Young men grow weak in warm weather and wear lighter clothes than they do in the cold season.

A man never sells his honor more than once. After the first sale he will have no honor in stock.

A printer's girl fell exhausted into his arms at a ball. It was a fault to work in an embrace.

The ladies of the Second Baptist Church are to be congratulated upon the very liberal patronage which they received at their entertainment at the City Hall, last night. The tableaux were exceedingly well presented, and all the exercises were very pleasantly enjoyed by those present.

The New Aldermen.
The selection of Capt. Jno. F. Divine as Alderman from the Second Ward will give satisfaction to many. He is a gentleman of excellent business capacities, a large real estate owner and one who is thoroughly identified with the interests of our people. The position of Alderman is, indeed, an empty honor but none the less will Capt. Divine hesitate in giving his most earnest and hearty attention to the duties of his office.

Board of Aldermen.
The Board of Aldermen met in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon.

In the matter of Cato Bunting, a motion was adopted that he be allowed $50 for that portion of his land on the street, the said amount to be applied in payment of city taxes, provided the city has a legal right to make the purchase.

Committee on Police reported no vacancies on the force.

The Sanitary Committee made a report, accompanied by a written opinion of the City Attorney, favorable to the petitioners protesting against the proposed ordinance.
The matter was referred to Committee on Ordinances.

On motion of Alderman King the Committee on Ordinances were discharged from the further consideration of the complaint of Mr. A. Oldham concerning the storage of tar barrels near his mill.

Ed of Mr. J. W. Taylor for lumber was granted.

The Fire Department Committee was granted further time in the matter of a belly, with power to act.

The purchase of another horse for the Little Giant Engine Co was ordered.

Committee on Streets and Wharves were instructed to advertise for bids to repair the wharf and to open the dock at the foot of Chestnut street.

Alderman Foster offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the names of all firms and persons who are sixty days in arrears in paying special business tax be reported to the Finance Committee.

A resolution was also offered by Alderman Foster and adopted, that it be declared a misdemeanor to sell by retail any burning oils at a fire test under 110 degrees within the city limits; and that violations of this provision be punishable by a fine of not more than $50 and imprisonment not to exceed thirty days.

Alderman Lowery offered an ordinance —referred to the Committee on Ordinances—prohibiting the sounding of steam whistles by locomotive engines within the corporate limits.

Sundry petitions for oil lamps were referred to the Committee on Lights.

Alderman King offered an ordinance, which was adopted, that from and after this date the location of the market for the sale of vegetables and other produce usually vended in the street, shall be the western and eastern sides of South Front street, between Dock and Orange, and the location of carts for the sale of fish shall be in the rear of the new market, or in the immediate vicinity of the same, on South Water street, between Dock and Orange and that the eastern side of Fourth street between Campbell street and the railroad bridge, and the northern side of Campbell street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, shall also be a location for the sale of vegetables, other country produce and fish; and, provided, however, that there shall be a further location for the sale of country produce, vegetables and fish at some point in the Fifth Ward of the city, to be hereafter assigned. Any person vending country produce, vegetables, fish or other articles usually vended on the streets in open market, who shall neglect or refuse after due notification to remove to either of the said locations shall be fined not less than five dollars or imprisoned not to exceed five days, for each offense. All ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting with the above are repealed.

Aldermen Bowden and Foster desired to enter their protests upon the record.

Alderman Hill submitted a resolution, which was adopted, requesting the Wilmington Market Company to submit in writing the proposition to allow market carts to enter the sheds at the market building free of charge.

CHICAGO.

Garfield of Obto, Nominated on the Thirty-Sixth Ballot.

CHICAGO, 11 P. M.
The Convention was called to order at 11:30 o'clock.

The interest has in no wise abated but is rather on the increase.

The members of the New York delegation are overbearing in their assumption of success. They seem to be playing a mighty bluff game. They affirm that Grant will be nominated before 1 o'clock.
Massachusetts gives Sherman 21.

Vermont gives Grant 16, Blaine 3 and Sherman 3.

The vote is questioned and the roll is now being called.

Minnesota gives Blaine 3.
TWENTY-NINTH BALLOT.

Grant, 305; Blaine, 278; Sherman,

More Rumors.
The Augusta Evening News has the following: 'More changes are whispered about in railroad circles, and it is rumored that Col. A. Pope, the General Passenger and Freight Agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, will become General Eastern Agent of the Louisville and Nashville combination, with headquarters in New York, at a salary of $10,000.'

We have some reason to believe that this rumor is true, to the extent that the Company referred to above would be glad to secure Col. Pope's services. If so, it will probably be of benefit to Col. Pope but not to our people. In his own personal line of business we believe that Col.
Pope stands without a rival on the Atlantic coast and it is but natural that his services should be sought elsewhere.
It is for the Atlantic Coast Line to say whether the proposed change shall be carried into effect.

Dead Mule.

E. F. Martin, who carries the United States mail between this city and Onslow county, lost a very valuable mule in Jacksonville on Saturday night last. The animal was taken with colic and died before it could be relieved.

Cape Fear Company.
At an election for officers of the Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company, held last night, the following were chosen:

Foreman—Valentine Howe.
First Assistant—Emanuel B. Jones.
Treasurer—Elias Campbell.
Secretary—Godfrey Willis, Jr.

The Everts' Way.
A young gentleman of this city who drives a fine horse, pulled up in front of a residence on the Sound on yesterday and ordered thusly: 'Boy, extricate that quadruped from the vehicle, and establish him, donate him adequate supply of nutritious aliment, and when the aurora of morning shall illuminate the eastern horizon I will reward thee with a pecuniary compensation for thy amiable hospitality.'

The boy ran in the house and told his master that 'they was a man out dose what wanted him.'

City Court.
The only case before His Honor, the Mayor, this morning, was that of Mr. J.
A. Montgomery, charged with a violation of the City Ordinance relative to the sale of vegetables &c on Market street. The Mayor, satisfied that he had no jurisdiction empowering him to determine the case, recognized the defendant, in the sum of $50, for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

A Market street jeweler went fishing the other day and caught three small blackfish. He carried them through the street boldly, and when asked if they were all he caught, frankly admitted that they were. The neighbors gave him a surprise party last night and presented him the beautifully carved motto, 'An honest fisherman is the noblest work of God.'
