmless and sure.

Married. General J. C. Abbott, Ex-U. S. Senator, and Miss Ellen C. Tasker were married in this city this morning, by the Rev. T. M. Ambler. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple took the train for a tour through the South.

Mrs. Jarley's Wax Figures. By request the Gleaves Combination will repeat their performance at the Opera House on Wednesday evening next. There will be some changes in the programme and the management promises an unusually attractive bill.

The Famous Swimmer. Capt. Paul Boyton, the famous swimmer, passed through the city last night for Charleston, where he will exhibit on Friday. He proposes, if the necessary arrangements can be made here, to stop over in Wilmington on Saturday, but we think it doubtful if he gives an exhibition here. Saturday is the only day at his command now as he is to exhibit in Norfolk on Monday and is then obliged to go North to fill engagements.

Ready mixed Paints, strictly pure White Lead, Colors, Brushes, Window Glass, &c., at JACOBI'S.

Convicted of Manslaughter. The Superior Court of Brunswick county, Judge Eure presiding, which has been in session at Smithville for several days past, will adjourn this afternoon. Bob Everett, who inflicted fatal wounds in the omentum of his half brother, George Everett, on the evening of the 7th of January last, was tried for murder, but the evidence was not sufficient to convict. The jury returned a verdict of manslaughter and Everett was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary.

Plows, Shovels, Pitchforks, Spades Rakes, Trace Chains, Plow Lines, &c. For the lowest prices, go to JACOBI'S.

Back Again. Mr. Roddick, of the firm of Brown & Roddick, has returned to the city after an absence of a month at the North, where he has been, strictly and solely, in the interest of his patrons. He brought piles upon piles of goods for the Spring and Summer trade, and the thing which seems to bother the firm now is as to where they will put them all. We respectfully suggest that they need not borrow any trouble of this kind as their customers will solve this question for them; they will find where to put these new goods and they will "put" them all over the town and the country, too.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

A Success. The shirt factory recently established in this city by Mr. J. Elsbach has proven to be a greater success than it was expected to be so soon after its establishment. The citizens of the city are encouraging the enterprise and country merchants are buying largely of the "Royal" and "Congress" shirts, with which to supply their retail trade. Mr. Elsbach is now working thirty hands and as his business is increasing he finds he will have to employ more help. It always gives us pleasure to chronicle the success of any Wilmington enterprise and we hope ere long to see the business grow so large as to require Mr. Elsbach to employ hundreds of workmen.

Everybody can get suited with a Pocket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Wrightsville Beach. The beach at Wrightsville Sound has been leased by Mr. Geo. Harris to the Steamboat Company. Mr. Harris having let the beach pass out of his hands gave notice sometime ago through the columns of the Review that persons were warned not to trespass. He had given permission to a number of persons to use it at their pleasure, but after he had leased it had to revoke these permits. The Steamboat Company are going to run a small steamer to the beach during the summer and persons wishing to visit the beach can do so at any time as the steamer will make regular trips, and is so constructed that she can ply to and from the beach at any stage of the tide.

Never mind about the cool weather. I is always Spring-time at this season of the year at Shrier's, where will be found the most elegant and the cheapest assortment of clothing in the State of North Carolina.

Meeting of the Congressional Executive Committee.

Pursuant to notice published in the district papers by the Chairman, the Committee met in the Reading Room of the Parcell House this morning, at 11 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Captain Chas. D. Myers, of New Hanover. Dr. W. T. Ennett, of Pender, was requested to act as Secretary. The Secretary was then furnished with a list of the members of the Committee and proceeded to call the roll when the following named gentlemen answered present to the call of their names, to wit: Chas. D. Myers, New Hanover; Jas. B. Smith, Cumberland; James Kenan, Duplin; J. W. Shackelford, Onslow; W. E. Howland, Carteret; W. T. Ennett, Pender; V. V. Richardson, Columbus; W. G. Curtis, Brunswick; Mr. D. G. Morrissey, of Sampson, was represented by proxy in the person of Mr. J. A. Ferrell; Dr. W. T. Ennett held the proxy for Messrs. C. P. Parker, of Bladen and W. J. Stewart, of Moore; Mr. Jas. B. Smith, of Cumberland, held the proxy for Mr. M. V. Prince, of Harnett.

On motion of Mr. Howland, of Carteret, it was agreed that all voting should be done by ballot. Captain Kenan, of Duplin, desired to know what majority should govern in the committee; whether the two-thirds rule as usual in the Convention, or a simple majority should prevail. The Committee decided that a simple majority in committee business was all that was necessary.

The next business in order being the selection of a place for holding the District Convention, Mr. Howland, of Carteret, placed in nomination Beaufort which was warmly seconded and endorsed by Mr. Shackelford, of Onslow, who claimed that his section had never received anything, and he thought that their wishes might be granted in this particular instance. Mr. Smith, of Cumberland, put in nomination Fayetteville. Balloting was then proceeded with which resulted as follows: For Fayetteville 6 votes; for Beaufort 5; total cast, 11, the Chairman declining to vote as there was no tie. Fayetteville was then announced by the Chair as being the place selected for holding the next Democratic Convention for this Congressional District. The time of meeting was the next question which came up for consideration, which was finally decided after a general discussion and an interchange of ideas and opinions, upon the first Wednesday in June, (the 2nd day of the month) at 12 o'clock. This motion was made by Captain Richardson, of Columbus, and was carried unanimously. On motion of Dr. Ennett the Chairman was requested to secure a reduction of railroad and steamboat fare for delegates to the Convention.

On motion of Mr. Shackelford, of Onslow, a resolution was passed requesting the proceedings of this meeting. After many pleasant little exchanges of compliments and of suggestions as to the nominee of the convention paying the expenses of the delegates, the meeting upon motion of Mr. Smith, of Cumberland, after a very harmonious session of an hour and a half adjourned sine die.

P. S. The Committee were then invited by the Chairman to step across the street to see a man, (nothing was said about reporters) for which courtesy we return thanks to the Chairman as we were quite busy about that time and could not possibly have spared the time right then.

Archery Goods and Archery. Mr. C. W. Yates has some very handsome archery goods displayed in his show window. The goods are the prettiest of the kind we have ever seen. Archery, as an exercise, and out-door exercise at that, is recommended by medical men and we would be glad to see one or more clubs in existence here. Besides, young ladies, the position required for the drawing of an arrow to its head, as strung in the bow, is one of the most charming known and brings forward, to the best advantage, the most beautiful points of the female figure.

Great News. It is great news indeed that there is at last a remedy (Warner's Safe Nerve) which will relieve all kinds of pain and give rest and sleep without injury to the system. The discoverer of this remedy is considered the most skillful nerve doctor in the world.

A Pathetic Incident.

A pathetic scene was enacted in the Guard Room at the City Hall, this morning, which we wish for the sake of morality we could say had a happy and pleasant ending, but alas for human frailty, the exact reverse was the finale of this most affecting scene. It seems that one of the inmates of Paddy's Hollow, a young white woman, of respectable parentage, but respectable habits, had a quarrel this morning with her mulatto paramour, and being guilty of disorderly conduct was arrested by the police and carried to the Guard House and locked up in a cell. It so happens that this unfortunate creature has an uncle living in the country some 27 miles distant from this place, who has been very much grieved and mortified at the course pursued by the daughter of his dead brother, and this morning this near relation of the degraded girl was in the city on a visit for some purpose, during which time he took occasion to make a search for the fallen one for the purpose of reclaiming her from the path and haunts of vice back to the pure home of her childhood. Pursuing his researches vigilantly and diligently after his lost one the old man soon traced the erring girl up to the City Hall where he discovered that the object of his search was imprisoned in a cell. Requesting the privilege of an interview he was conveyed down stairs to the place of confinement of his unhappy relative when the bolt to the cell was thrown back and the door swinging open on its hinges revealed the uncle and niece in full view of each other. The poor creature, with piteous cries fell sorrowing into her uncle's arms, which were open to receive her, while the strong man lost all control of himself and wept like a child. The scene is described by those who witnessed it as being most affecting indeed. The wayward girl was bailed out of prison and the uncle determined to take her away with him on the train to-night. But now comes the sad part of this most unhappy affair; no sooner had the girl been released from prison, than she who had bartered her priceless jewel of virtue managed to elude the tender and forgiving relative and when last seen was beastly drunk in one of the low groggeries in the classic precincts of Paddy's Hollow. Whether the uncle will still continue his endeavors to redeem this poor, degraded, unfortunate and unhappy human being we are unable to say at present.

An Unfortunate Waif.

A young lad, about 13 years of age, was picked up by the police in Paddy's Hollow last night and taken to the guard house. There was no complaint of disorderly or drunken conduct against him, but he was taken in custody because he stated that he had neither friends nor home to go to. He claims to hail from Conwayboro, S. C., from which place he ran away on account of the cruel treatment he received at the hands of those who had him in charge. This morning Mr. F. M. James, Health Officer of the city, took the boy to his house and will care for him until he learns something more definite concerning him. That the lad had been brutally treated is pretty evident from the fact that his wrists bear the marks of a rope, which he says was when he was tied when about to be whipped. The name of the unfortunate fellow, we learn, is Newbold.
