When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. European plan. Rooms reduced to $1.00 and upwards. Restaurant unsurpassed at moderate prices. Street cars, stages and elevated railroad to all parts of the city.

Quite a large number of our country friends, from along the line of the Carolina Central Railway, are in the city to-day, having taken advantage of the cheap excursion rates.

Our Spring and Summer Goods for Gent's, Youth's and Boy's wear is still large and attractive. Those who want the nobbiest, the newest, the latest, the best and the cheapest goods always go to Shrier's.

A parrot, a pug dog, three canaries in separate cages, a Newfoundland, a goat in harness and a pet kitten in a basket is the correct complement for a family taking possession of a seaside cottage at this season.

If, as some one has said, 'a numerous household is the safety of the Republic,' it might as well be proclaimed at once, that the remedy upon which such household should be reared is Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price only 25 cents. Always reliable.

The newest seaside and driving hats have small, curving brims with low Derby crowns, and the only trimming is a vermilion scarf of chinese crape folded around the crown with ends closely tucked in, a marvel of simplicity and style.

FROM RALEIGH.

The Democrats of North Carolina in Convention—The Largest Convention ever held in Raleigh—No Hall Large Enough to hold the Convention and the Convention meets in the Open Air—Jarvis Nominated on the First Ballot.

(Special to Daily Review)

RALEIGH, N. C., June 17th, 3:25 p. m.

The Democrats of North Carolina, through their chosen representatives, met here to-day in Convention for the purpose of nominating a State ticket and Democratic Electors at large and for appointing delegates to the Democratic Convention at Cincinnati, to be held on the 22d. It is the largest political convention ever held in North Carolina. There is an immense attendance, and as there is no hall in the city large enough to hold them all, the convention is being held in the open air in Capitol Square.

The Convention was called to order by Capt. S. A. Ashe, Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee. Mr. James E. Moore, of Martin, was made temporary Chairman, and Messrs. E. A. London, Jr., of Chatham, and P. M. Wilson, of Raleigh, temporary Secretaries.

A permanent organization was afterwards effected, when Maj. John W. Graham, of Orange, was chosen as Chairman, and Messrs. H. A. London, Jr., of Chatham, and R. M. FURNAN, of Edgecombe, were elected Secretaries.

Judge Fowle, Governor Jarvis and General Scales have been placed in nomination for Governor, and the balloting has just commenced.

Will send you more very soon. J.

4:25 P. M.

SECOND DISPATCH.

Thomas J. Jarvis was nominated for Governor of the State of North Carolina on the first ballot. J.

The Ailanthus.

Any one who wishes to deserve the good will of his country will set himself to the destruction of the ailanthus trees, now in flower, before they have time again to poison the air with their pestilential blossoms. One who knows—or who ought to know—says that the rank odor is absolutely poisonous to sensitive persons, producing headaches, nausea and prostration, and fevers and bilious complaints are doubly distressing by the smell. It would be worth the attention of medical men to determine whether malarious and nervous diseases are not considerably aggravated during the time the ailanthus is in flower.

Physicians freely prescribe the new Food Medicine, "Malt Bitters," because more nourishing, strengthening and purifying than all other forms of malt or medicine, while free from the objections urged against malt liquors.

List Your Taxes.

The Assessors for Cape Fear, Harnett and Masonboro townships will be on hand in the Commissioners' Room at the Court House, in this city, on Saturday next to take the tax lists of residents of Wilmington who may own property in said townships. All such are earnestly urged to come forward and save time and trouble for themselves and others.

Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Plow, parties in want of this celebrated Plow can now have their orders filled at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot, No. 10 S. Front st. If.

The days are now at their longest and on Tuesday they will begin to shorten.

Tall clusters of Lady Washington roses are seen on the latest fashionable bonnets.

The almanac tells us that Summer will begin on Sunday next, at 8 o'clock P. M. A good joke.

Gold and straw colored plumes take the place of white feathers on the stylish rough straw hats.

Pompons of silk and cabbage roses of quill feathers cut down are the soft trimming for seaside hats, as dampness does not uncurl them like ostrich plumes.

The jar-handle style of carrying the arms adopted by wearers of glove-fitting dresses, with elbow out and hands attached to the side, gives a woman in the street much the outline of a Grecian urn, but is not a development of antique grace.

The River.

The river was falling yesterday when the steamer North State left Fayetteville and it is probable that the boat will meet a rise of from three to four feet. There is now plenty of water on the shoals for boating purposes. Several very fine timber rafts from above Fayetteville arrived in this city this morning.

Three at one Birth.

A colored woman residing on Swan street, in this city, the wife of David Jones, a well known drayman has given birth recently to triplets. The first was born last Friday night, the second on Saturday night and the third on Sunday night, but only the oldest has survived.

At last accounts the mother and her child were doing very well. The woman is about 35 years old and has grown children.

Save your money and buy your Building Supplies from Altaffer & Price.

The Fortunate Lady.

The publication made by us yesterday, to the effect that a lady in this city was heir to a handsome fortune in England, has created quite a ripple of excitement and enquiry. We see no harm in giving the name of the lady and trust that she may succeed in securing the estate without much more of delay and expense. It is Mrs. Gardner, the wife of Capt. Junius D. Gardner, who is the fortunate person. She is the great grand-daughter, not the grand-daughter, as we stated yesterday, of James Green, who died in England in 1802, and who left the money. Mrs. Gardner is the only heir to the estate. The only thing in the way would appear to be the difficulty of establishing the death of her grand-father, the son of the decedent, who left here and removed to the Southwest more than fifty years ago, but this, we opine, will not stand in the way for long as the party referred to would have been over 100 years old if he had lived until now.

Everybody can get suited with a Pocket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

More Burglarious Attempts.

There is one section of the city which seems to have been selected especially of late for the operations of burglars and the thing is getting so monotonous now in that neighborhood that somebody will get mad before long and then somebody else will get hurt. Twice within a week has the residence of Mrs. Owens, a widow lady residing on Fifth, between Orange and Ann streets, been attempted, but fortunately the rascals were unsuccessful in each instance. There is evidently a gang of them as on each occasion when they have been seen there are more than one engaged in the attempt.

Last night, about half-past 2 o'clock, they dropped in on Mr. John Niemeyer, corner of Sixth and Orange streets. They had raised the window and propped it with an axe, when Mrs. Niemeyer heard them and aroused her husband, Mr. Niemeyer had his pistol near at hand and blazed away at them but having been so suddenly aroused from a deep sleep he was considerably dazed and fired wild. As a consequence he missed the rascals who managed to get off clear. The entire neighborhood was aroused by the noise of the shots and much excitement ensued. One gentleman, a venerable friend of ours and an old Confederate hero, sprang from his bed with the impression that Fort Fisher was attacked again, and for the third time. He would certainly have had a hand in this fight, too, only he couldn't find the door!

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Ashy or drab hair, is the latest freak of fashion. But the girls will never be satisfied until they can have their choice between a delicate skyblue and a deep shade of bottle green. A dashing blonde with pick hair or a stately brunette with wavy tresses of a beautiful mahogany brindle, with be just heavenly.
