SPRING
ANNOUNCEMENT!

BROWN & RODDICK
45 Market St.

IT IS A WELL KNOWN FACT that the Largest Buyers are the Cheapest Sellers, and the public who are always keenly alive to their own interest, have, by their patronage and support, enabled us to offer them advantages which the most ardent supporters of co-operation would seek far to outvie. In point of choice and extent our stock is unrivalled in this section of the country.

Maj. Frank H. Cameron, formerly of this city, but now of Raleigh, was married in Selma, Ala., on Monday last, to Miss Eugenie LeGrand, youngest daughter of Leroy G. Weaver, Esq. The happy folks are expected in Raleigh to-morrow.

New Clothes.
The Charleston News & Courier has come out with a new set of type throughout, and makes a fine typographic appearance. We are glad to note this evidence of its success, and hope it may continue to be blessed by the favoring gales of fortune. It is one of the leading papers in the United States and is managed with signal ability by its proprietors, Messrs. Riordean & Dawson. Captain Dawson was a gallant Confed., although an Englishman born and bred, and that is another reason why we are glad that the News is prospering.

Again we would remind our readers to call on Messrs. A. & I. Shrier and examine the immense stock of Men's, Youth's and Boys' Clothing, which they are selling at extremely low prices. They have also received a handsome stock of latest styles Straw and Felt Hats.

The Vacancy in the Board of Alder- men.

In further argument of the position we assumed yesterday in regard to the vacancy on the Board of Aldermen from the Second Ward, we will rise again to remark that it was agreed by the general committee of delegates from the different wards—appointed to decide the question as to whether we should appeal to the Legislature to reappoint the old Board of Aldermen or proceed to an election in the different wards—that whenever a vacancy occurred the Board of Aldermen must allow the ward in which the vacancy may exist to name the man to fill the vacancy, and that the wishes of the ward in this particular would be respected. This was guaranteed by the general committee, a majority of whom favored the reappointment of the old Board. The Second Ward, through their delegates, it will be remembered, held out for a long time in opposition to a re-appointment by the Legislature, but when they received this assurance they gracefully yielded and made the petition to the legislature to re-appoint the old Board unanimous. As a matter of course then we expect the Board of Aldermen to fulfill the promise which was made by their friends in good faith and accepted in like manner by those who did not agree to the first proposition for reappointment until after the promise referred to above was given and accepted.

Judge Cantwell's Lecture.

It is very much to be regretted that the weather was so inclement as to prevent a full attendance at the Opera House last evening on the occasion of the delivery of Judge Cantwell's lecture on Fort Johnson. As it was, a few braved the elements and they were amply repaid.
We trust that our young friends of the Philomathean will not feel discouraged but that they will again make an effort, and at an early and more propitious occasion, to cater to the intellectual tastes of the community.

A Remarkable Wedding.

Mr. Lott Croom, a highly esteemed citizen of Holly township, Pender county, of just four-score years, led to the altar yesterday in Caintuck township, a blooming widow of just three-score years, and the two were made one. Mrs. R. A. Mc-Gowan was the happy bride, who now rejoices in being the fourth wife of the bridegroom. Our informant did not state whether the happy young couple proposed making an extended bridal tour, but we suppose as it is no new thing to either of the fortunate pair, that they will just settle down in a matter of fact way, and enjoy their remaining days like young cooing doves, who have cooed before.

Everybody can get suited with a Pocket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

New Telegraph Line.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer says:
The new telegraph line from Wilmington to Charlotte, now being constructed by the Western Union Telegraph Company, is completed as far as Rockingham, and the work is being rapidly pushed forward. This line is to be used exclusively for commercial purposes, and supplies a need which has been long felt.
The line now in operation belongs to the Carolina Central Railway.

Plows, Shovels, Pitchforks, Spade Rakes, Trace Chains, Plow Lines, &c. For the lowest prices, go to JACOBI'S.

Two Appropriations.

There are two items of interest from Washington City. One is that an appropriation of $65,000 has been recommended for the purpose of building a public building in Wilmington and the other that in the River and Harbor bill $40,000 for the Cape Fear river is among the items reported. Whether the latter appropriation will be sufficient for the purpose for which it is designed we are not informed but opine that it is not. The appropriation for the public building is, we imagine, the result of Judge Russell's efforts and is an evidence that, if he is a Republican and a Greenbacker, he has not forgotten that he is also a Wilmingtonian. The proposed new edifice is intended for a Postoffice and a Federal Court Room.

Happiness and prosperity depend to a very great extent upon good health. All those suffering from Hoarseness, Colds or Coughs, should try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It cures and costs only 25 cents.

Death of Mr. Roberts.

Mr. J. DeBernia Roberts, a gentleman well-known to some of the residents of this city, where he had relatives, died in Charleston on the 28th ult, last Wednesday, of consumption. Deceased was the son of an Episcopal minister, formerly of Newbern, but for many years since the war a resident of New York, and a grandson of Archibald McLane Hooper, early in this century one of the most prominent representatives of the Cape Fear section. Mr. Roberts was during the war in the Confederate navy and was stationed in Wilmington for some time. After the close of the war he removed to New York and a year or so ago was sent South by his physicians. He came to Wilmington and went up on Black River to visit relations there. From there he went on last Summer to New York and must have been again ordered South, only to die in Charleston. He leaves a widow and several children.

Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Plow, parties in want of this celebrated Plow can now have their orders filled at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot, No. 10 S. Front st.

Advertising Cheats.

It has become so common to write the beginning of an elegant, interesting article and then run it into some advertisement that we avoid all such cheats and simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain honest terms as possible, to induce people to give them one trial, to no one who knows their value will ever use anything else.

The Burgaw Ticket.

The following is the municipal ticket which was elected at Burgaw on Monday last:

Mayor—M. M. Moore.
Marshal—M. R. Butler.
Commissioners—J. H. Tienken, A. H.
Paddison, W. E. Cowan, J. W. Cowan, S. H. Bell, A. H. Williams, W. H. Herring.

This is not exactly a straight-out Democratic ticket but must be classed as "scratched." There was a regular Democratic ticket in the field, but there was not enough to go round and so things got slightly mixed. The newly elected officials are all Democrats, however, except Messrs. Butler, W. E. Cowan and Bell. Mr. J. H. Moore was the regular nominee of the party for Mayor, but he was beaten by his brother, Mr. M. M.
Moore, by one vote.

U. S. District Court.

The attention of the Court has been taken up today with the following cases: Henry Harris—Retailing liquor without a license—Verdict, not guilty.
Henry Harris—Retailing tobacco without a license—Verdict, guilty. Sentence not yet pronounced.
T. J. Douglass—Retailing liquor with-
not yet pronounced.
H. Oglesby—Dealing in liquor without a license—Not pros, with leave.
Julius Caton—Having tobacco in possession without the necessary stamps, Not pros, with leave.

A. Caton—Wholesale liquor dealer, without a license, in two cases, Not pros, with leave.

I. L. Delby—Wholesale liquor dealer, without a license, Not pros, with leave.
W. H. Craig—Sci Fa—Judgment for one penny and costs.

Cavin McCoy—Sci Fa. Judgment final according to Sci. Fa.
John Rogers—Retailing liquor without a license. Case still on trial.

Mr. Best's New Scheme.

We understood yesterday that the object of Mr. Best's visit to our city last week was in connection with a project which he now has on hand for building a railroad from Salisbury to Wadesboro. He wants aid in the enterprise and looks to the owners of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R., and to the citizens of Wilmington for assistance. What the response will be has not as yet, it seems, been fully decided upon. Mr. Best, we understand, professes considerable regard for Wilmington, and is willing in this way to aid our city; but we opine that Mr.
Best's regard, first and foremost, is for his own interests.

The Eastern terminus of the Western North Carolina R. R. is at Salisbury. By building a new road from Salisbury to Wadesboro, Mr. Best will be in close connection with both Wilmington and Charleston, with the former by two routes, and with the latter by one only. If we are not mistaken the same interest which controls the W., C. & A.
R. R. also controls the North Eastern, from Florence to Charleston, the Cheraw & Darlington and the Cheraw & Wadesboro. At Florence the division between Wilmington and Charleston will come in and as Florence is about equi-distant from both cities and the roads leading thereto are under the same control it will be difficult to see how any peculiar advantage is to be derived by Wilmington from this new proposed coalition with Mr. Best. This gentleman, understand, will find everything bunki-dory for himself. He could thus use the entire line of his road from Asheville (or Paint Rock) to Salisbury and could probably impose a heavy tariff on all he carries.

If Mr. Best is in earnest in seeking an outlet at Wilmington let him build a connection between Hickory and Lincoln, or let him buy the Carolina Central (as it has been rumored that he will do) and make his connections anywhere to suit himself. He will then have a shortcut of his own and a long line of railway which will penetrate from the sea coast beyond the Blue Ridge.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Malaria Destroyed.
G. J. S. Gaskin, of Brockville, Canada, certifies that he was prostrated by a malaria disease contracted in Texas, and was quickly and completely cured by the use of Warner's Safe Pills and Safe Bitters. He adds "I shall never travel in that climate without Warner's Safe Pills and Bitters as a part of my baggage."

TRIBUNE OF RESPECT.

At a regular meeting of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, K. of P., held at their Castle Hall, May 3d, 1880, a Committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions expressive of their sorrow in the death of Col. H. G. Flanner, a member of said Lodge, who reported the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, Death having removed from our Lodge our Brother Henry G. Flanner, and whereas it is but meet and proper that we who knew him as a Brother and as a friend should record our sorrow at his untimely end and our appreciation of his manly character and his true worth.
Be it Resolved, That in the death of Brother Flanner, not only this Lodge, but the Order at large, has lost one whose zeal in the cause of Pythian Knighthood had, and would in future have done much to build it up, a tower of strength and usefulness in the land.
Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathies to his family and friends; and while we mourn with them their loss, we have faith in Almighty God and the promise He has given us that we shall meet our brother again.
Resolved, That out of respect to his memory our castle hall be draped in mourning, that the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that on a blank page in our minute book be inscribed these resolutions, together with the name, age and date of death of our brother.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, and published in the city papers.

G. W. THAMES,
JNO. J. FOWLER, Com.
R. W. PRICE.

Important to the Afflicted

We would advise all who may need the advice of a physician, to either call or write to Dr. Robertson, 19, So. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., who from 15 years experience in Hospital and Special Practice, guarantees a cure in all diseases of the Urinary Organs and of the Nervous System, Organic and Seminal Weakness, Impotency (loss of sexual power), Nervous Debility and trembling, Palpitation of the Heart, dimness of sight or giddiness, Noturnal Emissions, &c., all resulting from abuses in youth, or excesses in manhood; also all skin and blood diseases quickly cured. Dr. R. is a graduate of one of the oldest and best medical schools in this country (University of Maryland), and refers to the leading physicians in his city, and all consulting him can rely upon honorable and confidential treatment. In writing enclose stamp for reply. Special attention given to all female complaints. Good accommodations for all wishing to call and see him. Medicine sent to any address.

Dissolution.

THE COPARTNERSHIP lately existing between John L. Boatwright and Thos.
H. McCoy, under the firm name of BOAT-WRIGHT & MCKOY, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.
All debts due or owing to the said partnership must be paid to Thos. H. McCoy, who is alone authorized to receipt for the same, and all claims and indebtedness due by said partnership must be presented to him for payment.
JOHN L. BOATWRIGHT,
THOS. H. MCKOY.

A Card.

AS WILL BE SEEN BY the above advertisement, I have this day sold my interest in the business to my partner, Thos.
H. McCoy, and while thanking our many friends for the very generous patronage so kindly given us in the past, I respectfully ask that the same and even more be given the new concern in the future.
Respectfully,
JNO. L. BOATWRIGHT.

HAVING PURCHASED the entire interest of John L. Boatwright in the business of the late firm of Boatwright & Mc-Koy, I will continue to carry on the Grocery business at the old stand, Nos. 5 and 7 North Front Street, and hope for a continuance of the public patronage so liberally bestowed upon the late firm, and I particularly request all debtors of the firm to come forward and settle up their accounts, for it is impossible for me to run a business without them.
am, respectfully,
April 30, 1880. THOS. H. MCKOY.

Keep them for sale shut up in tin cans, and when put up in that shape are made useful for Souad Parties with Dressed Ham, Lobster, Salmon, Pickles, Sweetmeats and Con-dials, and all other Wayside and Seaside Luxuries.
When you meet a fellow running for Congress, ask him where's Panama, and if he gets mad he's a Soft Crab. When you are offered "cheap" Groceries look out for Soft Crabs! You can't buy Butter for 20 cents.
All the French chemists in the world can't make Butter out of churn handles and cow grease. Some Soft Crabs are grocers, some candidates, and some, alas, in other callings.
A tradesman has a right to use and ought to use every fair advantage he can to undersell his competitors, get the lead and outstrip competition. If he don't he is a Soft Crab. We have a large, active and increasing volume of trade, and prefer it to small sales and big profits. The Soft Crabs travel on narrow gauge principles; switch off when they see the Fast Train, but the Fast Train carries the Express and the Mail. If you want the best Groceries to be had for money;
