

· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	are retailing for 25 cents per dozen.	feet clear may sometimes be had,	obstructions at New Inlet is very hand-	can't last. It must cool down. When	A FEW SMALL KITS
The largest and finest assortment of	If you would now see nature in all her	Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer	some and is said to be of superior quality.	ne sees you as many times a day as ne	11
SUNSHADES & PARASOLS	beauty and freshness rise with the lark.	is the best preparation known to preserve the hair. Use it.	Our young friend, Frank M. Fremont.	wants to, and maybe more; when he sees your head done up regularly every
Ever shown it this city, from	Bathing the wrists with ice water will		Esq., has been admitted to the practise of	morning in curl papers and the bloom is cool one quicker than mopping the head.		law during the present term of the Supreme	all off the rye: when your home contains
15c to $10, each.	Many marriages occur in hot weather.	has been suggested for Democratic Elec	Court. We wish him much success in his	a good deal of wash tub, cradle and cook but the most popular time is in mid-	toreat-Large. The State convention	chosen profession.	stoves, he won't stand for one hour in
Dress Buttons.	winter.	could do no better thing than put the elo- quent McRae on the stump for a State	Our drug stores are now supplied with "Malt Bitters," the new Food Medicine	front of the house out in the cold watch- ing the light in your window. He'll be
Our selections in this department embrace	Full Metal and Walnut Show Cases, all	canvass.—Raleigh Post.	which has done so much good and comes	thinking rather of getting out of the house
many novelties. Our variety is immerse.	styles and sizes, at ALTAFFEB, PRICE & Co's.	We have heard Col. McRae's name	to us so highly gecommended. Try it	Young weman, pretract this courtship as	MALT BITTERS, Hop Bitters,
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		suggested. It has been mentioned, on more than one occasion, to us by gentle-	it may care you near a doctors bind, in	long as you can. Let well enough alone.	Iron Bitters,
Cassimeres	He who provokes the shaft of wit can-	men residing in the up country. We	The DAILY REVIEW announced the	A courtship in hand is worth two mar.	ETCHTHTTOTE IC PLOTE
For Men and Boy's Wear.	not complain that he smarts fr.m the	think we feel justified in saying that if	fact of the nomination of Garfield within	riages in the bush. Don't marry till Christmas after next.	Aromatic Camphor, &c.
		Col. McRae will accept the honor it will	fifteen minutes of the time it was made.	Name and a second	JNO. H. HAEDIN, Anothecary.
Natural Colored and Figured Lip a for	To dream that your nose is red at the tip is an intimation that you have imbibed		It took just five minutes to flash the news, and only about ten minutes to get our	A Wedding in the English Fashion.	Je 8 New Market.
Stairs.	too much brandy.	oratorical powers and the energy and dash with which he would enter into the	The part on the streets The Downwe	Last Tuesday morning the beautiful	Baskets.
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Plows, Shovels, Pitchtorks, Spades,	canvass the Democratic party would in-	EXTRA was the only one on the streets.	Episcopal church, St. Matthews, was tastefully adorned with floral decorations,
White and Colored Canton Mattings.	Rakes, Trace Chains, Plow Lines, &c. For	deed do well with him as a State elector.	We like to be ahead and to keep ahead.	and filled to overflowing with an eager,	A other fancy Baskets inst and inch, Key
	the lowest prices, go to JACOBI's.	Come and See Us.	Ecuppernong Champagne.	expectant audience, anxious to witness
Corduroy and and White Terry for Ladies'	Now is the time for ice cream and	the marchants are labir of for inree		the nuptials of one of Hillsboro's most	Sunday School Books, Hymn Books, and Children's Wear.	water ices, if there ever was an appro- priate time for such luxuries.	representations from the various points		souther and accomptioned audgatert.	Bibles, Testaments, &c., &c.
		along the line of the Corolina Central Rail-	champagne of their own manufacture,	daughter of the late Mai Bani Huske,	Blank Books, Memorandum Books, Invoice
Job Lot.	You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heats ing Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI's	way during the caedibled beneth	their vinevaru a few miles below the city.	and the groom, Edward Surry Latimer,
Cash Rufflings 50 cents,	Hardware Depot.	opens on the 14th. We trust that they	We shall drink to their health in it in a	Esq., of Wilmington, N. O. The mare	wonery, at
	Josh Billings says, 'Give the devil his	tunity thus offered to our country friends	few days.	riage ceremony and all the arrangements	YATES',
Something New in Ladies' Summer ; Balmora	due reads well enough in a proverb, but	is a rare one, as it is not often that a man	Dogs.	pertaining to the wedding were conduct-
Skirts.	what will become of me and you if this arrangement is carried out?'	can travel from Charlotte to Wilmington,	If the city collects a tax on every dog	ed in strict accordance with the old Eng- lish style.	je 7 BUOK STORE.
		188 miles, for 188 cents. Let as many as			Evonnaiona to Wilmington
Linen Lap Robes,	It was a brisk two hours conflict be- tween the Baby and the Colic, with all	possible come down and make acquaint- ance with our people and take a trip down	A CALL CALL DATE AND A CALL AND A	Shortly after 8 o'clock the bridal par- ty arrived and filed down the main aisle.	EXCUISIONS LU WINNINGION.
&c., &c., &c.	the doubts in favor of the Colic, until Dr.	to salt water and, our word for it, there	The second s	in the following order:	3
	Bull's Baby Syrup put in an appearance. Of course the Baby was safe in ten min-	will be nothing in it to regret.	and at a dollar a head on each canine	First came the gentlemen ushers, Mr.	Tune 14th to Tune 000 1000 to Give us a call and look over our stock,	utes. A twenty-five cent bottle did it,	The Coming Comet.	they should certainly be able to get	Mr. Thomas Huske, Columbia, S. C., Mr.	June 14th to June 20th. 1880, In-
We are by no means afraid to show our	Indications.	The last observations of the comet dis-		Norwood Huske, Wilmington, and Messre goods.	For the South Atlantic States, station-	covered by Professor Scalberle of Ann	If dog owners will not list their dogs, would it not be a good idea to employ		THE MEBCHANTS of Wilmington have goods.	ary barometer, stationary or lower tem- perature, southerly winds, east to north-	Arbor, Michigan, in April last, indicate that in the course of the next week it will	some one to canvass the city and ascer ^B	Cameron, of Hillsboro; next came the	arranged with the Carolina Central Bail-
	Deraluic, adullerity winus, cabi to horen.	A REPORT OF A REAL PROPERTY OF A DESCRIPTION OF A DESCRIPTION OF A REAL PROPERTY OF A REAL PROPERTY OF A DESCRIPTION OF A DES	는 이상 중 영향하는 지 않는 것 않는 것 것 같은 가장 가장 것 것 같아요. [100] [10] [20] [20] [20] [20] [20] [20] [20] [2
DROWN & DODDICK	east on the North Carolina coast, partly	create a sensation among the star-gazers.	tain by that means the number of un-	bridesmaids, six in number and appropria	way to transport Merchants and residents along the line
BROWN & RODDICK,	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather.	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is		ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids	along the line
	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and	badged dege?	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro,	TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN, east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sub, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days	badged dege? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie	at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive.
45 Market St.	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly.	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible	badged dogs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work.	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills-	at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the
45 Market St.	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly.	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall-	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride-	at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fo t Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit With
45 Market St.	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but	At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded	TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN, at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fo t Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest
45 Market St. Sign of the Big Boot.	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they canuot di-	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable	at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fo t Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest
45 Market St. Sign of the Big Boot.	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they canuot di- vulge the result of their labors until au-	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who	at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fot Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest
45 Market St. Sign of the Big Boot.	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's and Boy's wear is still large	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere	badged dege? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg-	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother	at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fot Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wit- mingtor. Northwest
45 Market St. Sign of the Big Boot. Minary 15 Sign of the Big Boot.	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's and Boy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a	hadged dege? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount:	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington,	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smitbville , Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest
45 Market St. Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. TO SELL FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL-	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's and Boy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the newest, the latest, the best	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a ting train of light that follows it. The	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of th ^e	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville , Fott Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Withmingtor. Northwest $ 30 Lilesville. $2 50 Mariboro. 55 Wadesboro. 2 5 Clarkton 95 Mulcahy 2 95 Abbottsburg 1 00 Lanesboro. 3 00 Bladenboro. 1 35 Matthews 3 10 Allenton 1 35 Matthews 3 15 Bed Banks. 1 10 Charlotte 3 75
45 Market St. Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market St. Sign of the Big Boot. For cash only, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS:	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's and Boy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the newest, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's.	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of th ^e enumerators and they all seem to be fully	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville , Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. $ 30 Lilesville. $2 60 Marlboro. 55 Wadesboro. 2 6 Rosindale. 75 Polkton 2 5 Olarkton 95 Mulcahy 2 95 Abbottsburg. 1 00 Lanesboro. 3 00 Bladenboro. 1 25 Monroe 3 30 Lumberton. 1 3' Stout. 3 45 Moss Neck. 1 55 Matthews 3 76 Shoe Heel. 1 85 Tuckaseegee
45 Market St. Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Seved Gaivers	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly- but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's and Boy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record.	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of th ^e enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000,	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau-	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smitbville , Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. $ 30 Lilesville. $2 60 Marlboro. 55 Wadesboro. 2 6 Rosindale. 75 Polkton 2 5 Olarkton 95 Mulcahy 2 95 Abbottsburg. 1 00 Lanesboro. 3 00 Bladenboro. 1 00 Ames 3 20 Allenton 1 35 Monroe 3 33 Lumberton. 1 35 Matthews 3 45 Moss Neck. 1 55 Matthews 3 76 Shoe Heel. 1 85 Tuckaseegee
45 Market St. May 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Big Boot. Market Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. South Boot. South Street Boot. South	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybody can get suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to thetr indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of th ^e enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000.	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN. at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smitbville, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest
45 Market St. May 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Minimum offering To SELL FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gaivers	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly- but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's and Boy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybody can get suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBT'S Hardware Depot.	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of th ^e enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000,	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessie Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr.	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smitbville , Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the mest enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. $ 30 Lilesville. $2 60 Marlboro. 55 Wadesboro. 2 6 Rosindale. 75 Polkton 2 5 Olarkton 95 Mulcahy 2 95 Abbottsburg 1 00 Lanesboro. 3 00 Bladenboro. 1 00 Ames 3 20 Allenton 1 25 Monroe 3 33 Lumberton 1 3' Stout 3 45 Moss Neck 1 55 Matthews 3 76 Shoe Heel 1 85 Tuckaseegee 4 60 Laurel Hill 2 00 Iron 4 30 Ol J Hundred 2 10 Lincointor 4 65 Hamlet 2 25 Buffalo 4 55
45 Market St. May 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Minimum States States FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gaivers	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the newest, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACCHT'S Hardware Depot.	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup.	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN. at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smitbville, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest
45 Market St. May 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Big Boot. Market Big Boot. Market Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Source Boot. Source Boot. Source Big Boot.	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need-	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN . at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Main Daily Excursions to Smitbville, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Will- mingtor. Northwest 30 Lilesville. Mariboro. 55 Wadesboro. 50 Mariboro. 55 Wadesboro. 6 Rosindale 75 Polkton 75 Polkton 2 05 Abbottsburg 1 00 Lanesboro. Allenton 1 26 Monroe Bladenboro. 1 00 Ames. 1 20 Monroe 3 30 Lumberton 1 3' Stout Allenton 1 3' Stout Aboe Heel 1 8s< Tuckaseegee A do Indured 2 10 Lincointor Laurel Hill 2 00 Iron 4 50 Ol Hundred 2 10 Lincointor 4 65 Hamlet 2 35 Sheloy 4 85 Pee Dee 2 46 ONE CENT A MILE
45 Market St. May 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Big Boot. Market Big Boot. Market Boot Now OFFERING No SELL NO SELL FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gaivers	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will temain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOM's Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn-	badged dege? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it be Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushel; wash them clean, and break to	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN. At the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Gaswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. Southwest. Northwest. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- Most State South South and Sout
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Sevel FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gai ors	east on the North Carelina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the newest, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim.	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBT'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta Gamma 76 1 Mobile, Ala	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they canuot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it be Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushel; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu-	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN. At the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, """ Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Gaswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wit- mingtor. Northwest. $ 30 Lilesville. $2 60 55 Wadesboro. 2 6 Resindale. 75 Polkton 2 5 Clarkton 95 Mulcahy 2 95 Abb 5tsburg. 1 00 Lanesboro. 3 00 Bladenboro. 1 00 Ames. 3 20 Allenton. 1 25 Monroe. 3 30 Lumberton. 1 3' Stout
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Stream FOR LAM NOW OFFERING TO SELL NO SELL FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gai'ers	east on the North Carelina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the newest, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybody can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not tall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushel; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar-	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN. At the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Gaswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. Southwest. Northwest. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. South and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- Most State South South and Sout
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Mile AM NOW OFFERING TO SELL Solution State FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gailors	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sur, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will temain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Preket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBT'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this upper ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it be Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushe!; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them come to a boil; remove from the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu-	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN: at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wit- mingtor. Northwest. Southwest.
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Star FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gai'ers	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garpiture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sur, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybody can ger suited with a Pecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBT'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of th ⁶ enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not tall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushe!; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them come to a boil; remove from the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt,	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.—Hills borc Mait.	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, inclusive. Der Daily Excursions to Smithrille, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. $ 30 Lilesville. $2 60 Mariboro. 55; Wadesboro. 2 6 Rosindale. 75 Polkton. 2 5 Clarkton. 95 Mulcahy 2 95 Abbitsburg. 1 00 Lanesboro. 3 00 Bladenboro. 1 00 Ames. 3 20 Allenton. 1 25 Monroe. 3 30 Lumberton. 1 3' Stout. 3 45 Moss Neck. 1 55 Matthews 3 F5 Red Banks. 1 10 Charlotte. 3 76 Shee Heel. 1 85' Tuckaseegee. 4 60 Laurinburg. 1 90 Brevards. 4 15 Laurel Hill. 2 60 fron. 4 30 Oli Hundred. 2 10 Lincointor. 4 46 Sand Hill. 2 20 Cherryville. 4 65 Rockingham. 2 35 Shelby. 4 85 Pee Det. 2 45 ONE CENT A MILE FACH WAY, Tickets will not be extended Leyond June 20th under any circumstances. B. G. WORTH F. REHEINSTEIN, Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE. Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE. Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE. Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE.
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Star FOR CASH ONLY, TO SELL FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gaiters	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa-	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sur, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybody can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clc2k : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushe!; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt, 2 teacup; allspice and cloves, of each,	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.—Hills	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, inclusive. M Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wit- mingtor. Northwest. S 30 Lilesville. 100 Lanesboro. 200 Abbottsburg. 100 Lanesboro. 300 Bladenboro. 100 Ames. 310 Allenton. 135 Stout. 345 Rod Banks. 100 Charlotte. 355 Red Banks. 100 Charlotte. 376 Shoe Heel. 185 Tuckaseeget. 400 Laurinburg. 190 Brevards. 415 Laurel Hill. 200 Fron. 430 OLJ Hundred. 210 Lincointor. 430 OLJ Hundred. 235 Shelby. 485 Pee Det. 245 ONE CENT A MILE PACH WAY, Tickets will not be extended Leyond June 20th under any circumstances. B. G. WORTH F. ERELINSTEIN, B. M. MCINTIKE. 377 Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE. 378 ABT GALLEBY TO-DAY, if you wish to
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Star FOR CASH ONLY, TO SELL FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gaiters	east on the North Carelina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: guess	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sur, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Pecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not tall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushel; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them come to a boil; remove from the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt, 2 teacup; allspice and cloves, of each, ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, one	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.—Hills borc Mait.	along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, inclusive. Der Daily Excursions to Smithrille, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest. $ 30 Lilesville. $2 60 Mariboro. 55; Wadesboro. 2 6 Rosindale. 75 Polkton. 2 5 Clarkton. 95 Mulcahy 2 95 Abbitsburg. 1 00 Lanesboro. 3 00 Bladenboro. 1 00 Ames. 3 20 Allenton. 1 25 Monroe. 3 30 Lumberton. 1 3' Stout. 3 45 Moss Neck. 1 55 Matthews 3 F5 Red Banks. 1 10 Charlotte. 3 76 Shee Heel. 1 85' Tuckaseegee. 4 60 Laurinburg. 1 90 Brevards. 4 15 Laurel Hill. 2 60 fron. 4 30 Oli Hundred. 2 10 Lincointor. 4 46 Sand Hill. 2 20 Cherryville. 4 65 Rockingham. 2 35 Shelby. 4 85 Pee Det. 2 45 ONE CENT A MILE FACH WAY, Tickets will not be extended Leyond June 20th under any circumstances. B. G. WORTH F. REHEINSTEIN, Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE. Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE. Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE. Com nittee, B. M. MCINTIKE.
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Star FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gaiters	east on the North Carelina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly- but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the btim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: guess your age, as near as possible to the truth, and subtract five. This will, we suppose,	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sur, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will temain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Pecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² doso, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not tall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushel; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them come to a boil; remove from the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt, 2 teacup; allspice and cloves, of each, ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, one quart. Put on the fire again, and cook one hour, stirring with great care, to	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq., of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture bome. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.—Hitls borc Mait. MILLINDERY. Corner Third and Orange Streets	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN, at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1980, and the sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit With mingtor. Northwest $ 30 Lilesville. $2 50 Mariboro. by Wadesboro. 2 60 Clarkton 3 50 Mulcahy 2 05 Abb itsburg 1 00 Lanesboro. 3 00 Lianesboro. 4 00 Chariotte. 3 10 Chariotte. 3 10 Chariotte. 4 00 Lianestore. 8 20 Cherryville. 4 05 Peo Det. 2 2 10 Lianeon tor. 4 05 Peo Det. 3 5 Eleioy. 4 85 Peo Det. 2 10 Cherryville. 4 05 Peo Det. 2 10 Cherryville. 5 2 10 Cherryville. 6 2 10 Cherryville. 6 2 10 Cherryville. 7 Com nittee, E. M. McINTIKE.
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Strap Sandals. 120 SELL FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gaivers. 120 Gent's Sewed Gaivers. 120 Ladies' Foxed Shoes. 100 Newport Ties. 120 Contex Slippers. 125 Strap Sandals. 120 Missue Strap Sandals. 120 Children's Strap Sandals. 120 Children's Strap Sandals. 120 Strap Sandals. 120 Missue Strap Sandals. 15 Missue Strap Sandals. 15 Missue Strap Sandals. 120 Children's Strap Sandals. 120 Missue St	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garpiture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: guess your age, as near as possible to the truth, and subtract five. This will, we suppose, give plenty of margin to those who have	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sur, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will temain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Pecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Ot course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushel; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them come to a boil; remove from the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt, 2 teacnp; allspice and cloves, of each, ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, one quart. Put on the fire again, and cook one hour, stirring with great care, to ayoid bufning. Bottle and seal for use.	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Beesle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq., of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.— Hitls borc Mait. MILLINDERY. Corner Third and Orange Streets Wilmington, N. G.	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN, at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1980, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the mest enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest: $ 30 Lilesville. $2 50 Mariboro. $ 50 Wadesboro. $ 2 60 Rosindale. $ 75 Polkton. $ 2 5 Clarkton. $ 93 Mulcahy. $ 2 95 Abbottsburg. $ 100 Lanesboro. $ 300 Lianesboro. $ 400 Ames. $ 400 Ames. $ 400 Lianesboro. $ 300 Lianesboro. $ 400 Lianesboro. $ 400 Ames. $ 400 Charlotte. $ 76 Monroe. $ 300 Lianesboro. $ 400 Charlotte. $ 400 Lianestore. $ 50 Backender. $ 5
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Mile AM NOW OFFERING PO SELL FOR CASH ONLY, AT EXTREME LOW PRICES, THE FOL- LOWING GOODS: Gent's Sewed Gai'ers	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. tf. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garoiture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: guess your age, as near as possible to the truth, and subtract five. This will, we suppose, give plenty of margin to those who have	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JAcom's Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it be Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushe!; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them come to a boil; remove from the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt, 2 teacup; allspice and cloves, of each, ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, one quart. Put on the fire again, and cook one hour, stirring with great care, to avoid bufning. Bottle and seal for use. If they are very juicy, they may need	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, whe gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.—Hills borc Mait. MILLINDRY. Corner Third and Orange Streets Wilmington, N. G. CALL AND EXAMINE my Spring styles of Hats, Bonnett, Bibbons, Flowers.	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN, at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1980, inclusive. Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Caswell and the Sounds, render this the mest enjoyable season of the year to visit Wil- mingtor. Northwest: $ 30 Lilesville. $2 50 Mariboro. $ 50 Wadesboro. $ 2 60 Rosindale. $ 75 Polkton. $ 2 5 Clarkton. $ 93 Mulcahy. $ 2 95 Abbottsburg. $ 100 Lanesboro. $ 300 Lianesboro. $ 400 Ames. $ 400 Ames. $ 400 Lianesboro. $ 300 Lianesboro. $ 400 Lianesboro. $ 400 Ames. $ 400 Charlotte. $ 76 Monroe. $ 300 Lianesboro. $ 400 Charlotte. $ 400 Lianestore. $ 50 Backender. $ 5
45 Market Store. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Market Store. Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Source Strap Sandale. Strap Sandale	east on the North Carolina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new(st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garpiture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: guess your age, as near as possible to the truth, and subtract five. This will, we suppose, give plenty of margin to those who have been 'on the carpet' for some time. A Household Need.	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will remain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Pecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI's Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged dege? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they canuot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushe!; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt, 2 teacup; allspice and cloves, of each, ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, one quart. Put on the fire again, and cook one hour, stirring with great care, to avoid bufning. Bottle and seal for use. If they are very juicy, they may need boiling over an hour.	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq, of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.—Hills borc Mait. MILLINDEX. Corner Third and Orange Streets Wilmington, N. G. CALL AND EXAMINE my Spring styles C of Hats, Bonnet's, Bibbons, Flowers, Feathers, Ornaments of all kinds. Country orders promptly filled. Hair Work done in	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN, at the nominal rates named below, with tick- ets good between June 14th and 20th, 1980, and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit with mingtor. Northwest 5 30 Lilesville, $2 50 Mariboro. 55 Wadesboro. 2 6 Rosindale. 75 Polkton 2 5 Clarkton. 93 Mulcahy 2 95 Abbittsburg 1 00 Lanesbort. 3 00 Bladenboro. 1 00 Amea. 3 20 Allenton. 1 26 Monroe. 3 30 Humberton. 1 35 Btout. 3 45 Moss Neck. 1 55 Matthews. 3 45 Rod Banks. 1 70 Charlotte. 3 76 Shee Heel. 1 85 Tuckaseegee. 4 60 Laurinburg. 1 90 Brevards. 4 15 Badenboro. 2 10 Laurel Hill. 2 20 Cherryville. 4 65 Hamlet. 2 25 Buffalo. 4 75 Pee Dec. 2 45 ONE CENT A MILE PACH WAY, Tickets will not be extended Leyond June 20th under any circumstances. B. G. WORTH F. RHEINSTEIN, Com nittee, B. M. McINTIKE. Je 7 Com nittee, F. H. State, Science, Kate, Matta, Mouldings for making frames, Cord and
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Solution Sector Solution Sevend Califors. Solution Made Gaiters. Solution Gaiters. Solu	east on the North Carelina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly- but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. tf. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: guess your age, as near as possible to the truth, and subtract five. This will, we suppose, give plenty of margin to those who have been 'on the carpet' for some time. A Houschold Need- A book on the Liver, its diseases and	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will temain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can get suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBT'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clczk: Atlanta, Ga	badged dege? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they cannot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² do so, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount: We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushe!; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them come to a boil; remove from the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt, 2 teacnp; allspice and cloves, of each, ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, one quart. Put on the fire again, and cook one hour, stirring with great care, to avoid bufning. Bottle and seal for use. If they are very juicy, they may need boiling over an hour. When you visit or leave New York City, eiter at the firend unresite	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Bessle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq., of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.—Hills borc Mail. MILLINDERY. Corner Third and Orange Streets Wilmington, N. G. CALL AND EXAMINE my Spring styles of Hats, Bonnett, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, Ornaments of all kinds. Country orders promptly filed. Hair Work done in all the impressive the cane the streets with the street will be the of the streets of all kinds. Country orders promptly filed. Hair Work done in	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick-tes good between June 14th and 2)th, 1880, inclusive. Mar Daily Excursions to Bmithville, Fort Garwell and the Sounds, render this the most enjoyable season of the year to visit Withmitter. Northwest 30 Lilesville. $2,500 Marboro. 2, 60 Marboro. 555 Wadesboro. 2, 60 Marboro. 2, 60 Marboro. 555 Wadesboro. 2, 60 Marboro. 1, 60 Lanesbort. 3, 60 Marboro. 4,
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. So sell So sell So sell So sell So sell So sell Strap Sandale Strap Sandale S	east on the North Carelina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. tf. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the btim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: gness your age, as near as possible to the truth, and subtract five. This will, we suppose, give plenty of margin to those who have been 'on the carpet' for some time. A Household Need. A book on the Liver, its diseases and their treatment sent 'free. Including the rest of the sent' for some time.	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will temain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Pecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs? At Least 20,0 0. The census enumerators are now well on into the second week of their work. They are at it, early and late, ten hours a day, and occasionally put in an extra lick or two. Of course they canuot di- vulge the result of their labors until au- thorized to ² doso, but, at the same time, there is no restriction as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to their indulg- ing in speculations as to the total amount ² . We have conversed with several of the enumerators and they all seem to be fully agreed as to the fact that the population of the city will not fall less than 20 000, and may possibly go as high as 23,000. So may it te Tomato Catsup. Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-half bushe!; wash them clean, and break to pieces; then put over the fire, and let them come to a boil; remove from the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allow your hands in them, rub through a wire sieve; and to what goes through add salt, 2 teacup; allspice and cloves, of each, ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, one quart. Put on the fire again, and cook one hour, stirring with great care, to avoid bufning. Bottle and seal for use. If they are very juicy, they may need boiling over an hour. When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. Euronean plan.	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Beesle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq. of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.— Hitls borc Mait. MILLINDEX. Corner Third and Orange Streets Wilmington, N. G. CALL AND EXAMINE my Spring styles for Hats, Bonnet:, Bibbona, Flowers, Feathers, Ornaments of all tinds. Country orders prompty filled. Hair Work done in all the improved styles. my 28 MRS. 8. J. BAKER.	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick-tes good between June 14th and 20th, 1880, inclusive. Ar Daily Excursions to Smithville, Fort Carwell and the Sounds, render this the most onjoyable season of the year to visit Withington. Mariboro 50 Dottion 50 Mariboro 5
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. So sell So sell So sell So sell So sell So sell So sell So sell So sell So seved Gaiters. So so	east on the North Carelina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the newst, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. tf. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garniture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: guess your age, as near as possible to the truth, and subtract five. This will, we suppose, give plenty of margin to those who have been 'on the carpet' for some time. A Household Need. A book on the Liver, its diseases and their treatment sent free. Including treatises upon Liver Complaints, 'forpid Liver, Jaundice, Biliousnes, Headache, Nearents Melarie et and the servers and the sent free. Including treatises upon Liver Complaints, 'forpid Liver, Jaundice, Biliousnes, Melarie et and the servers and the sent free. Including treatises upon Liver Complaints, 'forpid Liver, Jaundice, Biliousnes, Melarie et and the servers and the server is melarie et and the servers and the server is the server is the servers and the servers and the server's servers and the serverse	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will temain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JAcent's Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs?At Least 20.0 0.The census enumerators are now wellon into the second week of their work.They are at it, early and late, ten hoursa day, and occasionally put in an extralick or two. Ot course they canuot divulge the result of their labors until authorized to do so, but, at the same time,there is no restriction as to their indulg-ing in speculations as to the total amount:We have conversed with several of theenumerators and they all seem to be fullyagreed as to the fact that the populationof the city will not fail less than 20 000,and may possibly go as high as 23,000.So may it teTomato Catsup.Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-halfbushe!; wash them clean, and break topieces; then put over the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allowyour hands in them, rub through a wiresieve; and to what goes through add salt,2 teacnp; allspice and cloves, of each,ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, onequart. Put on the fire again, and cookoneAto CatsupWeen you visit or leave New York City,sign colspan="2">and break toatomation of the city will not fail less than 20 000,and may possibly go as high as 23,000.So may	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Beesle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq., of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. C. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.— Hills boro Mail. MILLIN DEXY. Corner Third and Orange Streets Wilmington, N. G. CALL AND EXAMINE my Spring styles of Hats, Bonnets, Bibbons, Flowers, Feathers, Ornaments of all tinds. Country orders promptly filled. Hair Work done in all the improved styles. msy 28 MRS. B. J. BAKER.	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick-to-instructions to Smithville, For to state with the bounds, render this the most bounds is render this the most bounds. The bounds is the set of the bounds, render this the most bounds is the bounds. The bounds is the bounds is the bounds is the bounds. The bounds is the bounds is the bounds is the bounds is the bounds. The bound is the bounds is the bounds. The bound is the bounds is the bounds is the bounds is the bound is the bounds is the bound is the bo
45 Market St. may 15 Sign of the Big Boot. Sign of the Big Boot. Source Stream States. Strap Sandals. Strap Sand	east on the North Carelina coast, partly cloudy weather. In making a mustard plaster no water should be used, but the mustard mixed with the white of an egg; the result will be a plaster which will draw perfectly, but will not produce a blister even upon the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the parts. Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's andBoy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the new st, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's. tf. Cashmere effects are obtained in the new straws by the introduction of colored threads in the braids. These have a singular appearance. The brims of many of the new bonnets are ornamented in this way, and no other garaiture is need- ed, either on the outside or inside of the brim. Young ladies, the census enumerators are around this week. Study out your ages so that no delay will occur. If the family Bible does not reveal the informa- tion, we would suggest this plan: gness your age, as near as possible to the truth, and subtract five. This will, we suppose, give plenty of margin to those who have been 'on the carpet' for some time. A Houschold Need. A book on the Liver, its diseases and their treatment sent 'free. Including treatises upon Liver Complaints, 'Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Biliousness, Headache, Constipation, Dyspepsia, Malaria, etc.	Its brilliancy is decreasing, because it is plunging rapidly towards the sun, and will soon be obscured by the powerful rays of the great luminary. After a few days it will recede, but will temain visible through the telescope till late in the fall- It is not now visible to the naked eye, but with a powerful telescope it can be seen about 11 o'clock at night to the left of the North star and half way between it and the western horizon. It appears but a mere speck, even with the telescope, but can be distinguished from the other stars by a tiny train of light that follows it. The comet is thought to be a stranger, of whose existence there is no record. Everybedy can ger suited with a Fecket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JAcent's Hardware Depot. Thermometrical. From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morn- ing at 6:56 o'clock : Atlanta, Ga	badged degs?At Least 20.0 0.The census enumerators are now wellon into the second week of their work.They are at it, early and late, ten hoursa day, and occasionally put in an extralick or two. Ot course they canuot divulge the result of their labors until authorized to do so, but, at the same time,there is no restriction as to their indulg-ing in speculations as to the total amount:We have conversed with several of theenumerators and they all seem to be fullyagreed as to the fact that the populationof the city will not fail less than 20 000,and may possibly go as high as 23,000.So may it teTomato Catsup.Take perfectly ripe tomatoes one-halfbushe!; wash them clean, and break topieces; then put over the fire, and when they are sufficiently cool to allowyour hands in them, rub through a wiresieve; and to what goes through add salt,2 teacnp; allspice and cloves, of each,ground, 1 teacup; best vinegar, onequart. Put on the fire again, and cookoneAto CatsupWeen you visit or leave New York City,sign colspan="2">and break toatomation of the city will not fail less than 20 000,and may possibly go as high as 23,000.So may	ately dressed in white; the bridesmaids were; Misses Lizzie Huske, Hillsboro, Mamie DeRosset, Wilmington, Beesle Gain, Hillsboro, Belle Norwood, Georgia, Elinor Webb and Mamie Ruffin, Hills- boro. Lastly came the beautiful bride- elect, elegantly attired in white brocaded silk, and accompanied by her venerable grandfather, Hon. J. W. Norwood, who gave the bride away. The groom, accompanied by his brother William Latimer, Esq., of Wilmington, who acted as best man, entered thechurch from the vestry and received the bride at the altar. Rev. J. O. Cheshire, of Chap- el Hill, officiated and performed the beau- tiful and thrilling ceremony with much impressiveness. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Latimer received the congratu- lations of their friends at the residence of the bride's grandfather, and immediately afterwards took their departure on the morning train for Wilmington, their fu- ture home. From thence they go to Sar- atoga to spend their honeymoon.—Hills borc Mait. MILLINDERY. Corner Third and Orange Streets Wilmington, N. G. CALL AND EXAMINE my Spring styles of Hait, Bonnett, Bibbons, Flowers, Feathers, Ornaments of all tinds. Country orders promptly filled. Hair Work done in all the improved styles. may 28 MRS. 8. J. BAKER. ME. J. H. BATES, New spaper Advertis ing Agent, 41 Park Row, (Times Buildag).	Along the line TO WILMINGTON AND RETURN , at the nominal rates named below, with tick-the descendence of the order of the

Northwest	30	Lilesville	81	127
Mariboro	55	Wadesboro	2	- 6
Rosindale	75	Polkton	2	ाह
Clarkton	.95	Mulcahy	2	95
Abbottsburg 1	00	Lanesborg	3	00
Bladenboro 1	00	Amea	3	20
Allenton1	25	Monroe	3	30
Lumberton 1	34	Stont	3	45
Moss Neck 1	55	Matthewa	3	85
Red Banks 1	10	Charlotte	3	76