Magistrate's Court.
William Collins, colored, was arrested yesterday evening charged with unmercifully beating his son, who is but about 13 years of age, and upon a hearing of the case before Justice Millis, the charge was sustained, but judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs.

Personal.
We had the pleasure yesterday of a visit from Dr. W. C. Galloway, a practicing physician at Snow Hill, Greene county, and also the editor of the Greene county Advocate. Dr. G. is here as a delegate in attendance upon the Convention of the State Medical Society.

There is no excuse for those who drag their weary and disordered bodies into our company, when a few doses of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA would cleanse their murky blood and restore their health and vigor.
Ye muddy victims of bilious disease, have regard for your neighbors, if not for yourselves.

Excursion.
An excursion party, about two hundred strong, arrived in this city this morning from Smithville by the steam yacht Paseport. Most of the excursionists landed at Market street dock, but a few went up to Hilton to picnic there.
The excursion was given for the benefit of the Episcopal and Methodist Churches at Smithville.

Charles King and J. P. Spann, both colored, got into an altercation this afternoon at Robinson's shoe shop, on Second, between Market and Princess streets, when the former seized a shoe knife and struck at the latter, cutting him severely across both thighs. Bystanders interfered and King was arrested and taken to the guard house.

Historical Lectures.
Judge Cantwell delivers a series of lectures at Lumberton this week, commencing to-night with his admirable lecture upon 'Fort Johnson, or the Insurrection of 1776,' to be followed to-morrow night by a lecture upon 'Ben Franklin, the Philosopher and Secessionist'; and on Wednesday night 'Fort Barnwell and the Tuscarora Insurrection of 1712.' The Judge also proposes visiting Elizabethtown, Fayetteville, Clinton, Smithville, Burgaw and other places to which he has been invited, in a week or so here.

Again we would remind our readers to call on Messrs. A. & I. Shrier and exam-this morning. The address will be deliv-

Attention!—If you Please.
We invite the attention of every reader of the REVIEW to an extract from the capital, excellent, and superbly expressed sentiments of Senator Vest, from Missouri, upon the Spofford-Kellogg question, to be found on our editorial page to day. No such speech has been delivered in the Senate Chamber during this session, and no better speech has been delivered there since the war. We only wish that time and space would permit us to do justice to the distinguished gentleman's argument by publishing his entire speech, but this, unfortunately for us and for the Democratic cause in this section, we cannot do.

Fire in Pender.
We regret to learn that a very serious fire occurred on the premises of Mr. John Ormsby, in Grant township, Pender county, about 12 o'clock last night. Mr.
Ormsby, it seems, retired at his usual hour about 9 o'clock, and some hours after that was awakened by the lurid glare and crackling of the flames, to find that his barn was on fire. With no help at hand, it was impossible to stay the flames and the barn with all its contents, corn, provender, farming implements and tools were entirely destroyed. This was deplorable enough, but then the stables caught and two horses together with harness, vehicles and everything that was useful to a farm, was burnt up also.

We are not able to estimate the extent of the loss, only this far, that it was all the poor man had for the maintenance of his family, which is a large one. There was no insurance on anything. The fire is thought to have been the work of some demon of an incendiary. If some of these devils or fiends in human shape could be caught in the act, we think a summary punishment of the villain would have a wholesome effect. The people of this section are a very law-abiding people and have put up for a long time with the outrages of a certain class of people, but then there is a limit to human endurance sometimes.

Malaria Destroyed.
G. A. J. Gadbois, of Breckville, Canada, certifies that he was prostrated by a malaria disease contracted in Texas, and was quickly and completely cured by the use of Warner's Safe Pills and Safe Bitters. He adds: "I shall never travel in that climate without your Safe Pills and Bitters as a part of my outfit."

Twenty-Seventh Annual Session of the North Carolina Medical Society.

MORNING SESSION.
At 11 o'clock the Convention was called to order by the President, Dr. J. F.
Shaffner, of Salem, and was formally opened by Rev. C. M. Payne with the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, author of all truth and grace, we desire to acknowledge Thee in all our ways and to beseech Thee to direct us in all our paths. We bless Thee for the light of Thy truth and that it has shined in our darkened world. We bless Thee for the benefits of christian civilization, the developments of christian science, and the benefits of christian philanthropy. O Lord, our God, we invoke Thy divine blessing and favor upon this convention, be with its officers and members, preside over its deliberations, overrule every thing for our development. Bless every member of this body, bless them in their homes, their fields of labor and their work. Aid these members in all their efforts to minister to a suffering world, make them God-fearing men, men of prayer, and above all followers of the great physician. Help every one of us to make Him our great pattern and to so follow Him in this life of service, that we may at last receive from Him the plaudits, 'well done' in glory. Graciously pardon our sins and grant a blessing upon us, we ask for Jesus' sake.—Amen.

Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy then arose and welcomed the visiting members of the medical fraternity to Wilmington in the following appropriate address:

Mr. President and gentlemen of the Medical Society of North Carolina: It is indeed a pleasant duty which has been assigned me by the New Hanover County Medical Association to greet you, and to extend to you a hearty welcome to the hospitality of the city of Wilmington. We esteem it a great honor you confer upon us, in holding this year Twenty-seventh Annual Convention in our midst, and we assure you that no efforts will be spared, in providing for your comfort, your pleasure and your happiness. It has been just ten years since you met in annual session in this city, and many there were whose warm grasps of the hand then impressed us, whose cheery faces, genial smiles and familiar voices then encouraged us, who now lie in the silent tomb. In no decade in the history of our country have so many changes been wrought in our political, financial and social condition. Wars and rumors of wars in Europe, political dissensions and financial panics in America, one would think, had well nigh distracted the public mind—but during this period a new impetus has been given to the arts and sciences, and many new and valuable discoveries and inventions have been made. While more rapid strides may have been made in the sister sciences, medical science has had its votaries, whose labors of love and indefatigable effort have been crowned with success. And their legacies bequeathed to posterity for all time to come, will be monuments more lasting than brass—for as has been said and well expressed by a distinguished divine in our midst, 'He who deserves a monument needs none to perpetuate his memory.' You have come here as conservators of the public health, in the interest of science, and for the alleviation of human suffering —not merely for a brief respite from the daily round of professional toil, to rekindle social feelings, to renew old acquaintances or to strengthen the ties of friendship, but to join in the common work by which medicine is to become more perfect as an art, more exact as a science and more honorable as a profession. (Applause.) So then all join heads, hearts and hands together to the work before you, and when your labors are over, or a respite is afforded then I trust with propitious weather we may all enjoy together a ride upon the placid waters of the Cape Fear, a river, though not known in song as the 'Swannanna nymph of beauty,' yet upon its shore, and on its bosom have transpired events the history of which we all cherish and love to relate. (Applause.)

And now Mr. President and gentlemen, in conclusion I again in the name of the profession and of the citizens of Wilmington, extend to you a most cordial welcome.
Dr W C Murphy moved that the Rev C M Payne, M D, be invited to a seat in this Convention. Carried.

The Secretary, Dr L Julian Picot, of Littleton, then called the roll of members, and the following were reported present: Drs N J Pittman of Tarboro; S S Satchwell, of Rocky Point; H W Faison, Faison's Depot; Allman Holmes, C T Murphy, Clinton; Hugh Kelly, Statesville; J

The President appointed the following committees:

CREDENTIALS.
Doctors J J Sumner, W W Lane,
Allman Holmes.

FINANCE.

Doctors R L Payne, Geo A Foote, N S Wenderson.

Upon suggestion of Dr Satchwell, Doctors Hugh Kelly, and J F Long were appointed a committee on Obituaries.

Upon motion, the Convention adjourned until 8 o'clock this afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention was called to order at 3 o'clock. Dr. W. W. Lane, on the part of the Committee on Credentials, reported that Doctors Ed De La Rose, King and H S Norcum were in possession of their certificates before the passage of the bill by the legislature, requiring each physician to obtain a certificate from the Board of Examiners of the State Medical Society, was passed, and recommended that the following newly-examined physicians, having received their certificates, be admitted to the Society. Drs Richard Dillard, V L McNider, W C Galloway, K J Powers, J M Stansill, John T Schonwald, R H Adams, L W Hunter, W K Andrews, W P Mercer, and, upon motion they were admitted to membership in the Society.

Dr Long asked if the law requiring $5 as the minimum fee for the examination of a candidate for insurance applied to the examination of candidates for a Mysic Order with a beneficiary or insurance feature. After much discussion the sense of the convention was taken and it was decided that it did not apply to examination of candidates for such order as the Knights of Honor.

Dr J C Sheppard, of Pender, was received into membership of the Society.

Upon motion of Dr McDuffie, 10 o'clock to-morrow was determined as the time for the delivery of the annual oration.

Our reporter, at this juncture, was compelled to leave in order to have in his report in time to appear in this evening's issue.
