VIEWES AND REVIEWS.

'Mr. Garfield,' says the New York Herald, 'is the first candidate of either party whose nomination for the Presidency has been followed by charges of pecuniary dishonor in positions of official trust.'

Hon. William H. English, of Indiana, has written a letter in which he declares that he will not consent to the use of his name in antagonism to that of Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, either for President or Vice-President.

A Washington dispatch says Senator Conkling admits that he was greatly disappointed when the break took place in Bisbee's line that Grant did not get enough votes to secure his nomination. He says that if he had anticipated any such result he would have thrown his forces to Edmunds and secured his nomination. He says that he will take an active part in the campaign, and hopes to carry New York for the ticket.

There is a curious coincidence in relation to the 36th ballot in connection with presidential affairs: Garfield was nominated on the thirty-sixth ballot; Jefferson was elected on the thirty-sixth ballot. In 1801 Jefferson and Burr were an exact tie in the electoral college, and the election went to the House of Representatives, where Jefferson was elected on the thirty-sixth ballot, the contest lasting for seven days.

The European sportsman, mighty hunter though he be, is completely put to the blush when comparing his meagre account of a day's shooting with the regal bags made by the Indian rajahs and princes, or even by the Feringees, in British India. The may be less physical exertion, and consequently less physical improvement, in the monster battues of the East than in our more homely and vigorous sports, but the total is something very magnificent indeed. Six tigers, thirty-six buffaloes, 140 pigs, 2,200 deer is the sum of a Hindoo gentleman's shooting.

An engine that will pull a short train without flame, smoke, grease or noise is precisely what is needed on elevated railways. Such an engine Colonel Beaumont, an English engineer, is reported to have invented. Air is stored in a reservoir under a pressure of 1,000 pounds to the square inch, and delivered there, first into a small and afterwards into larger cylinders, whence, after giving out its force it passes into the outer air. An old difficulty, that compressed air freers the atmosphere, which condenses on the pipes of engines, has been overcome. The engine can now haul a gross load of twenty-two tons for eleven miles, or twelve tons for twenty miles, with one charge of air.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

Desiring to present a full report as possible of the proceedings of the Democratic Convention held in Raleigh on Thursday, we yield our editorial space to a close synopsis, which we make up from the Raleigh Observer's report:

At fifteen minutes to one, the convention was called to order by Capt. N. A. Ashe, chairman State Democratic Executive Committee. He called James Edwin Moore, of Martin county, to the chair, as temporary chairman, and H. A. London and P. M. Wilcox were appointed temporary secretaries.

The chairman of the respective districts handed in the names of the following unanimitous:

Credentials—J. A. Suggs, Hugh Murray, C. W. Bradford, A. M. Nobles, D. M. Settle, S. M. Finger, John S. Henderson and J. M. Gucker.

Resolutions and Platform—W. A. B. Branch, I. F. Dortch, B. R. Moore, E. R. Stamps, A. C. McAllister, H. C. Jones, W. H. H. Cowles and L. J. Hoyle.

Permanent Organization—W. D. Pruden, F. M. Simmons, J. D. McIver, C. M. Cooke, M. McGehee, P. B. Means, J. C. Buxton and A. M. Erwin.

State Executive Committee—First District—T. A. Jernigan, J. E. Moore, R. W. Wharton and J. P. Waddell; Second District—A. J. Galloway, R. B. Peebles, Benjamin A. Kew and Henry K. Bryan.

Third District—Applinton, Oakesmith Isaac B. Kelly, H. B. Short, Jr. and D. H. McLean; Fourth District—W. H. Yarborough, J. M. Moring, J. S. Battle and N. B. Canaday.

Fifth District—A. E. Henderson, David S. Reid, M. S. Robbins and C. F. Lowe; Sixth District—J. G. Hall, S. J. Pemberton, John D. Shaw and W. J. Yates.

Seventh District—R. Z. Linnay, W. B. Glenn, J. C. Withorn and G. A. Bligham; Eighth District—Kope Elias, R. M. Furman, B. F. Logan and A. M. Erwin.

The roll was called, when the responses came from every county in the State. A contest was announced in Northampton county alone.

The committee on permanent organization reported through Hon. Marshall McGehee as follows:

For Chairman—John W. Graham; For Vice-Presidents—1st District—S. B. Sprail; 2d District—C. J. Nutdock; 3d District—C. W. McClintock; 4th District—T. B. Venable; 5th District—George Watson; 6th District—Walter L. Steele; 7th District—H. W. Fries; 8th District—Gen. Augustine Jones.

For Secretaries—H. A. London, R. M. Furman; For Assistant Secretaries—Swift Galloway, A. L. Blow and P. M. Wilson.

The reports of the committees were unanimously adopted.

Mr. B. H. Bunn moved the appointment of delegates at large to represent North Carolina at Cincinnati.

The following were then placed in nomination:

Col. Thomas Ruffin, of Orange; Gen. Thomas L. Clingman, of Buncombe; Col. Wharton J. Green, of Warren; Hon. A. M. Waddell, of New Hanover; Maj. L. M. Long, of Halifax; Hon. W. T. Dortch, of Wayne; Josh. T. James, of Wake; Col. Charles B. Jones, of Mecklenburg.

The roll of counties was about to be called, when Capt. C. M. Cooke moved that the election of delegates be postponed until after the nomination for Governor was made. The motion prevailed by a large majority.

The committee on credentials then reported that no business had come before it, the contest in Northampton having been settled by the delegation from that county. The report was adopted.

The nomination of Mr. John A. Gilmer, as judge of the fourth judicial district, was ratified.

Nominations for Governor being thus in order, Col. T. C. Fuller, of Wake, took the stand. He said he was profoundly impressed with the fact that the contest in this State would be a tremendous one. The Republicans would make an earnest and bitter attack. But if we are prudent in our selection of a standard-bearer, victory will again perch upon our banners. The Democracy of the State must be aimed and impressed with the importance of the issues that press upon us in the coming campaign. He arose to nominate a man who would thrill the Democracy of the State and rouse them to battle; a man whose nomination was an assurance of victory. He felt it to be a proud distinction to nominate this man. He pledged his aid and earnest efforts to secure the election of whoever the convention might nominate, and went on to pay a glowing tribute to the North Carolina Democracy. In the name of the county of Wake, and in the name of a large portion of this State, he presented the name of Daniel G. Fowle for Governor. (Long and continued applause.)

Capt. W. H. Day, of Halifax, seconded the nomination of Gov. Jarvis in a graceful and earnest speech.

Col. George Williamson, of Caswell, seconded the nomination of Gen. Seales. Mr. William B. Branch, of Beaufort, seconded the nomination of Judge Fowle in the name of his county.

Dr. P. T. Henry, of Granville, spoke in favor of Judge Fowle.

The balloting then began, the roll of counties being called.

Thos. J. Jarvis received 680 votes, Daniel G. Fowle, 449 votes, A. M. Seales, 108 votes and J. J. Davis 1 1/2 votes.

Then followed a scene rarely witnessed amid roars, shouts and cheers, county after county changed their votes for Jarvis.

Col. Fuller moved to make the nomination unanimous.

Capt. Jas. E. Shepherd, of Beaufort, addressed the convention, and seconded Col. Fuller's motion to make the vote unanimous. He paid a glowing tribute to Gov. Jarvis.

Col. H. C. Jones proposed three cheers for Hon. D. G. Fowle, and they were given with a will.

The motion that the nomination be made unanimous was put and carried without a dissenting voice but with a roar like the roar of the sea.

The chairman, Mr. Graham, announced Gov. Jarvis as the nominee of the Conservative party in North Carolina.

Gov. Jarvis was called for for some minutes, and amid cheers, took the platform, and was introduced by Col. Jones. The Governor said there were not words in the English language to express the emotions and gratitude he felt. Reared as he was, humble, by the side of the roaring ocean, and for nine years follow in the plow handles, to have been to-day selected by his countrymen to bear the banner flung forth a century ago, brought to him an honor of which any man might be proud, whatever his origin. He would have been proud of the honor under any circumstances, but to have thus been endorsed, after having for a year exercised the arduous duties of Chief Magistrate, was an added honor. To have thus been distinguished above his distinguished competitors brought him more pride than he could describe. For the first time, his personal integrity had been attacked. By the people from the mountains to the sea had said here to-day that he believed and trusted in his honor and integrity. His bitterest enemy might go through his past life, and if he could find that one dishonest penny had found its way in his pocket, in any way, he would leave the State.

He went on to speak of the banner he should bear in this campaign, which would have upon it purity of party and personal purity. He intended to go from the mountain side to the sea and tell the people of North Carolina that the State should ever be in the care of the Democratic party. He went on to describe a scene he witnessed in this square, when the Radical party came in power in this State, and when Gov. Holden delivered his inaugural address. Sitting in the capital he saw this, but he with others believed that this dark cloud should be lifted, and made a vow not to stop in his work until the State was redeemed and restored to its rightful owners, the people of the State. He thanked God this result had been brought about, and we stand here to-day citizens of a redeemed State.

He proposed to do his whole duty. But no man could elect himself, and it needed the united efforts of his party to bring about such a result. If the Democrats wished to reap the fruits of the day's work they must go to work early and late. He called for prudence and fairness at the ballot box, and said that he did not wish to go into office unless upon a fair ballot. He again returned thanks for the great mark of esteem given him here to-day, and begged to thank the convention. He would return to that office in which he expected to stay for four coming years. He closed amid a roar of applause.

Col. H. C. Jones moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait on Judge Fowle and ask him to address the convention in the evening. It was adopted and Messrs. H. C. Jones, Montford McGehee and Thos. C. Fuller were appointed as the committee.

The chairman announced as the next thing in order nominations for Lieutenant Governor.

Maj. McRae, of Cumberland, presented the name of J. L. Robinson of Macon.

Capt. W. H. Day, of Halifax, presented the name of Julian S. Carr, of Orange.

Mr. W. C. Etheridge, of Bertie, nominated Col. Thos. M. Hill, of Alamance.

Mr. Charles Price, of Rowan, placed in nomination Kerr Craige, of Rowan.

The balloting began, and the result after two calls of the roll, was announced as follows: Robinson, 688; Carr, 37; Hill, 71; Craige, 98; Bennett, 20.

On the first ballot it seemed as if the strong vote given for Mr. Carr, together with the many changes to him, would result in his success, and there was loud cheering by his friends. The vote for him was over 400, it was estimated. But the confusion caused by the changes made a new call of the roll an absolute necessity.

The nomination of Mr. Robinson was announced, and, upon motion, was amid applause, made unanimous.

The nomination of Secretary of State was next called for.

Mr. W. A. Branch, of Wayne, placed the name of Hon. George V. Strong, of Wake, before the convention.

The balloting then began. The result of the vote was: Kenan, 805; Watson, 166; Caldwell, 175; Strong 103. The nomination of Col. Kenan was then, upon motion, made unanimous amid cheers.

The convention was then declared adjourned until 8:30 o'clock at Metropolitan Hall.

Judge Fowle, at this stage of the proceedings, was announced. He was introduced by the chairman. On taking the stand Judge Fowle said he felt as if he had before him the whole of North Carolina, when he looked upon the bonnet and sash of the State here assembled. He acknowledged the great compliment paid him by the convention, in giving him more than five hundred votes on the nomination for Governor. It was the first occasion on which he had ever allowed his name to be used as a candidate for office. Since the dark days of 1865 his voice had always been heard in the land; sparing no means of doing good work for the glorious Democratic party and the grand old North State. It was for others that he had given his efforts. To those who to-day had cast their votes for him and been such strong friends of his, he had one thing to say, and that was to follow him in his best efforts to make Thos. J. Jarvis Governor by twenty thousand majority. (Tremendous cheering.) He urged them to join him to advance the standard of Democracy in North Carolina, for his voice should be heard every where in its advocacy. Judge Fowle went on to speak of the urgent necessity for action, vigorous, prompt and steady, to carry the State in November. He then touched on matters of national politics, and said that the Democratic party was the conservator of the purity of the republic. Upon the Southern States, it was now test, rests the perpetuation of the principles of the Union of our fathers. He called on his hearers, one and all, to not be backward in placing North Carolina in a high position among her Democratic sister States in November.

The speech of Judge Fowle was delivered with deep and marked feeling and earnestness. Throughout its delivery it was interrupted by applause, and at its close there was a roar of acclamation.

Evening Session

The chairman announced as first in order nominations for State Auditor.

Mr. G. N. Ferguson, of Haywood, nominated Dr. S. L. Love, the present incumbent.

Mr. C. B. Green, of Orange, placed in nomination the name of Capt. R. A. Shotwell, of Cleveland.

Mr. James T. Morehead, Jr., of Guilford, nominated Capt. Rufus Annis, of Granville.

Hon. W. T. Dortch nominated Gen. W. P. Roberts, of Gates.

Hon. Alfred M. Waddell, of New Hanover, nominated Col. J. G. Burr, of New Hanover.

Edmund Jones, E. q. of Caldwell, placed in nomination Maj. Thos. Sparrow, of Beaufort.

Col. Duncan K. McRae, of New Hanover, seconded the nomination of Col. Burr.

Mr. D. H. McLean, of Harnett, seconded the nomination of Col. Burr.

Mr. Turner, of Iredell, nominated Mr. Thos. A. Nicholson, of Iredell.

Mr. James H. Exum, of Nash, nominated Mr. W. A. Darden, of Greene.

Capt. Swift Galloway, of Greene, seconded Mr. Darden's nomination.

The nominations were then closed, and the ballot was had, but there were so many changes that the votes were never announced. One by one the counties that had supported other candidates changed to Roberts, amid a storm of applause.

On motion of Mr. Edmund Jones, of Caldwell, the nomination of Gen. Roberts was made unanimous.

The next nomination in order was that for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Mr. W. C. Troy, of Fayetteville, nominated Mr. John C. Scarborough, the present incumbent.

Col. Paul B. Means, of Cabarrus, placed in nomination Mr. Bickley.

Mr. G. S. Bradshaw, of Randolph, nominated Rev. C. C. Dason, of Davidson.

Mr. T. W. Strange, of New Hanover, nominated Capt. C. B. Denson, of Chatham.

Mr. H. F. Grainger, of Wayne, nominated Rev. Needham B. Cobb, of Cumberland.

Mr. John Gray Bynum, of Burke, nominated R. L. Abernathy.

Mr. W. H. H. Cowles, of Wilkes, nominated Mr. J. H. Hill, of Watauga.

Mr. Charles A. Cook nominated John E. Dugger, of Wake.

There being no further nominations, the ballot was taken, but there were so many changes that the results for all the candidates were never announced. County after county changed, amid cheers for Scarborough.

Col. Paul B. Means moved that the nomination of Mr. John C. Scarborough be made unanimous. The motion was put to a vote and carried.

The election of delegates to the National Democratic Convention at Cincinnati, from the State at large, was next taken up.

The following were nominated: W. T. Dortch, of Wayne; Josh. T. James, of New Hanover; John Galloway, of Wake; Thos. Ruffin, of Orange; A. M. Waddell, of New Hanover; L. M. Long, of Halifax; John S. Henderson, of Rowan; Wharton J. Green, of Warren; Charles B. Jones, of Mecklenburg; Thomas L. Clingman, of Buncombe; Thos. M. Hill, of Alamance; James M. Leach, of Davidson.

The roll of counties was then called, when the following gentlemen, having received the highest votes, were declared elected delegates: W. T. Dortch, John S. Henderson, Thos. Ruffin and A. M. Waddell.

Alternates—Wharton J. Green, T. L. Clingman, L. M. Long and Charles R. Jones.

The nomination of electors for the State at large being next in order, the following gentlemen were placed in nomination: Messrs. J. M. Leach, Fab. H. Busbee, Walter L. Steele and John Manning.

The roll was called, when it was found that Messrs. J. M. Leach and Fab. H. Busbee had received the greatest number of votes, and they were accordingly declared to have received the nomination for electors. On motion the nominations were made unanimous.

The committee on rules through W. H. H. Cowles, submitted the following:

Resolved, That the central executive prescribe and publish permanent rules for the party organization.

Resolved, That the Democratic party of North Carolina are in favor of an honest and economical administration of the government, national and State, under the constitution and laws of the United States and of the State of North Carolina, and rely for their success upon the exercise of a free ballot, untrammelled by military interference.

Hon. J. L. Robinson returned his thanks to the convention.

Gen. J. M. Leach made a most humorous speech. Attorney General Kenan and Treasurer Worth made some remarks.

At 1 a. m. the chairman declared the convention adjourned.

The Frighful Scourge
Yellow Fever can be prevented by the use of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and Warner's Safe Pills. Keep the blood clean and pure, and Malarial Fevers will not be apparent. These Remedies keep the kidney and liver in perfect action, and when they do their duty the blood will be pure. June 17

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brassy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair, The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.
