 The man who said that the temperance party was going to rise like a giant refreshed with wine, was rather unfortunate in his choice of a simile.

The Baby's cries are its only method of letting you know that it suffers and needs Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25 cents a bottle.
 The darkest hour is not just before the dawn, as has been stated some years ago, but it is just after the gas company has shut down on a delinquent.

Thanks to Mr. Geo. R. Dyer, the manager, for a complimentary ticket of admission to the entertainment to be given this evening in the Upper Tileston Room by the Thalian Amateurs.

We hear of a man who has made a fortune by attending to his own business. This is authentic. But then he had few competitors. Certainly in Wilmington he would have enjoyed a monopoly.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons holds its annual convention at Wilson, June 1st. The Grand Secretary states that arrangements for reduced fare have been made with the railways. The rate on most of them will be six cents per mile for round trip tickets.

When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. European plan. Rooms reduced to $1.00 and upwards. Restaurant unsurpassed at moderate prices. Street cars, stages and elevated railroad to all parts of the city.

Don't waste your time clipping at the branches, but lay your axe at the root of the tree. And the young man went out and laid his axe at the root of the tree, like a good and dutiful boy, and then went fishing. Truly, there is nothing so beautiful as filial obedience.

For bargains in clothing and gents' furnishing goods call on Messrs. A. & I. Shrier, 28 and 38 Market street. They certainly have a nice line of goods to select from at bottom prices, also a large stock of straw, and felt hats, trunks, etc., selling low. They have also the Renowned Diamond Shirt at $1; can't be beat at $1.25.

DOCTOR AYER'S LABORATORY, that has done such wonders for the sick, now issues a potent restorer for the beauty of mankind—for the comeliness which advancing age is so prone to diminish and destroy. His Vigor mounts luxuriant locks on the bald and gray pates among us, and thus lays us under obligations to him, for the good looks as well as health of the community.

Mental Strain Relieved.
 The Washington, D. C. 'Critic' says: 'It is intimated to us that members of the Senate and House are freely using Warner's Safe Nerve for relief of nervous prostration incident upon the severe strain upon their mental powers.'

House Warming.

Mr. F. A. Schutte will formally open his new house (the old Dr Wright place) on Wrightsville Sound to-night. There will be a 'kinder house warmin'' and a kinder free salute all around. The public are invited and we understand there will be quite a crowd in attendance.

Religious.

The services at the First Baptist church last night attracted quite a large congregation. In the discourse of Rev. Dr. Teasdale, the 'fatalist' was logically and scripturally beheaded, and the 'moral coward' was chased beyond the limits of a hiding place. At the close of the sermon six young persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Taylor, pastor of the church. To-night Dr. Teasdale will present the Bible picture of Hell.

Ready mixed Paints, strictly pure White Lead, Colors, Brushes, Window Glass, &c., at JACOBI'S

Cape Fear Light Artillery.

At the regular annual meeting of this Company, held last evening, the following commissioned officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year, viz:
 Captain—R. W. Price.
 First Lieutenant—E. A. Maffitt.
 Senior Second Lieutenant—Jas. Corbett
 Junior Second Lieutenant—J. H. Savage.

Fourteen new members were admitted into the Company at this meeting, a pleasing indication of a decided revival of interest.

Personal.

Mr. F. M. Agostini, Jr., of this city, who was so badly injured at the recent unfortunate accident at the Opera House in Atlanta, in his heroic efforts to rescue others from the flames, arrived here yesterday on a short visit to his family and friends. Mr. Agostini, we are glad to see, is in a fair way of entire recovery. His hands were badly burned, but the right hand has so far healed as to be free of bandages now, while the left hand is still helpless and is carried in a sling. He will spend about two weeks here and will then return to Atlanta and resume charge of his large and flourishing school.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Mr. Best's Outlet.

Our information relative to the connections made by Mr. Best with the R. & D. R. R. for an outlet at West Point, Va., as published by us a few days since, has been confirmed. We find the following in the New York Evening Post, of the 19th inst.

The managers of the Richmond and Danville Railroad, whose outlet is at West Point, Va., are said to be in the city conferring with the recent purchasers of the Western North Carolina Railroad about making the gauge of the two roads the same, in order that Western North Carolina may have unbroken communication by way of West Point, Va., with New York and Eastern cities.

Plows, Shovels, Pitchforks, Spades, Rakes, Trace Chains, Plow Lines, &c. For the lowest prices, go to JACOBI'S.

Children's Memorial Association.

At the annual meeting of the Children's Memorial Association, held at the school house in the rear of St. James' Church, on Tuesday evening last, the following officers and managers were elected:

President—Miss Roberta French.
 Vice President—Miss Mary Chaffin.
 Secretary—Miss Carrie Price.
 Treasurer—Miss Hannah Bolles.
 Managers—Misses Sue Meginnery, Bessie Ledford, Sarah Lippitt, Meggie Meares, Mary Cassidey, Belle Anderson, Johnnie Quince and Jennie Bernard.

Mrs. Wm L. Harlow and Miss Mary J Lippitt were elected Honorary Managers, having resigned their positions of President and Vice President.

Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Plow, parties in want of this celebrated Plow can now have their orders filled at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot, No. 10 S. Front st.

A boy can imagine almost anything; he can lug an old shot gun about all day without firing at a living thing and be under the impression that he's having a howling good time, but all attempts to induce him to imagine that he's killing Indians when he is sawing wood have proved futile.

"Above the Clouds" will be presented at the Tileston Upper Room this evening by the Thalian Amateurs. Those who go will find a pleasant entertainment prepared for them.

The Hook and Ladder Company.

The invited guests and members of the Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, assembled at their Hall last evening to celebrate the anniversary of the Company. The Hall was handsomely decorated, and the committee, Messrs. K. H. Grant, M. S. Willard and A. Gore, had prepared a handsome collation for the consideration of their guests and members. Upon invitation of Col. Roger Moore, the seats were taken around the festive board, and after the committee's efforts had been appreciated in a flattering manner, the following toasts were re-ponded to:

1. 'The day we celebrate'—20th May.—Associated as it is with so many patriotic events, we swell with pride (and lagor) at each annual celebration.
 Responded to by Mr. Thomas E. Bond.

2. 'Our City Fire Department'—It should be imitated by all men, for in its work it always has a bright object in view, except in case of a false alarm.
 Responded to by Alderman L. H. Bowden.

3. 'The Little Giant'—As we are firemen, we shouldn't be warm friends, though at the same time cool men.
 Responded to by Mr. E. G. Farmalee.

4. 'Howard Relief S. F. E. No. 1'—Its suction power is immense. That its members might have lungs with equally as strong power of suction, and with an inexhaustible supply of something 'stronger than water, to fill them, is our cordial wish.
 Responded to by Mr. W. F. Lessman.

5. 'Our Honorary Members'—In the words of Rip Van Winkle, 'May they live long and prosper.'
 Responded to by Capt. Jack Griffith.

6. 'City of Wilmington'—Having been bred in the city of Wilmington, we (its firemen) should rather be toasted by it.
 Responded to by letter from Mayor S. H. Fishblate.

7. 'The Old North State'—While we live we will cherish, protect and defend her.
 Responded to by Mr. B. G. Empie. Music by the band, 'The Old North State.'

8. 'The Ladies'—All honor to woman, the sweetheart, the wife, the delight of our fireside, by night and by day, who never does anything wrong in her life except when permitted to have her own way.
 Responded to by Mr. Norwood Giles.

9. 'The N. C. State Guard'—May it never be found in arms except for the preservation of peace and good government.
 In the absence of Gen. M. P. Taylor, responded to by Mr. T. H. McKay, Jr.

10. 'The Bar'—A word of various meaning, but always to be stood up to.
 Responded to by Mr. F. M. Fremont.

11. 'The Press'—May it always preserve the distinction between liberty and license.
 The gentleman selected being absent, Col. A. M. Waddell delivered a brief, but pleasant speech, appropriate to the sentiment.

12. 'The Cornet Concert Club'—Unlike a great many people, its notes are always good.
 Responded to by Mr. J. Wilson.

13. 'The Doc or'—
 For physic and farces
 His equal there scarce is,
 His farces are physic,
 His physic a farce is.

Not responded to.
 Letters of regret expressing their inability to be present, were read from Messrs. Alex. Sprunt, H. O. Brock and Geo. W. Kidder.

The festivities came to a close by singing the 'Old North State.'

Moonlight on the Water.

By advertisement published elsewhere it will be seen that there will be a grand moonlight excursion given on the steamer Passport, to Fort Fisher, on next Monday evening under the management of Capt. C. D. Myers, Gen. M. P. Taylor and Mr. J. A. Willard. The boat will leave her wharf promptly at 7:30 o'clock and return at 12:30. This will give ample time, at least two hours, for a stroll on the beach at Federal Point. There will be music and refreshments on board.

The Lecture Last Night.
 We learn, from those who attended, that the lecture upon Germany and Bismarck, delivered by Prof. Von Jasmund before the Historical and Scientific Society last night, was highly entertaining and instructive, and that it is regarded by many who listened to it as being one of the very ablest discourses ever delivered before the Society upon any subject. We regret, very much, our inability to attend last night and hope that the gentleman may be prevailed upon to repeat the lecture at some future day.

Steamboatmen report that the river is so low they are compelled to lighter over the shoals between here and Fayetteville.

Commencement Exercises.

Thanks to our young friend, Store Cowan, for an invitation to the Commencement Exercises at Chapel Hill, to be held on June 2d and 3d. Judge Merrimon will deliver the address and Rev. H. H. Tucker, D. D., of Georgia, the baccalaureate.

Thanks to the marshals for an invitation to the exercises at the Horner School, in Oxford, on June 3d. The oration on the occasion will be delivered by Master Wm. S. Devane, of this city, and Master W. M. Parsley appears as one of the medalists.

To the marshals, among whom we notice the name of Mr. R. R. Bellamy, of this city, are we indebted for an invitation to the Commencement at Davidson College on the 16th prox.

We have also at hand a programme of the Annual Excursion of the students of Eastman College, from Poughkeepsie to New York and return, which is to take place to-morrow.

Full moon to-morrow morning at 31 minutes past 8 o'clock.
 The Prince Aleppo, a new bronze rose, shows finely in the bouquet.

The regular annual election of officers of the Historical and Scientific Society was last night, postponed until the 31st inst.

Don't forget the moonlight excursion to be given on the Passport this evening. The boat will leave her wharf at 7:30 and return at 12:30, sharp.

A note from Col. W. M. Nicholls, Proprietor of the Swananoa Hotel, at Asheville, informs us that his house was opened for the season on the 17th inst., last Monday.
