The afternoon session of the court was principally occupied up to the time of desing our report in calling witnesses	C. M. Stedman as our Congressional standard-bearer. Never was higher compliment paid to man by the people of Columbus county. The prominent men in the party were all on the record as opposed to instruc- tions, and nothing tut the sterling worth of the Major, and the further fact that they believed that Judge McKoy had permitted his name to be unworthily used to defeat his nomination, caused the in- structions. Should Major Stedman be nominated at Fayetteville, you may count on Columbus county for 800 majority. Yours respectfully, YEOMAN. New Advertisements. DEOF.
