 The steamer John Dawson carried quite a number of colored people down river a few miles to-day to the Camp Meeting which is now in progress there.

 was for years offered in every paper of the land by the former proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of catarrh it would not cure. It cures by its mild, soothing, cleansing, and healing properties. Snuff or dust of any kind dries up catarrh and drives it to the lungs. This remedy has stood the test of time, having been a popular remedy for a quarter of a century. Sold by druggists at 50 cents.

About Corn and Wheat.

Corn loses one-fifth by drying and wheat one-fourteenth. From this the estimate is made it is more profitable for farmers to sell unshelled corn in the fall at 75 cents than at $1 a bushel in the following summer; and that wheat at $1.25 in December is equal to $1.50 in the succeeding June. In the case of potatoes—taking these that rot and otherwise lost—together with the shrinkage, there is but little doubt that between October and June the loss to the owner who holds them is not less than 33 per cent.

Revival in the First Baptist Church

There is a precious work of grace in progress in this church, under the joint labors of Rev. J. B. Taylor, the pastor, and Rev. Dr. Teasdale, of Knoxville, Tenn. Dr. Teasdale was for several years Professor of Rhetoric and Elocution in the State University of Tennessee. Since he vacated his chair in the University he has devoted himself entirely to evangelistic work in the important towns and cities of several of the Southern States, with remarkable success. Many hundreds have been converted in the meetings in which he has assisted the pastors of town and city churches. In the meeting here between thirty and forty have professed hope in Christ already, of whom eighteen have been baptised; and eight or ten others are expected to be baptised to-night. The meeting is still growing in interest.

The Value of Soup.

There are hundreds of families in comfortable circumstances who never have soup at dinner. They are not aware how easy it is to prepare ordinary soup and how cheap it is too. It can be made of almost anything, and a pot of water placed on the stove may be the recipient of divers odds and ends of meat and vegetables to excellent advantage. After these have been boiled a few hours there will be found in the pot a very good soup, wholesome, nourishing, appetizing, and its cost will be nominal. If the experiment were tried many families would be surprised and pleased at the result. They would have a much better dinner for almost nothing than they have hitherto had any idea of, and once accustomed to soup they could not be persuaded to relinquish it. A simple soup benefits at once health, appetite and the purse.

How Everybody Can Help.

On the first day of June the enumerators for the Tenth Census of the United States will begin their work in this city and county, as well as in every other part of this great country. The importance to the people of each section of having its population and resources correctly reported cannot be over-estimated, and will at once suggest itself to every thoughtful mind. To accomplish this all important end, the cooperation of the families visited by the enumerators is absolutely necessary. If the head of the family is at home when the enumerator calls, he should see him himself and answer his questions explicitly and truthfully. If the head of the family is not likely to be at home, he should leave instructions with his wife or some other intelligent person to answer the questions. They are all printed and, of course, have been carefully prepared with a definite object in view, and should all be answered. The enumerators are under oath not to divulge any information which they may receive in the course of their business, and ladies and nervous persons need feel no fear of having their secrets betrayed.

The Party on the Lawn Last Night.

The ladies and gentlemen who managed the party on the lawn at the City Hall Park last night, deserve to be congratulated for the grand success of the undertaking. Everything was well-timed and well-considered, and the visitors, whether they strolled about under the light of the Chinese lanterns or lolled upon the benches on the green sward, or patronized the refreshment tents, seemed all equally well-pleased, while the music by the harpers in the Mayor's private office, which had been kindly given up by that obliging official, for the use of the party, drew many couples thither to engage in the fascinating pleasures of the dance. The lady's basket was refilled instead of being awarded, as was at first intended, by ballot, and Mr. J. W. Conoley was the fortunate winner.
 There was a lively contest over the gold headed cane however, which was awarded by ballot, each ballot costing ten cents. The principal contestants for this honor were Mayor S. H. Fishbait and Mr. R. F. Hamme, and for a long time the Mayor led the race in fine style, but later in the evening and just before the polls closed, at 12 o'clock, Mr. Hamme's friends rallied and put forth their full strength, one gentleman alone casting one hundred and five votes at one ballot. This threw the majority in favor of Mr. Hamme, who smiles, and smies again, now when you congratulate him upon the happy event. The total number of votes cast was 391; of these, the Mayor received 129, and Mr. Hamme, 202, the balance were scattering.
 The gross receipts of the entertainment after a rough estimate were told amounted to $120. We congratulate the management upon their happy and successful efforts, and we congratulate Mr. Hamme upon being so deservedly popular. Now don't smile again, friend Hamme.

The Snow Hill Advocate will be enlarged to a full size 24 column paper on the 10th of June, and will be conducted under the firm name of Galloway & Dall.

Criminal Court.

In the case of Susan Waddell, colored, charged with infanticide, the jury have not yet agreed upon a verdict, although the case has been in their hands for nearly 24 hours.

In State vs. George Myers, colored, charged with burglary, the case, on motion of defendant's counsel, was continued to the next term of Court.
 The case of the State vs. George Merrick and Delia Page, both colored, was being tried when our report closed.

Window Glass of all sizes, Doors, Sash and Blinds, Builders' Hardware, &c. Low at prices at JACOBI'S.

The A. & N. C. R. R.

Yesterday's Newbern Nut Shell says: Col. R. R. Bridgers, President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, was in our city yesterday, looking after Railroad matters. We learn he has made a proposition to lease the A. & N. C. R. R., for $30,000 per year, giving certain guarantees. A meeting of the Directors will probably be held in a few days, and Col. Bridgers' proposition formally presented. No action will, of course, be taken until the meeting of stockholders, in June, when both this proposition and that of Mr. Best will be finally disposed of.

The Thalian Amateurs

Will appear before the public for the last time to-night in Baker's popular drama entitled "Above the Clouds." The performance will take place at the Tilston Upper Rooms. The first rendition of this piece was received with such acclamations of applause, it is presumed, that the second performance will meet with like encouragement. Mrs. Daniel Kahnweiler, the charming and accomplished lady vocalist, who is ever ready to assist in any charitable entertainment, will sing during the evening.
 Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Plow, parties in want of this celebrated plow can now have their orders filled at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot, No. 10 S. Front st. tf.
